The Colonial Legacy In Caribbean Literature:

The Colonial Legacy in Caribbean Literature Amon Saba Saakana, 1987      The Colonial Legacy in Caribbean Literature Amon S. Saakana, 1987      The colonial legacy in Caribbean literature ,      The Colonial Legacy in Caribbean Literature: Colonization & the destruction of the mind Amon Saba Saakana, 1987      The Colonial Legacy in Caribbean Literature: without special title Amon Saba Saakana, 1987      The Colonial Legacy in Caribbean Literature: Colonialism & the destruction of the mind : psychosocial issues of race, class, religion & sexuality in the novels of Roy Heath Amon Saba Saakana, 1987      The Colonial Legacy in Caribbean Literature: Literature, liberation & colonial convention: psychodynamics in the novels of Roy Heath Amon Saba Saakana, 1987      The Routledge Reader in Caribbean Literature Alison Donnell, Sarah Lawson Welsh, 1996 An outstanding compilation of over seventy primary and secondary texts of writing from the Caribbean The editors demonstrate that these singular voices have emerged out of a wealth of literary tradition and not a cultural void      In the Shadows of Divine Perfection Lance Callahan, 2004-11-23 In the Shadows of Divine Perfection provides an examination of Derek Walcott's Omeros 1990 the St Lucian poet's longest work and the piece that secured his Nobel Laureate that reveals the deep seated bond between the root narratives of ancient Greece to the cultural products and practices of the contemporary Caribbean This book presents the first detailed reading of Walcott's highly controversial attempt to craft a Caribbean master narrative This book also presents an overview of the poem's ideological orientation and a far reaching critique of current postcolonial theory Lance Callahan engages some of the most vexing problems of authenticity by reading Walcott's work alongside ancient Greek literature and culture      The Luxury of Nationalist Despair A.J. Simoes da Silva, 2021-11-01 This book offers a timely critique of the work of the Barbadian novelist George Lamming examining the ways in which his novels exhibit the luxury of nationalist despair and exploring the tensions between his strongly voiced anti colonialism and his ambiguously articulated politics of self Although stressing the place occupied by Lamming and his work in the context of an anti colonial first generation of nation writing that has emerged in the formerly colonized world over the past half century the study also addresses the novelist's problematic reductive focus on a nationalist project that is ultimately deeply flawed in essence the result of an uneasy relationship between form and thesis Lamming's continued struggle with the novel as a genre especially with its ability to get beyond the cultural and political baggage of colonialism demonstrates the power of one of his most poignant assertions the colonial experience is a continuing psychic experience that has to be dealt with long after the actual situation formally ends Written from a postcolonial perspective the study draws also on contemporary feminist criticism in order to examine Lamming's characteristically simplistic depiction of female characters in terms of a greater willingness to embody the neocolonial The book starts by addressing the place Lamming's work occupies both within postcolonial writing at large and specifically within Caribbean literature Subsequent chapters provide close textual readings of Lamming's six novels paired in terms of their foregrounding of issues of race gender and class Despite a clear shift in Lamming's thematic focus on the rewriting of Caliban's project with his last novel offering a basis for a re-imagining of the post-colonial encounter there remains a perturbing inability to relinquish the privileged stance afforded the postcolonial intellectual in self-imposed exile cultural much more than geographical The book represents an important contribution to criticism on the work of one of the most influential voices in postcolonial literature of the last fifty years

Black Women, Writing and Identity Carole Boyce-Davies,2002-09-11 Black Women Writing and Identity is an exciting work by one of the most imaginative and acute writers around The book explores a complex and fascinating set of interrelated issues establishing the significance of such wide-ranging subjects as re-mapping re-naming and cultural crossings tourist ideologies and playful world travelling gender heritage and identity African women's writing and resistance to domination marginality effacement and decentering gender language and the politics of location Carole Boyce-Davies is at the forefront of attempts to broaden the discourse surrounding the representation of and by black women and women of colour Black Women Writing and Identity represents an extraordinary achievement in this field taking our understanding of identity location and representation to new levels

The Heritage Series of Black Poetry, 1962-1975 Lauri Ramey,2016-03-03 In 1962 the Heritage Series of Black Poetry founded and edited by Paul Breman published Robert Hayden's A Ballad of Remembrance By 1975 the Series had published 27 volumes by some of the twentieth century's most important and influential poets As elaborated in Lauri Ramey's extensive scholarly introduction this innovative volume has dual purposes To provide primary sources that recover the history and legacy of this groundbreaking publishing venture and to serve as a research companion for scholars working on the Series and on twentieth century black poetry Never before published primary materials include Paul Breman s memoir retrospectives by several of the poets published in the Series a photo documentary of W E B Du Bois s 1958 visit to The Netherlands poems by poets represented in the Series and scholarly essays Also included are bibliographies of the Heritage poets and of the Heritage Press Archives at the Chicago Public Library This reference work is an essential resource for scholars working in the fields of black poetry transatlantic studies and twentieth century book history Kamau Brathwaite and Christopher Okigbo Curwen Best,2009 This book is the first comparative work of its kind to provide an extended analysis of the contribution of Kamau Brathwaite and Christopher Okigbo It considers the poetic works of these two artists as they responded to the transformations taking place within Africa and the Caribbean during the Independence period Some of the issues discussed include politics and art religion spirituality traditional culture versus popular culture language and identity literature and orality cyber culture and identity This book highlights some of the similarities and differences in the life and work of these two poets and examines various aspects of their style It provides a clearer understanding of the stances these artists took on crucial issues that would shape the face of their respective societies way beyond the Independence period

Postcolonial Slavery Charlotte Baker,Jennifer Jahn,2009-10-02 This collection of eight essays by research students and academics from the UK France Germany and the USA examining different forms and manifestations of postcolonial slavery underlines the significance of the year 2007 marking the bicentennial anniversary of the passage of the British law banning the slave trade Slavery and its legacies galvanized a diachronic series of ethnic crossings and transformations that engendered new and complex patterns of crosscultural contact And the importance of communities of runaway slaves can scarcely be overstated as a symbol of an insistent black resistance and self affirmation But in bringing the material realities of slavery to the forefront of the imagination this volume also highlights the marginalization of British and French colonial practices in institutionalized frameworks of historical knowledge Actively contesting the related traumas of transplantation the middle passage and the fracturing of the collective memory and drawing actively on a wide range of approaches and perspectives this collection seeks to reinscribe a material historical consciousness of slavery and its legacies through a strategic interaction between history subjectivity and representation H Adlai Murdoch University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign Contemporary World Fiction Juris Dilevko,Keren Dali,Glenda Garbutt,2011-03-17 This much needed guide to translated literature offers readers the opportunity to hear from learn about and perhaps better understand our shrinking world from the perspective of insiders from many cultures and traditions In a globalized world knowledge about non North American societies and cultures is a must Contemporary World Fiction A Guide to Literature in Translation provides an overview of the tremendous range and scope of translated world fiction available in English In so doing it will help readers get a sense of the vast world beyond North America that is conveyed by fiction titles from dozens of countries and language traditions Within the guide approximately 1 000 contemporary non English language fiction titles are fully annotated and thousands of others are listed Organization is primarily by language as language often reflects cultural cohesion better than national borders or geographies but also by country and culture In addition to contemporary titles each chapter features a brief overview of earlier translated fiction from the group The guide also provides in depth bibliographic essays for each chapter that will enable librarians and library users to further explore the literature of numerous languages and cultural traditions

Transnational Literature of Resistance Salam Darwazah Mir, 2024-06-13 Fills a gap in comparative studies interrogating strategies of Empire in dominating the Indigenous and linking two modern cultures from the Global South Transnational Literature of Resistance compares and contrasts resistance literatures from Guyana a British exploitation colony and Palestine a settler colony at a specific historical moment Salam Darwazah Mir contests the provinciality and Eurocentric focus of comparative literature delivers the discipline s universal objectives and expands the discipline s practice by comparing two literatures and histories from the Global South Mir situates the literatures within their wider historical and literary heritage a move that links the two countries from within the colonial imperial framework She argues that the British invasion of the protectorate of British Guiana in 1953 and the founding of the settler colony in Palestine in 1948 with imperial Britain at the helm are colonial acts to strengthen and sustain Empire The two colonial projects are evidence of the protean nature of Empire that evolves reinvents itself and reconstructs new comparable ploys and strategies of controlling the Global South Within this context the emergence of poetry of resistance in both countries at this historical juncture is part and parcel of other forms of resistance during decolonization linking the formerly colonized and the presently colonized people in the Global South It is examined from within the framework of postcolonial theory as Mir reads poetry as the voice of the people in their demands for freedom equality and national independence Resistance poetry is thus born out of the need to assert identity redress invisibility and erasure reclaim national space and land and reconstruct the history of the Indigenous

Writing New Identities Gisela Brinker-Gabler, Sidonie Smith, 1997

THE PRISONER OF MIGRATION Sam Lingayah, 2015-03-19 The Prisoner of Migration is an autobiographical novel informed by the author s expertise on Mauritian migration The author s researches have trawled deep into the oasis of the respondents varied colonial cultural heritages striving to explore the factors that have contributed to their paralysis of indecision This pursuit has unavoidably led him to find clarification by delving into the history of Mauritius beginning from the Dutch occupation in 1598 to the French colonisation in 1715 and the surrender of Ile de France to Britain in 1810 The analytical approach is eclectic supported by colonial documents and studies as well as information from books and news media The exposure of African slaves and Indian indentured labourers and their successors to the crucible of the melting pot of the varied cultural legacies seems to have resulted in a Mauritian population that V S Naipaul has defined as a manufactured people

Trans Studies Yolanda

Martínez-San Miguel, Sarah Tobias, 2016-03-22 Winner of the 2017 Sylvia Rivera Award in Transgender Studies from the Center for LGBTQ Studies CLAGS From Caitlyn Jenner to Laverne Cox transgender people have rapidly gained public visibility contesting many basic assumptions about what gender and embodiment mean The vibrant discipline of Trans Studies explores such challenges in depth building on the insights of queer and feminist theory to raise provocative questions about the relationships among gender sexuality and accepted social norms Trans Studies is an interdisciplinary essay collection bringing together leading experts in this burgeoning field and offering insights about how transgender activism and scholarship might transform scholarship and public policy Taking an intersectional approach this theoretically sophisticated book deeply grounded in real world concerns bridges the gaps between activism and academia by offering examples of cutting edge activism research and pedagogy
