The Cinema Of Frank Capra An Approach To Film Comedy:

The Cinema of Frank Capra Leland A. Poague, 1975 Frank Capra's Eastern Horizons Elizabeth

Rawitsch, 2014-10-16 Frank Capra has long had a reputation as being the quintessential American director the man who perfectly captured the identity and core values of the United States with a string of classic films in the 1930s and 40s including It Happened One Night Mr Smith Goes to Washington and It's a Wonderful Life However as Elizabeth Rawitsch argues Capra's construction of national identity did not occur within an exclusively national context She points out that many of his films are actually set in or include sequences set in China Latin America the Philippines and the South Seas Featuring in depth textual analysis supported by original archival research Frank Capra's Eastern Horizons explains that Capra's view of what constituted America changed over time extending its boundaries to embrace countries often far from the United States Complicating Edward Said's theory of Orientalism as a strict binary in which the West constructs the East as an inferior other it demonstrates that East and West often intermingle in films such as The Bitter Tea of General Yen and in Capra's orientation documentaries for World War II American servicemen Capra imagined a kind of global community albeit one with heavy undertones of British and American imperialism Investigating shifts in what Capra's America has meant over time both to Capra and to those who have watched and studied his films this innovative book offers a startlingly fresh perspective on one of the most iconic figures in American film history Another Frank Capra Leland Poague, 1994 Another Frank Capra offers a new interpretation of the great Hollywood director beyond the patriotic sentimentalist or the cynical opportunist that he has been taken for Often cast as a cinematic simpleton or primitive Capra's exploitation of the stylistic and narrative resources of cinema was in fact extremely self conscious and adventurous in ways typical of artistic modernism His modernism is also evident in his repeated and strong identification with female characters Informed by recent work in genre theory and feminist psychology Another Frank Capra shows Capra to be a proto feminist director whose feminism has been entirely neglected by previous critics Frank Capra Frank Capra, 2004 Few Hollywood directors had a higher profile in the 1930s than Frank Capra 1897-1991 He served as president of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences and of the Screen Directors Guild He won three Academy Awards as best director and was widely acclaimed as the man most responsible for making Columbia Pictures a success This popularity was established and sustained by films that spoke to and for the times It Happened One Night Mr Deeds Goes to Town Meet John Doe and Mr Smith Goes to Washington These replicated the nation's hopes and dreams for a national community He worked with some of the brightest stars in Hollywood James Stewart Clark Gable Jean Arthur Gary Cooper Barbara Stanwyck Claudette Colbert Bette Davis Donna Reed and Ann Margret Capra's interviews express his connection to the national audience and explore his own story He was a Sicilian immigrant boy who survived rough and tumble beginnings to become Hollywood's most bankable director In reflecting on his life almost every one of his films was a parable of acclaim verging on disaster He spent much of the 1940s in uniform while making films for the War Department Although Capra was an optimist World War II and his series of Why We Fight films called his legendary optimism into question His postwar film It's a Wonderful Life 1946 gave an answer to those questions with an astonishing directness Capra never equaled again In 1971 he published his autobiography The Name Above the Title Many of the interviews collected here come from this period when as an elder statesman of motion picture art and history he reflected on his long career The interviews portray the Capra legend vividly and demonstrate why the warm relations between Capra and his audiences continue to inspire acclaim and admiration Leland Poague a professor of English at Iowa State University is the editor of Conversations with Susan Sontag University Press of Mississippi He is the author of Another Frank Capra and The Cinema of Frank Capra: An Approach to Film Comedy Class, Language, and American Film

Comedy Christopher Beach, 2002-02-11 This book examines the evolution of American film comedy through the lens of language and the portrayal of social class Christopher Beach argues that class has been an important element in the development of sound comedy as a cinematic form With the advent of sound in the late 1920s and early 1930s filmmakers recognized that sound and narrative enlarged the semiotic and ideological potential of film Analyzing the use of language in the films of the Marx Brothers Frank Capra Woody Allen and the Coen brothers among others Class Language and American Film Comedy traces the history of Hollywood from the 1930s to the present while offering a new approach to the study of class and social relationships through linguistic analysis Franklin D. Roosevelt and the Shaping of American Political Culture Nancy Beck Young, Byron W. Daynes, William D. Pederson, 2001 How did Americans respond to the economic catastrophe that beset them in 1929 In what ways did the social and cultural responses inform the politics of the period How did changed political beliefs alter cultural activities This volume addresses these questions and more Hollywood's Italian American Filmmakers Jonathan J. Cavallero, 2011-05-01 Hollywood's Italian American Filmmakers explores the different ways in which Italian American directors from the 1920s to the present have responded to their ethnicity While some directors have used film to declare their ethnic roots and create an Italian American imagined community others have ignored or even denied their background Jonathan J. Cavallero examines the films of Frank Capra Martin Scorsese Nancy Savoca Francis Ford Coppola and Quentin Tarantino with a focus on what the films reveal about each director's view on Italian American identities Whereas Capra's films highlight similarities between immigrant characters and WASP Americans Scorsese accepts his ethnic heritage but also sees it as confining Similarly many of Coppola's films provide a nostalgic treatment of Italian American identity but with little criticism of the culture's more negative aspects And while Savoca's movies reveal her artful ability to recognize how ethnic gender and class identities overlap Tarantino's films exhibit a playfully postmodern engagement with Italian American ethnicity Cavallero's exploration of the films of Capra Scorsese Savoca Coppola and Tarantino demonstrates how immigrant Italians fought prejudice how later generations positioned themselves in relation to their predecessors and how the American cinema usually seen as a cultural institution that works to assimilate has also served as a forum where assimilation was resisted Hollywood Renaissance Sam B. Girgus,1998-08-13 A study of how films from the late 1930s to the early 60s portrayed the American ideal The M.E.Sharpe Library of Franklin D.Roosevelt Studies: v. 1 NancyBeck Young,2017-07-05 Although Roosevelt had no single plan to alter Congress's role the incremental changes adopted during the New Deal transformed Congress Examining the immediate reactions of groups in Congress and beyond and the long term effects this study offers insights into a key period in US politics Songs of Innocence and Experience Magdalena Grabias-Zurek,2013-07-26 Songs of Innocence and Experience Romance in the Cinema of Frank Capra is a study of the director's chosen movies from the perspective of three types of comedies: paradisa, purgatorial and infernal as assigned by Dante in his Divine Comedy Magdalena Grabias views Capra's films in two broader categories of innocence and experience where innocence represents Dantean paradisa level and experience combines the levels of purgatory and inferno Such a division constitutes the means to interpret Capra's filmic universe and to describe the ever evolving directorial vision of Frank Capra The main purpose of the book is to demonstrate how in the light of the theory of literary romance as presented by Northrop Frye in his seminal works concerning the subject the films of Frank Capra fit into the genre of romance Romantic elements in Frank Capra's movies can be found in both innocence and experience categories and hence consequently in his paradisa, purgatorial and infernal comedies However in both categories and all three comedy types the romantic reality of each examined film is structured and developed in a different manner The book offers an insight into Frank Capra's films and the complex process of creating his multidimensional romantic universe within them Fifty Hollywood Directors Suzanne Leonard,Yvonne Tasker,2014-11-20 Fifty Hollywood Directors introduces the most important iconic and influential filmmakers who worked in Hollywood between the end of the silent period and the birth of the blockbuster By exploring the historical, cultural and technological contexts in which each director was working this book traces the formative period in commercial cinema when directors went from pioneers to industry heavyweights Each entry discusses a director's practices and body of work and features a brief biography and suggestions for further reading Entries include Frank Capra Cecil B DeMille John Ford Alfred Hitchcock Fritz Lang Orson Welles DW Griffith King Vidor This is an indispensable guide for anyone interested in film history Hollywood and the development of the role of the director Twentieth-Century America Douglas Tallack,2014-07-22 The multi volume Longman literature in English series aims to provide students of literature with a critical introduction to the major genres in their historical and cultural context This book looks at cinema, painting and architecture in 20th century America as well as the culture of politics M.E.Sharpe Library of Franklin D.Roosevelt Studies: v. 1: Franklin D.Roosevelt and the Shaping of American Political Culture Nancy Beck Young,2022-01-26 How did Americans respond to the economic catastrophe of 1929 In what ways did the social and cultural responses of the American people inform the politics of the period How did changes in political beliefs alter cultural activities This volume examines the presidency of FDR through a very distinctive set of lenses the representation of FDR in film and popular culture discussions of New Deal art and art policy the social and political meanings of public architecture 1930s music and many more Look Who's

Laugh:Stud/Gender/C Finney,2014-07-10 First Published in 1994 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Italian Irish Filmmakers Lee Lourdeaux,1990 This penetrating study examines how these filmmakers confronted their cultural heritage and used it as a counterpoint to their depiction of mainstream America American Cinematographer In this unique film history Lee Lourdeaux traces the impact of Irish and Italian cultures on four major American directors and their work Defining the core values and tensions within each culture and especially focusing on the influence of American Catholicism he presents John Ford Frank Capra Francis Coppola and Martin Scorsese as ethnic Americans and film artists Lourdeaux shows each filmmaker on set with writers and actors learning to bypass stereotypes in order to develop a shrewd reciprocal assimilation between his ethnic background and Anglo America Beginning with D W Griffith s depiction of Irish and Italian immigrants the author discusses Hollywood s stereotypical portrayals of ethnic priests cops politicians and gangsters as well as their surface acculturation in the movies of the 1920s By the decade s end John Ford was using all American stories to embody the basic myths and tensions of Irish American life In his later westerns and foreign films he tried to understand both Irish political strife and the key figures of Irish liturgy Frank Capra pitted Italian family values against the Anglo success ethic turning out social comedies about oppressed little people Several decades later Martin Scorsese and Francis Coppola were highly critical of their religio ethnic heritage though they gradually discovered that to outline its weaknesses like the blind pursuit of success was to fashion a critical mirror of mainstream America Lourdeaux discusses a number of recent films by Coppola and by Scorsese that have not yet been analyzed in any book And in the chapter on Scorsese a personal interview with the director reveals how his ethnic childhood shaped his work in film Examining the conflicts within American culture Lourdeaux shows how the filmmakers themselves had to confront the self destructive aspects of their ethnic background not only to accommodate WASP audiences but to better understand their own heritage He also observes that ethnicity is a strong draw at the box office as in The Godfather because it creates a sense of the Other who can both be admired and at the same time ridiculed Illustrated with scenes of the movies discussed this fascinating film history tells how four of America s most famous filmmakers assimilated their ethnic backgrounds on set and on screen Mr Lourdeaux walks a tricky path in analyzing the films of each director avoiding the trap of excessively detailing their lives and many films while steering clear of ethnic stereotyping Those interested in ethnic influences on outstanding persons or in the production of films by four of the best will find the book enjoyable The Baltimore Sun This is an invaluable book because it arouses critical awareness of the ethnicity underlying many Hollywood movies that might otherwise appear merely to represent American archetypes Journal of American Studies A valuable addition to the literature on ethnic identity in film The insights Lourdeaux offers into major figures like Griffith Ford Capra Coppola and Scorsese contribute significantly to our understanding of their films Virginia Wright Wexman University of Illinois at Chicago For a number of years now church historians have been giving us an account of American Catholicism that is much richer and more varied than the older institutional accounts of the Catholic Church ever let on In this comprehensive and insightful study Lee Lourdeaux shows us how much the ethnic movies of directors like Ford and Capra Coppola and Scorsese have to teach us as well about Irish and Italian Catholic mores and instincts John B Breslin S J Director A wonderfully sensitive intelligent study of the complex issue of how the Catholic imagination works in the creative personalities of those raised in the Catholic heritage Andrew M Greeley

Harris Symposium October 27 and October 28 2013 in Omaha Nebraska Hitchcock Robert E. Kapsis,2022-02-21 From the beginning of his career Alfred Hitchcock wanted to be considered an artist Although his thrillers were immensely popular and Hitchcock himself courted reviewers he was for many years regarded as no more than a master craftsman By the 1960s though critics began calling him an artist of unique vision and gifts What happened to make Hitchcock s reputation as a true innovator and singular talent Through a close examination of Hitchcock s personal papers scripts production notes publicity files correspondence and hundreds of British and American reviews Robert Kapsis here traces Hitchcock's changing critical fortunes Vertigo for instance was considered a flawed film when first released today it is viewed by many as the signal achievement of a great director According to Kapsis this dramatic change occurred because the making of the Hitchcock legend was not solely dependent on the quality of his films Rather his elevation to artist was caused by a successful blending of self promotion sponsorship by prominent members of the film community and most important changes in critical theory which for the first time allowed for the idea of director as auteur Kapsis also examines the careers of several other filmmakers who like Hitchcock have managed to cross the line that separates craftsman from artist and shows how Hitchcock's legacy and reputation shed light on the way contemporary reputations are made In a chapter about Brian De Palma the most renowned thriller director since Hitchcock Kapsis explores how Hitchcock's legacy has affected contemporary work in and criticism of the thriller genre Filled with fascinating anecdotes and intriguing excerpts and augmented by interviews with Hitchcock's associates this thoroughly documented and engagingly written book will appeal to scholars and film enthusiasts alike Required reading for Hitchcock scholars scrupulously researched invaluable material for those who continue to ask what made the master tick Anthony Perkins
