Mark Guscini

Sir Francis Chantrey 1781-1841:

Sir Francis Chantrey, 1781-1841 Alex Potts, 1980 The Story of My Life, volumes 1-3 Augustus J. C.

Hare, 2019-12-06 In The Story of My Life Augustus J C Hare presents a captivating autobiographical narrative that seamlessly intertwines personal anecdotes with wider historical contexts. Spanning three volumes, Hare's prose is marked by its introspective depth and rich descriptive quality, bringing to life his experiences across Victorian England and beyond. The work is not merely an autobiography; it is a tapestry of social observations, literary critiques, and reflections on mortality and friendship that resonate deeply within the literary landscape of its time, often drawing parallels to contemporaries like John Stuart Mill and Samuel Butler. Augustus J C Hare, born in 1834, was a profound observer of life whose experiences as a traveler, lecturer, and author imbued his work with authenticity and insight. His family's artistic legacy and his own extensive travels shaped his worldview, imbuing his life story with engaging encounters and profound insights. Hare's literary journey reflects a meticulous attention to the interplay between personal experience and broader societal movements, allowing readers to connect with his narrative on various levels. Readers seeking an engaging exploration of 19th-century life, encapsulated through personal reflection, will find The Story of My Life a rewarding endeavor. Hare's unique voice invites contemplation of existential themes and human relationships, making it essential for those interested in literary history or autobiographical literature.

Historical Portraits ...: 1700-1800 Charles Robert Leslie Fletcher, Harold Beresford Butler, 1919 Historical Portraits, the Lives by C.R.L. Fletcher, the Portraits Chosen by Emery Walker, 1919

1700-1800.- v.2. 1800-1850 Charles Robert Leslie Fletcher, 1919 The Scottish Review, 1897 Millicent Garrett

Fawcett Melissa Terras, Elizabeth Crawford, 2022-06-09 Courage calls to courage everywhere is the best known phrase associated with Millicent Garrett Fawcett, 1847-1929, the leading UK suffragist and campaigner of the late 19th and early 20th centuries. But what is the source of her quote and what is its context? This book reproduces Fawcett's essential speeches, pamphlets, and newspaper columns to tell the story of her dynamic contribution to public life. Thirty-five texts and 22 images are contextualised and linked to contemporary news coverage as well as to historical and literary references. These speeches, articles, artworks, and photographs cover both the advances and the defeats in the campaign for women's votes. They also demonstrate a variety of the topics and causes Fawcett pursued: the provision of education for women, feminist history, a love of literature, and Fawcett's own attempt at fiction, purity, and temperance; the campaign against employment of children; the British Army's approach to the South African War; the Unionist cause against Home Rule for Ireland; and the role of suffrage organisations during World War I. Here is a rich intertextual web of literary works, preferred reading material, organisations, contacts, friends, and sometimes enemies that reveals Fawcett the individual throughout 61 years of campaigning. The first scholarly appraisal of Fawcett in over 30 years, this is essential reading for those wishing to understand the varied political, social, and cultural contributions of Dame Millicent Garrett Fawcett. Praise for Millicent Garrett Fawcett: Selected writings

Millicent Fawcett's influence in the suffrage movement is often overlooked in favour of the more radical suffragette Emmeline Pankhurst. Millicent was hugely important, concentrating on non-violent rational persuasion. This book explains the work of this dogged suffragist. Dame Jenni Murray, former president of the Fawcett Society, Millicent Garrett Fawcett Selected Writings invites the reader to delve into the life and passions of this great suffragist leader. Millicent Fawcett paved the way for women to take their place in public life; that's why I'm so proud that in 2018 her sculpture was unveiled in London, becoming Parliament Square's first ever statue of a woman. The statue depicts Millicent holding a banner bearing the powerful quote 'Courage Calls to Courage Everywhere'. This book explores important aspects of the rich and too often untold history of women's rights, including the origins of that inspirational quote. Sadiq Khan, Mayor of London, says: 'This is a vital collection of the vital speeches of a vital person. You need to read this to understand the history of Millicent Fawcett and if you don't understand the history of Millicent Fawcett, you don't understand one of the most important developments in modern civilisation.' Lord Daniel Finkelstein: 'Millicent Fawcett is one of the pivotal voices in UK political history. Her work paved the way for every woman who has ever taken her place in a parliament anywhere on these islands. When any of us talk about standing on the shoulders of giants, Millicent Fawcett was that giant of female empowerment.' Baroness Ruth Davidson: 'Millicent Fawcett was one of the most influential figures of her age, yet history has tended to overlook her. Extraordinarily astute and forward-thinking, she inspired women to change their world by giving them a political voice and the confidence to use it.' Thanks to this collection, which is both scholarly and accessible, we can now hear her own voice as never before. She continues to inspire us to speak out on behalf of women's progress everywhere. Jane Robinson, Senior Associate, Somerville College, Oxford, author of Ladies Can't Climb Ladders: The Pioneering Adventures of the First Professional Women. Terras and Crawford have brought together a powerful and accessible collection of contributions from Millicent Garrett Fawcett, whose speeches and writings gave a political voice to the women of her generation. This book allows us to follow the footsteps of a momentous, albeit often overlooked, suffragist who blazed the trail we now walk. Nicola Sturgeon, First Minister of Scotland.

The Life of James Hamilton Stanhope (1788-1825) Mark Guscini, 2021-03-30. James Hamilton Stanhope 1788-1825 was the youngest son of the third Earl Stanhope, half brother to Lady Hester Stanhope, and personally present at the deaths of both Prime Minister William Pitt the Younger in 1806 and General Sir John Moore in Corunna in 1809. After being seriously wounded in the later stages of the Peninsular War, he found happiness in his marriage, which was soon cut short when his wife died giving birth to their second child. Two years later, James committed suicide. This is the first biography of James Hamilton Stanhope, covering his childhood, his fascinating family, his letters and war diaries, his life after Waterloo, how he met his wife, their short but idyllic life together, and his tragic suicide. It also takes a close look at his literary works, all unpublished except for the war diary, and includes the first ever edition of his lengthy poem on the death of Sir John Moore at Corunna and his brother Charles Banks Stanhope in the same battle. Christiana Herringham and the Edwardian Art

Scene Mary Lago, 1996 Lady Herringham arrived on the Edwardian art scene with a translation of Il Libro dell'Arte o Trattato della Pittura Cennini's fifteenth century handbook on fresco and tempera. It aroused new interest in those techniques and led to the founding of the Society of Painters in Tempera in 1901. To preserve Britain's art heritage from buyers abroad she provided the money that launched the National Art Collections Fund in 1903 creating what is still a vital and authoritative voice in Britain's cultural life. Her work as the only woman on the NACF's first executive committee prepared her to assist in founding the India Society which urged respect for indigenous Indian traditions of the fine arts and encouraged appreciation for them in England.

Churches and Churchyards of England and Wales Richard Hayman, 2019-05-30 The parish church is a symbol of continuity a cornerstone of the urban and rural landscape and a treasure trove often as rich in cultural history as any museum. This compact and accessible guide explores all of these aspects of the parish church beginning by examining why churches are built where they are and going on to explain how both church buildings and churchyards have changed over time. It also describes their fixtures and furnishings including fonts screens stained glass and monuments explaining the ritual and symbolic purpose of these features and how their significance has shifted over time. Lavishly illustrated with colour photographs this book will provide an indispensable primer for anyone who is curious about the nation's parish churches and wants to explore them further.
