Playing Dead Elizabeth Greenwood, 2016-08-09 A darkly comic foray into the world of men and women who fake their own deaths the consultants who help them disappear and the private investigators who'll stop at nothing to bring them back to life A delightful read for anyone tantalized by the prospect of disappearing without a trace Erik Larson New York Times bestselling author of Dead Wake Delivers all the lo-fi spy shenanigans and caught red-handed schadenfreude you're hoping for NPR A lively romp The Boston Globe Grim fun The New York Times Brilliant topic absorbing book The Seattle Times The most literally escapist summer read you could hope for The Paris Review Is it still possible to fake your own death in the twenty-first century With six figures of student loan debt Elizabeth Greenwood was tempted to find out So off she sets on a darkly comic foray into the world of death fraud where for 30 000 a consultant can make you disappear but your suspicious insurance company might hire a private detective to dig up your coffin only to find it filled with rocks Greenwood tracks down a British man who staged a kayaking accident and then returned to live in his own house while all his neighbors thought he was dead She takes a call from Michael Jackson no he is not dead or so her new acquaintances would have her believe stalks message boards for people contemplating pseudocide and gathers intel on black market morgues in the Philippines where she may or may not obtain some fraudulent goodies of her own Along the way she learns that love is a much less common motive than money and that making your death look like a drowning virtually guarantees that you will be caught Disappearing while hiking however is a way great to go Playing Dead is a charmingly bizarre investigation in the vein of Jon Ronson and Mary Roach into our all too human desire to escape from the lives we lead and the men and women desperate enough to give up their lives and their families to start again From Hitler to Jim Crow to Obama ChitlinKraut,2009-11-20 Julian online I took note of an alarming number of thisisbyus writers posting horrendous and racist comments about a young Senator from Illinois actively campaigning for President of the United States Posting under the moniker Gabby on the Gulf Coast I promoted From Hitler to Jim Crow a story about the displaced in Pensacola my goal write for the world and move forward the first hand accounts about their struggles I so wanted the world to care about the continued and unrelenting day to day plight of human beings who lost everything due to a hurricane While some thisisbyus writers posted words revealing genuine concern and some provided positive feedback regarding the prose I chose there were countless others who took issue with the title From Hitler to Jim Crow Up to this point I never realized how many writers peddled their influence via virtual words attempting to set their plans of distraction in place against Senator Obama Embracing a laissez faire attitude has never been my style and I understood the price for the poor the displaced was too high for me to remain silent where these savvy writers were concerned As these writers began using Hitler and his ideology in their comparisons to Senator Obama I found myself becoming increasingly insulted Julian I am proud to be an American though naturalized and using any analogy to Hitler enabled me to confront their criminal words as it became clear Senator Obama had a real shot at the White House Conversely Senator Hillary Clinton's supporters became to a greater extent venomous with what I perceived to be their race based objections used as diversions when they saw the handwriting on the wall Senator Obama was becoming the frontrunner in the race to the White House As I held tight to my dream and goal to show the plight of the displaced in Pensacola I found myself washed into a political hurricane once other writers became more and more aware of the strength of my conviction that Senator Obama was the only logical choice for President of the United States of America 2006/2007 Black Authors and Published Writers Directory Grace Adams,2006-07 First of its kind internationally a unique and innovative indexed listings of the Black Literary Market Place Easy to read chapters features Black authors writers poets song film and playwrights publishers producers agents librarians bookstores columnists book and music critic reviewers editors newspapers magazines television and radio talk shows

Wilderness Protection in Polar Regions Antje Neumann, 2020-04-14 Antarctica's wilderness values even though specifically recognized by the Environmental Protocol to the Antarctic Treaty are rarely considered in practice This deficiency is especially apparent with regard to a more and more increasing human footprint caused among others by a growing number of tourists visiting the region and conducting a broad variety of activities On the basis of a detailed study of three Arctic wilderness areas the Hammastunturi Wilderness Reserve Finland the Archipelago of Svalbard Norway and the Denali National Park and Preserve Alaska United States as well as the relevant policies and legislation in these countries Antje Neumann identifies numerous lessons learnt that can serve as suggestions for improving the protection of wilderness in Antarctica      Handbook of Research on Socio-Technical Design and Social Networking Systems Whitworth, Brian, de Moor, Aldo, 2009-03-31 Addresses current issues of research into socio technical systems STSs Provides suggestions on how social knowledge can synergize with technical knowledge      Going Local Jeffrey E. Cohen, 2010 Going public to gain support especially through reliance on national addresses and the national news media has been a central tactic for modern presidential public leadership In Going Local Presidential Leadership in the Post Broadcast Age Jeffrey E Cohen argues that presidents have adapted their going public activities to reflect the current realities of polarized parties and fragmented media. Going public now entails presidential targeting of their party base interest groups and localities. Cohen focuses on localities and offers a theory of presidential news management that is tested using several new data sets including the first large scale content analysis of local newspaper coverage of the president. The analysis finds that presidents can affect their local news coverage which in turn affects public opinion toward the president. Although the post broadcast age presents hurdles to presidential leadership, Going Local demonstrates the effectiveness of targeted presidential appeals and provides us with a refined understanding of the nature of presidential leadership.
