Williams, 2015-05-18 In Christ Died for Our Sins Jarvis J. Williams argues a twofold thesis First that Paul in Romans presents Jesus' death as both a representation of and a substitute for Jews and Gentiles Second that the Jewish martyrological narratives in certain Second Temple Jewish texts are a background behind Paul's presentation of Jesus' death By means of careful textual analysis Williams argues that the Jewish martyrological narratives appropriated and applied Levitical cultic language and Isaianic language to the deaths of the Torah-observant Jewish martyrs in order to present their deaths as a representation, a substitution, and as Israel's Yom Kippur for non-Torah-observant Jews Williams seeks to show that Paul appropriated and applied this same language and conceptuality in order to present Jesus' death as the death of a Torah-observant Jew serving as a representation, a substitution, and as the Yom Kippur for both Jews and Gentiles Scholars working in the areas of Romans, Pauline theology, Second Temple Judaism, atonement in Paul, or early Christian origins will find much to stimulate and provoke in these pages Broken Lenses Volume 3 Emily Bernath, 2023-09-19 As the third book in Emily Bernath's Broken Lenses series Broken Lenses Volume 3: Experiencing God's Freedom in a World of Sin steps back to answer the questions: Who is God? Do I want to get to know God? What do I get out of it? Anyone can walk into a church and hear messages about the goodness and holiness of God, but what does that really mean? And how does God's goodness impact everyday people? Broken Lenses Volume 3 aims to answer these questions head-on, with each chapter looking at a different characteristic of God's nature, how God emulates that characteristic, and how having a God who holds those characteristics impacts every human being It's one thing to know that God is holy, sovereign, and merciful; it's another to know how God chooses to exercise that holy, sovereign, and merciful nature Everyone wants freedom from the shame and guilt of sin, but only God is qualified to provide that freedom While many paint their own picture of God's identity and intention, Broken Lenses Volume 3 aims to dispel conflicting information about the heart of God and teach readers about God's true nature and the true freedom available to all who seek a relationship with Him A manual of spherical and practical astronomy William Chauvenet, 1876 Theory and use of astronomical instruments.
