The Eleventh Edition ..* Henry Scudder, 1674 The Christian's Daily Walk, in Holy Security and Peace Henry Scudder, 1899 Lessons for the Christian's Daily Walk George Mylne, 2020-03-10 Lessons for the Christian's Daily Walk Devotional and Practical Meditations on the Book of Ecclesiastes George Mylne 1859 Editor's note This is the best devotional commentary on the book of Ecclesiastes that we have ever come across In each verse which he comments on George Mylne first views the verse just as Solomon intended from the perspective of mere human wisdom That is the book of Ecclesiastes is simply God's record of the rational conclusions of the wisest and most experienced man who ever lived In other words Solomon seriously thought upon all of life the world and everything in it and concluded that all are puzzling enigmas emptiness vanity meaningless purposeless futile hopeless vexatious unsatisfying unjust etc etc Secondly Mylne then views each verse from the Christian perspective that is through the lens of the cross of Jesus From this perspective all the enigmas are solved all the meaninglessness and futility of life is removed and all the injustices are rectified Only through the cross does life become meaningful purposeful and satisfying Your Daily Walk Bruce Wilkinson, Walk Thru the Bible, 1991 A one year devotional guiding readers through the entire Bible The Christian's Daily Walk Henry Scudder, 2013-09 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher Not indexed Not illustrated 1826 edition Excerpt abstain from food longer than we can who live in a colder but I think the body cannot usually be sufficiently afflicted through want of food in less time than one day Thus I have proved religious fasting to be a Christian duty And have shown what it is who should and may fast when and how long It remaineth that I show you how you may keep a fast acceptable to God and profitable to yourself which is the principal thing to be regarded in a fast And this do I the rather because many well affected Christians have professed that they would gladly set about this duty but ingenuously confess that they know not how to do it and in particular how to be intent and spiritually employed for want of matter for a whole day together But of this in the next section II Directions for the keeping a Religious Fast By way of preparation to a religious fast do thus Take but a moderate supper the night before for if a man glut himself over night he will be more unfit for the duty of humiliation the next day and it differeth in effect little from breaking of fast next morning When you commend yourself to God alone by prayer that night as every good Christian doth then set yourself in a special manner to seek the Lord as the saints of God in the beginning of their fasts have done proposing to yourself the end of your intended fast remembering this that if the chief occasion and end be your own private good that you forget not others nor the public or if it be the public yet mind also your own private for until you have renewed your own peace with God your fasting and praying will prevail little for the public And God having joined the public with our private good in prayer we must not disjoin them in our fasting The Christians Daily Walk, in Holy Security and Peace ...
