The Collected Works of Billy the Kid David Lloyd Fischer, 1978 "Trading Magic for Fact," Fact for Magic Marc Colavincenzo, 2021-10-18 This study brings together three major areas of interest history postmodern fiction and myth Whereas neither history and postmodern fiction nor history and myth are strangers to one another postmodernism and myth are odd bedfellows For many critics postmodern thought with its resistance to metanarratives stands in direct and deliberate contrast to myth with its apparent tendency to explain the world by means of neat complete narratives There is a strain of postmodern Canadian historical fiction in which myth actually forms a complement not only to postmodernism's suspicion of master narratives but also to its privileging of those marginal and at times ignored areas of history The fourteen works of Canadian fiction considered demonstrate a doubled impulse which at first glance seems contradictory On the one hand they go about demythologizing in the Barthesian sense various elements of historical discourse exposing its authority as not simply a natural given but as a construct This includes the fact that the view of history portrayed in the fiction has been either underrepresented or suppressed by official historiography On the other hand the history is then re-mythologized in that it becomes part of a pre-existing myth its mythic elements are foregrounded myth and magic are woven into the narrative or it is portrayed as extraordinary in some way The result is an empowering of these histories for the future they are made larger than life and unforgettable

Convergences and Interferences Kathleen Gyssels, Isabel Hoving, Maggie Ann Bowers, 2001 This bi-lingual volume of twelve English and eight French papers proposes to breach linguistic critical frontiers by placing analysis of texts from different language traditions in a multi-lingual and multi-cultural dialogue The focus of analysis rests on the multiple and complex global convergences and interferences of cultural influences

Billy the Kid Harold Dellinger, 2008-09-24 In movies stage plays short stories novels newspaper articles poems and songs literally hundreds of accomplished authors have been drawn toward the near mythical persona of Henry McCarty aka William Bonney alias Billy the Kid This collection is a chronologically arranged anthology of excerpts from the Kid's canon including rare pieces of pulp fiction chapters of popular novels and selections from respected biographies Each excerpt plays off the strengths of the others to finally create a compelling collage of character This compendium is an essential addition to the library of anyone interested in the myths and the realities of Billy the Kid

From Cohen to Carson Ian Rae, 2008-03-26 From Cohen to Carson provides the first book length analysis of one of Canada's most distinctive fields of literary production Ian Rae argues that Canadian poets have turned to the novel because of the limitations of the lyric but have used lyric methods puns symbolism repetition juxtaposition to create a mode of narrative that contrasts sharply with the descriptive conventions of realist and plot driven novels Michael Ondaatje's The collected works of Billy the kid ,1995* Michael Ondaatje: Haptic Aesthetics and Micropolitical Writing Milena Marinkova,2011-07-14 This study of selected literary and cinematic works by Michael Ondaatje investigates the political potential of the Canadian authors aesthetics Contributing to current debates about affect and representation ideology critique and the artwork trauma and testimony this book uses the concept of the haptic to demonstrate how Ondaatjes multisensory fluid and historically inflected writing can forge an enabling relationship between audience author and text This is where Ondaatjes micropolitics often misconstrued as ideologically suspect aestheticism emerges a praxis that intimates how one can write and read politically with a difference The Guises of Canadian Diversity / Les masques de la diversité canadienne ,2022-06-08 The essays collected here illustrate aspects of recent research conducted by graduate students in Canadian studies at various European universities The methodological diversity displayed points to the very essence of the culture the contributors explore what has been commonly termed the Canadian mosaic or more recently the Canadian kaleidoscope Janice Kulyk Keefer In analysing the many facets of this mosaic the numerous images of this kaleidoscope the contributors offer fresh and youthful reappraisals of traditional visions of Canadianness PhotoGraphic Encounters William F. Garrett-Petts,Donald Lawrence,Kamloops Art Gallery,2000-10

Literacy is broadly understood to refer to the ability to read and write But the term is heavily value laden and is often used to elevate print at the expense of other forms of communication In PhotoGraphic Encounters the authors challenge this reductive notion of literacy and propose instead an integrated span of literacies reaching across disciplinary boundaries to discover a text that draws upon both the visual and the verbal PhotoGraphic Encounters discusses Canadian writers like Margaret Atwood George Bowering Robert Kroetsch and Daphne Marlatt and Canadian artists like Fred Douglas Ernie Kroeger Brenda Pelkey and Michael Snow then looks at the cross fertilization of visual and verbal processes in their works The authors present a new narrative practice one that fully engages lived experience The vernacular they argue is vital to our participation as readers and viewers of high art Making the connection between the vernacular and high culture creates an enabling moment in artistic production and reception and in teaching learning and talking about art and literature PhotoGraphic Encounters offers a compelling perspective on questions of literacy in a postmodern culture Artists writers scholars and critics alike will want this volume in their libraries Includes more than 120 B W photographs 20 colour plates index bibliography
