The Coming of God Jürgen Moltmann, Margaret Kohl, 2004-07-27 Winner of Grawemeyer Award In this remarkable and timely work in many ways the culmination of his systematic theology world renowned theologian Jürgen Moltmann stands Christian eschatology on its head Moltmann rejects the traditional approach which focuses on the End an apocalyptic finale as a kind of Christian search for the final solution He centers instead on hope and God's promise of new creation for all things Christian eschatology he says is the remembered hope of the raising of the crucified Christ so it talks about beginning afresh in the deadly end Yet Moltmann's novel framework deeply informed by Jewish and messianic thought also fosters rich and creative insights into the perennially nettling questions of eschatology Are there eternal life and personal identity after death How is one to think of heaven hell and purgatory What are the historical and cosmological dimensions of Christian hope What are its social and political implications In a heartbreakingly fragile and fragment world Moltmann's comprehensive eschatology surveys the Christian vista bravely envisioning our horizons of expectation for personal social even cosmic

Jesus Christ,1844 Parousia: The New Testament Doctrine of Our Lord's Second Coming James Stuart Russell ,2013-12-13 James Stuart Russell published Parousia in 1878 arguing for the doctrine of the past second Advent and remains a great classic exposition of preterism

The Second Coming of Christ Practically Considered, Being Lectures During Lent, 1844, at St. George's, Bloomsbury, by Twelve Clergymen. With a Preface by M. Villiers [one of the Lecturers]. Henry Montagu VILLIERS (Hon.),1844 The Second Coming of Christ Clarence Larkin,2005-11-01 What will become of those who are left behind This is a sad question but it is eagerly asked by many It may readily be supposed that the taking away of loved ones at the Rapture will cause many of those left behind to seek the Lord but as the Holy Spirit goes back with the Church and for the time being ceases His Office Work of Regeneration who is to convert those who are left from The Second Coming of Christ The Reverend Clarence Larkin was one of the most widely influential thinkers on end times prophecies of the early twentieth century and his writings remain vital to appreciating the apocalyptic Christian thought that today enjoys widespread popularity This 1918 work outlines exactly what the Bible predicts for the end of mankind s reign on Earth and the return of the Christian savior with a special emphasis on who is to be saved and why Numerous charts and illustrations depict the Judgment Seat of Christ The Stages of the Second Coming the Failure of Man and more Also available from Cosimo Classics Larkin s The Spirit World Rightly Dividing the Word and The Book of Revelation American Baptist pastor and author CLARENCE LARKIN 1850 1924 was born in Pennsylvania and later set up his ministry there He wrote extensively and popularly on a wide range of Biblical and theological matters A complete Body of practical Divinity; being a new improvement of the Assembly's Catechism ... To which are prefix'd some memoirs of the Author's life; with his solemn form of covenanting with God. [With a preface by J. Smith.] Thomas DOOLITTLE,1723 The triumphs of Christianity over infidelity displayed, or the coming of the Messiah, the true key to the right understanding of the most difficult passages in the New Testament; a full answer to the objection of mr. Gibbon [in the history of the decline and fall of the Roman empire] that our Lord and His Apostles predicted the near approach of the end of the world in their own time N. NISBETT,1802 Mission and the Coming of God Tim Chester,2006-10-01 How does the eschatological future impinge on the present Is the kingdom of God present outside the confession of Christ in movements towards social justice Is Christian hope a stimulus to social involvement or an alternative And how does the present impinge on the eschatological future What is the relationship between our actions now and the new creation Is there eschatological continuity between the two Jürgen Moltmann one of our most influential contemporary theologians has had much to say both on eschatology and its relationship to mission This book explores his thought along with evangelical responses to it Eschatology has been central to evangelical debates about social involvement ever since the Lausanne Congress in 1974 The book examines how evangelicals themselves have related hope and mission The book highlights the important contribution Moltmann has made while offering a critique of his thought from an evangelical perspective In so doing it touches on pertinent issues for evangelical missiology The conclusion takes John Calvin as a starting point proposing an eschatology of the cross which offers a critique of the over realized eschatologies in liberation theology and triumphalistic forms of evangelicalism iThis is a work of major importance engaging with crucial themes and leading Christian thinkers A must read for all reactive evangelicals Tim Chester's work is always good but this is the best yet i Martyn Atkins Principal Cliff College Calver UK Despite the attention of Moltmann and despite intra evangelical debate on the nature of mission over the last three decades the task of bringing Moltmann and evangelicalism into dialogue has remained on the table for some time Tim Chester takes up the agenda His combination of practical experience in mission and theological ability equip him well for this task and the result is a study which brings academic reasoning to bear on Christian thought about eschatology and its vital connection with the missionary responsibility of the church It rewards our careful attention Stephen Williams Professor of Systemic Theology at Union Theological College Belfast iEschatology in relation to mission is often reduced to plans for Ohishingi the Great Commission as soon as possible or to lurid end time scenarios that feed our fantasy more than they fuel biblical mission So it is refreshing to have this wide ranging in depth study of the theme that engages with one of the most well known theologians of biblical hope Jürgen Moltmann alongside a number of renowned evangelical scholars yet stays rooted in the text and vision of the Bible itself This is searching theology in the service of biblical mission as all theology ultimately should be Chris Wright International Director Langham Partnership International
