The Collectors Wife:

The Collector's Wife Mitra Phukan, 2005 This is the story of Rukmini who is married to the District Collector of a small town in Assam and teaches English literature in the local college On the surface her life is settled and safe in the big beautiful bungalow on the hill above the cremation ground seemingly untouched by the toil and sufferings of the common folk living below And yet each time there is an incident in the district the fear and uncertainty that grips the town finds a reflection in her own life Assam is in the grip of insurgency and it is this thread that runs like a dark river through the novel and forms its backdrop The Collector Walter Romeyn Benjamin, 1897 The Collector's Voice Susan

Pearce, Rosemary Flanders, Fiona Morton, 2016-12-05 The Collector's Voice is a major four volume project which brings together in accessible form material relevant to the history and practice of collecting in the European tradition from c 1500 BC to the present day The series demonstrates how attitudes to objects the collecting of objects and the shape of the museum institution have developed over the past 3000 years Material presented includes translations of a wide range of original documents letters official reports verse fiction travellers accounts catalogues and labels Volume 1 Ancient Voices edited by Susan Pearce and Alexandra Bounia Volume 2 Early Voices edited by Susan Pearce and Kenneth Arnold Volume 3 Imperial Voices edited by Susan Pearce and Rosemary Flanders Volume 4 Contemporary Voices edited by Susan Pearce and Paul Martin Interpreting Objects and Collections Susan M. Pearce, 1994 This volume brings together for the first time the most significant papers on the interpretation of objects and collections and examines how people relate to material culture and why they collect things The first section of the book discusses the interpretation of objects setting the philosophical and historical context of object interpretation Papers are included which discuss objects variously as historical documents functioning material and as semiotic texts as well as those which examine the politics of objects and the methodology of object study The second section on the interpretation of collections looks at the study of collections in their historical and conceptual context Many topics are covered such as the study of collecting to structure individual identity its affect on time and space and the construction of gender There are also papers discussing collection and ideology collection and social action and the methodology of collection study This unique anthology of articles and extracts will be of inestimable value to all students and professionals involved in the interpretation of objects and collections Calendar of Various Chancery Rolls ...: A.D. 1277-1326 Great Britain.
