

An aerial photograph of a school campus. In the center is a large, rectangular green field, likely a football field, with a brown track or path around its perimeter. To the left of the field are several large, multi-story buildings with light-colored roofs, possibly classrooms or administrative buildings. To the right of the field is a parking lot filled with cars and a few yellow school buses. Further back, there are more buildings and a large area of trees. The text "Site of Ski Hill >" is overlaid in the center of the image, pointing towards the green field.
