Excerpt from The Coinage of William Wood 1722-1733 I have endeavoured in the following pages to bring together all that is now known concerning the life of William Wood and also all the information I could glean concerning the various coins issued by him and his representatives subsequent to his decease For much useful information I am indebted to Crosbie's Early Coinage of America Simon's Irish Coins and the Dictionary of National Biography In regard to the early issue of coins for use in the Isle of Man although we have no documentary evidence to connect them with William Wood yet on account of the marked similarity in style and execution and above all the fact of their issue being simultaneous with those for Ireland and the American Colonies I think we are quite justified in attributing them to him In this View I find myself supported by the late D1 Clay who touches on this point In his Manx Currency All the coins emanating from the mint of William Wood show great beauty of design and execution though the weights of individual specimens show considerable differences We must readily admit however that they were infinitely superior to any Copper currency that had made its appearance up to that time and indeed to any subsequent issue until 1797 at which time Boulton and Watt issued from the Soho Mint their magnificent copper coinage struck by steam power About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The Numismatic Circular and Catalogue of Coins, Tokens, Commemorative & War Medals, Books & Cabinets Spink & Son, 1912 The Coinage of William Wood, 1722-1733 Philip NELSON (Antiquarian.), William WOOD (Ironmaster.), 1959 The Numismatist, 1913 The Numismatic Chronicle, and Journal of the Numismatic Society, 1903 Proceedings of the Numismatic Society form a separately paged section of each vol The British Numismatic Journal, 1905 The British Numismatic Journal British Numismatic Society, 1914 British Commonwealth Coinage Howard W.
