Sir Gawain and the Classical Tradition E.L. Ridsen, 2006-02-10 The 14th century English alliterative poem Sir Gawain and the Green Knight is admired for its morally complex plot and brilliant poetics A chivalric romance placed in an Arthurian setting it has since received acclaim for its commentary regarding important socio political and religious concerns The poem's technical brilliance blends psychological depth and vivid language to produce an effect widely considered superior to any other work of the time Although the poem is a combination of English alliterative meter romanticism and a wide ranging knowledge of Celtic lore continental materials and Latin classics the extent to which Classical antecedents affected or directed the poem is a point of continued controversy among literary scholars This collection of essays by scholars of diverse interests addresses this puzzling and fascinating question The introduction provides an expansive background for the topic and subsequent essays explore the extent to which classical Greek Roman Arabic Christian and Celtic influences are revealed in the poem's opening and closing allusions themes and composition Essays discuss the way in which the anonymous author of Sir Gawain employs figural echoes of classical materials cultural memoirs of past British tradition and romantic re-textualizations of Trojan and British literature It is argued that Sir Gawain may be understood as an Aeneas Achilles or Odysseus figure while the British situation in the 14th century may be understood as analogous to that of ancient Troy

Convergent Approaches to Mediaeval English Language and Literature Andrés Canga Alonso,Roberto Torre Alonso,Javier Martín Arista,2012-04-25 The present volume is intended as a scientific conversation between pioneering research and the traditionally leading disciplines of medievalism With that aim the collection presents a selection of crucial essays to add to contemporary discussion which however convergent and synchronous in approach also pull in heterogeneous distinct ways and enhance the multiple perspectives which are currently embraced in the study of English medievalism The chapters fifteen in all constitute a peer reviewed selection of papers presented at the 22nd International Conference of the Spanish Society for Mediaeval English Language and Literature SELIM which brought together a large number of scholars worldwide and was held at the Department of Modern Languages of the University of La Rioja in 2010 A brief glance at the book s contents evinces the manifestly plural ways in which the English Middle Ages the mesmerising media tempestas are being addressed in current critical debate from the diverse areas of linguistics literature teaching methodology and translation In all the book becomes exceptional witness to all these developments being not foolhardy to predict that the dark old ages provide as ever foundations for stimulating new highlights and ideas
