The Antiquities of Egypt Diodore de Sicile, 1990-01-01 Diodorus Siculus a prolific Greek historian of the first century B C wrote a detailed account of ancient Egypt for his contemporaries Even then Egyptian civilization was ancient stretching back to eras far more remote to him than Greek civilization is to us Egypt was a land of mystery to the Greeks Its pyramids were inexplicable its writings undecipherable its religion unfathomable Its strange laws and stranger customs such as mummification were perplexing The very land itself was mysterious no one knew the source of the Nile or why it overflowed its banks each year with never a drop of rain The history and mysteries of Egypt were the sole subject of the Book I of the Library of History Diodorus encyclopedic attempt to gather all the historical knowledge of the world into one vast book The Antiquities of Egypt is the first translation of Diodorus treatise prepared especially for the general reader but it will appeal to a wide range of scholars and specialists as well The only other English version in print is a literal accompaniment to the edited Greek text published over fifty years ago This new translation is accurate and easy to read while the notes and appendices amplify and elucidate the text setting the narrative in historical and cultural perspective for the nonspecialist The illustrations add a graphic support to the text Students and teachers of ancient history Egyptology archeology and anthropology will find Antiquities of Egypt both accessible and valuable Specialists in literature mythology and comparative religion will find it absorbing and useful introduction to early source material in their fields of study Edwin Murphy is an independent scholar specializing in ancient and medieval history He is employed in the Treasury Department Washington D C Murphy has also translated Book II of Diodorus Library of History The Antiquities of Asia also published by Transaction

little white racist lie seen long enough becomes the truth like portraying a white Jesus Christ who was a black man Dr Alvin Poussaint a Black psychiatrist associated with Harvard University and others have observed and explained the most tragic part of all of this is that the African American has come to form his self image and self concept on the basis of what white racists have laid down as a guide or prescribed Therefore black men and women learn quickly to hate themselves and each other more than their white oppressor There is almost infinite evidence that racism has left almost irreparable scars on the psyche of Afro Americans that burden with an unrelenting painful anxiety that drives the psyche to reach out for a sense of identity and self esteem Poussaint and others say that black children especially learn to hate themselves at very early ages Studies reveal their preference for white dolls over black ones One study reported that black children in their drawings tend to show blacks as small incomplete people and whites as strong and powerful To conclude in western color symbolism white is positive and black negative Many people might ask why the contributions of Africa should be included in American curriculum Is because they bleach and still rob black history and culture with black pictured as white that lie leaves us mentally dead angry and without purpose of where we are going Human culture is the product of all humanity not the possession of a single racial or ethnic group Afro centric Multicultural educations major aim is to close the gap between Western ideals of equality justice and practices that contradict these ideas Stereotype people of color and people who are poor have just about no opportunities to become free of perspectives that are monoculture that devalue African culture victimize them mostly having an inability to fully function effectively in society Many of these problems could be miraculously remedied with astonishing results if explained of black scientific achievements which occurred in black Africa There are also white African Americans living in the U S A besides black African Americans should make the distinction Carl Sandburg 1979 related a dialogue between a white American and an American Indian which illustrates the need for multicultural education The white man drew a small circle in the sand and told the red man This is what the Indian knows and drawing a big circle around the small one this is what is what the white man knows The Indian then took the stick and swept an immensely big ring around both circles and said this is where the white man and the red man knows nothing
