Sit Down And Shut Up An Educators Memoir:

Autobiography in Education Thomas Lovell, 1928 Memoirs of Thomas Chalmers William Hanna, 1854 The Most Influential Women in History: Over 100 Memoirs & Biographies Elizabeth Cady Stanton, Catherine H. Birney, Helen Keller, Margaret Sanger, Julia Ward Howe, Emmeline Pankhurst, Sarah H. Bradford, Mother Jones, Helen Wright, 2023-11-13

The collection The Most Influential Women in History Over 100 Memoirs it presents a vivid context where these narratives resonate with lasting impact making each piece crucial to understanding the multifaceted roles of women in shaping the world. This anthology features works by influential voices such as Elizabeth Cady Stanton, Helen Keller, and Emmeline Pankhurst who are renowned for their pivotal roles in defining modern feminist thought and activism. These contributors along with others connect their personal experiences with broader movements such as women's suffrage, labor rights, and education reform. Their writings together embody the tenacity and spirit that characterized movements like the first and second waves of feminism among others. Each author's unique perspective contributes to a comprehensive mosaic of women's enduring influence in historical and cultural contexts. For readers seeking an enlightening journey through history, this anthology provides an unparalleled opportunity to explore the intellectual and cultural legacies left by these extraordinary women. The diversity of perspectives and narrative styles not only educates but also inspires, prompting reflection and appreciation of the challenges and triumphs chronicled within. This collection is recommended for anyone interested in feminist literature, historical narratives, or the broader social implications of women's achievements across time. Each work within this anthology fosters a dialogue, engaging readers with the dynamism and determination that have been central to women's historical narratives.

Teacher in the Cupboard Lisa Jane Ashes, 2019-02-14

In Teacher in the Cupboard, Lisa Jane Ashes takes educators on a self-reflective journey that will inspire them to challenge the how-to tick box approach to teaching. Even if all the problems in your classroom have been solved by the time you read this, plenty more would surface to take their place. And while each problem has multiple solutions, you'll need your creativity in order to find them. In this book, Lisa explores how spending time in the cupboard—a metaphor for removing yourself from a situation and seeing it through a more objective lens—can help teachers come up with creative solutions to everyday challenges and positively transform their classroom practice and human interactions. Teacher in the Cupboard encompasses Lisa's many and varied observations in education, and each chapter includes real-life experiences to make you think as well as practical techniques to help educators avoid retreating into self-blindness, a common affliction that robs them of their perception of their own contribution as part of the teaching and learning process. Brimming with fresh perspectives, the book presents a wide range of innovative ideas to enable educators to harness the power of self-reflection and create a stimulating learning environment that produces excellent results for them, their students, and their colleagues. It also talks teachers through a number of methods, approaches, and resources that will enable them to instill in their learners a sense of satisfaction derived from the learning skills and behaviours being developed in the classroom These materials are collated in the Resource Cupboard section at the back of the book offering adaptable and downloadable resources that Lisa has used to successfully enhance learning in the classroom Suitable for NQTs teachers and school leaders

The Memoirs of a Young Bastard Tim Burstall, 2012 Tim Burstall the celebrated director of Stork Alvin Purple and numerous other definitive ocker comedies is credited with shaking the moribund Australian film industry out of its torpor But long before that in the early 1950s he began keeping a diary to record the world of the group of arties and intellectuals he was living among in Eltham then a rural area outside Melbourne where cheap land was available for mudbrick houses and studios and where suburban rigidities could be mercilessly flouted Burstall was in his mid twenties with two young sons and an open marriage with his wife Betty Eager to become a writer to go against the grain he kept a record almost daily of the parties and the talk in pubs and studios about art and politics and sex of Communist Party branch meetings and film societies of political rallies and the first Herald Outdoor Art Show Somehow while holding down a public relations job in the Antarctic Division and juggling his love affairs and obsession with the beautiful brainy Fay he wrote 500 words almost every day Betty according to the diaries kept the show on the road feeding friends after the pub milking goats and working in her pottery making bowls and mugs which Tim sometimes decorated at weekends These Memoirs of a Young Bastard as Burstall dubbed himself and them are among the most evocative Australian diaries of modern times Burstall can write He has an eye for the telling detail an unerring ear for cant and pomposity and most endearingly an ability to mock himself always from the perspective of a bloke of his generation
