Stirling Moss The Authorised Biography:

Stirling Moss Robert Edwards,2001 Stirling Crauford Moss raced professionally 497 times until his near fatal crash in 1962 At the end of his racing career he was the most famous Briton no celebrity has approached the national adulation that Moss received In this book Robert Edwards wonderfully recounts the life of this extraordinarily gifted and competitive man His tally of wins was proportionally higher than any other driver s ever by a wide margin From his first race in 1948 to his last heady days of the early sixties and beyond his life and career are recalled in great detail revealing many amazing stories never told before Stirling Moss Robert Edwards,2001-07-26 Touch Wood - The Autobiography of the 1953 Le Mans Winner Duncan Hamilton,2014-06-05 Duncan Hamilton won the classic Le Mans 24 Hours race in 1953 co driving his works entered C Type Jaguar with Tony Rolt In 1954 the same pair finished second losing to a much larger engined V12 Ferrari and by the narrowest margin in years In all Duncan Hamilton competed in nine of those great Le Mans endurance classics Having cut his racing teeth in such pre war cars as the R Type M G and the Bugatti Type 35B Duncan graduated to one of the immortal Lago Talbot Grand Prix cars which he subsequently mislaid in a French coal hole After a hugely eventful racing career only Duncan could get himself fired by Jaguars for winning the Rheims 12 Hours race in 1956 he eventually hung up his racing helmet in 1958 As Earl Howe wrote in the original 1960 foreword to this book though the drivers of this age were fiercely competitive there were also friends to meet stories to tell and almost certainly a party to be enjoyed Duncan Hamilton was certainly a little larger than life and this book tells the story of a man who wasn t just one of the most successful drivers of the 1950s but also the man who trespassed at Brooklands who spent the war in the Fleet Air Arm surviving plane crashes and trying to drown American Admirals and who was once stopped for speeding on the Cromwell Road rushing to take part in a TV programme on road safety It is a must for any classic car enthusiast s bookshelf

Stirling Moss Philip Porter,2016-11-16 Volume 1 of this all inclusive biography of the legendary Striling Moss covers his early life and career Starting as a youth with incredible skill young Stirling Moss quickly caught the eye when racing the 500cc cars invented just after the WWII He soon ventured abroad and was laughed at for his tiny car until he beat them He became the British Champion at 21 something most drivers achieve in their 30 s 40 s or even 50 s Patriotically Moss insisted on driving British cars even when outmatched by more powerful foreign vehicles He often won Admirable patriotism nearly ruined his promising career until he was forced to compromise and quickly revived his career showing he could beat the very best at the highest levels In the final year covered by Vol 1 he won his first Grand Prix and such sports car classics as the Tourist Trophy the Targa Florio all amazing achievements but Moss winning the Mille Miglia has gone down as one of the greatest feats in all sport The History and Politics of Motor Racing Damion Sturm,Stephen Wagg,David L. Andrews,2023-06-09 This book explores the history and politics of motor racing one of the most popular and lucrative elements in the international sport industry Written by a group of international scholars and motor racing specialists it

discusses the sport's origins the relationship of motor racing to nation building and modernity noting its links to fascism and dictatorship the links between motor racing and the automobile industry motor racing and the politics both of gender and of race motor racing the media and postmodernity and motor racing the spatial and globalization This book speaks to scholars in history politics sport studies the sociology of sport sport management and cultural studies along with the many lay readers who are interested in the relationship between motor sport and society A Race With Infamy Jack Barlow, 2022 A colourful character from the golden age of motorsport Lance Macklin was living a life of speed adventure and tragedy Macklin did things his own way On Roads Joe Moran, 2010-12-09 In this history of roads and what they have meant to the people who have driven them one of Britain's favourite cultural historians reveals how a relatively simple road system turned into a maze like pattern of roundabouts flyovers and spaghetti junctions Using a unique blend of travel writing anthropology history and social observation he explores how Britain's roads have their roots in unexpected places from Napoleon's role in the numbering system to the surprising origin of sat nav Full of quirky nuggets of history such as the day trips organised to see the construction of the M1 and the 2.5m Mills and Boons used to build the M6 Toll Road On Roads also celebrates innovators whose work we take for granted such as the designers of the road sign system On subjects ranging from speed limits to driving on the left and the non places where we stop to the unwritten laws of traffic jams these hidden stories have never been told together until now Eric Bristow: The Autobiography Eric Bristow, 2009-09-15 Eric Bristow MBE 1957-2018 might just have been the greatest darts player of all time An unmistakable figure on the oche during his 1980s heyday the Cheeky Cockney became renowned not just for the number of world titles he won but for his arrogance on stage and off it In this candid account Bristow reveals how darts saved him from his early life as a cat burglar shoplifter and thug and introduced him to a new world of beer babes and success beyond his wildest dreams In his rapid rise to the top he gives fascinating insights into the characters that pioneered darts in those early days and how when his own career began to slide at the end of the decade he trained his protégé Phil The Power Taylor turning him into the most successful player darts has ever known Bristow holds nothing back as he reveals his battle with dactylitis a psychological condition which left him unable to let go of the dart and almost destroyed his career his relationship with girlfriend and former women's world darts champion Maureen Flowers and his occasional all too public falls from grace Bristow's life story is a thrill a minute ride through the raucous world of darts and how it helped to shape and drive his life The Classic Car Adventure Lance Cole, 2017-06-30 Nothing is new under the sun and classic cars books come and go But here instead of a heavy large glossy book of classic car images and details destined to stay on a shelf is something new This book is designed to be read as a companion a book that can go in the car or on a plane and which can be read in full or dipped into anywhere for a classic car fix Old stories and new details are presented and cover all eras of our cars Gathered here is a compilation of the author's published and unpublished adventures and opinions about the design and the driving of some of the greatest cars in motoring history From vintage to modern classic pristine to oily rag up hill down dale and across continents award winning motoring author designer and serial classic car owner Lance Cole charts the great classic car enthusiasm in a series of engaging essays about cars car design and the men that made the motor industry From tales of Malcolm Sayer to Bedelia and of BMW Jaguar Bugatti and Porsche to tales of old Saabs and rusty Citroens classic car life is here Erik Carlsson Jacques Gerin Giovanni Michelotti and Innes Ireland are just a few of the names that can be found in these pages From design to driving here is a book that is a classic car adventure

Blessed - The Autobiography George Best, 2012-04-24 George Best needs little introduction A legend in his own lifetime he is undoubtedly the greatest footballer the UK has ever produced Blessed with an extraordinary gift he brought a beauty and grace to the game never before seen But Best was unable to cope with the success and fame his football genius brought His fabled story is littered with tales of women and sex and of course alcohol Much has been written about Best but very little substantiated by the man himself That is until George Best opened his heart and engaged us in one of the most exhilarating life stories for years Blessed In his own words George recounts the halcyon days at Manchester United the big games and European Cup win of 68 And then there's the heartbreaking truth about the death of his mother and his struggles with alcohol that forced him to face up to a life without drink Blessed reveals the man behind the up for a laugh boozy womanizing stereotype that had dogged George Best for so long Open and honest about his mistakes George is also incredibly candid about his triumphs his regrets and only three years before his death what he had hoped for the future Don't coach him he's a genius Sir Matt Busby Unquestionably the greatest Sir Alex Ferguson

The Boy Richard Williams, 2021-04-01 Captures the bold engaging spirit of one of Britain's best loved sporting heroes Sunday Times A fascinating read and sure to be the definitive account of his life Mark Knopfler SHORTLISTED FOR THE SPORTS WRITING BOOK OF THE YEAR AWARD Even in the midst of a global pandemic the death of Stirling Moss on 12 April 2020 at the age of 90 made headlines almost 60 years after he retired from Formula One In The Boy Richard Williams assesses what made him such an iconic figure Told in 60 brief chapters Williams builds a fascinating and revealing portrait of a driver who was a hero to millions As the long years of war began to recede sport in Britain was getting moving again and there was a need for heroes Denis Compton and Stanley Matthews were in their pomp playing to packed houses But Stirling Moss was a fresh face just 17 years old when he first emerged in 1947 Too young to have served and been scarred by the war he was soon revealed to possess not only an unearthly degree of skill but the qualities of courage and resolution noted in the generation that fought in the air and on land and sea Their youth had been stolen his was new and unspoiled The Boy explains how and why he came to occupy such a unique place in the esteem and the affections of the nation Why him rather than some of his contemporaries such as Mike Hawthorn and Peter Collins who shared a role in the rise of Britain as a power in international motor racing Moss may never have been world champion but he created a remarkable and enduring legacy and Williams brilliantly shows just how he did it

Black Sheep: The Hidden Benefits of Being Bad Richard

Stephens,2015-06-18 Richard Stephens became the focus of international media attention in 2009 for his research on the psychological benefits of swearing as a response to pain Now fresh from winning the 2014 Wellcome Trust Science Writing Prize Richard s first popular science book uncovers other pieces of surprising and occasionally bizarre scientific enquiry showing that what we at first perceive as bad can in fact be good More pub conversation than science book Richard s writing style is very accessible both engaging and humorous Think wasting time is bad Not always Research shows that taking time out can help you solve difficult problems And if you can t be bothered tidying up well fine research shows that people are more creative in a messy environment Swearing is rude but research shows that in some situations it can be a form of politeness Swearing can also be used as a tool of persuasion Black Sheep casts a slant on a range of human experiences from life to death sex to romance from speed thrills to halting boredom and from drinking alcohol in moderation to headily excessive bad language This is a fascinating left field tour of the world of psychological science Get ready for the many hidden benefits of being bad that you really won t have seen coming Head On - Ian Botham: The Autobiography Ian Botham,2009-09-15 Voted the greatest English cricketer of the 20th century by the fans Sir Ian Botham is the English game s one true living legend and his story both on and off the pitch reads like a Boy s Own rollercoaster ride Born with a natural genius for cricket Botham began breaking records with bat and ball from a young age and soon became the man English cricket expected most from After a troubled period as England s captain Botham rose once again to become a national hero with his display in the Miracle Ashes of 1981 But with his confrontational nature and wild streak he began regularly making the wrong kind of headlines With accusations of drink and drugs affairs and ball tampering he became hounded by the tabloid pack never sure whether they wanted him to triumph or implode Now a Knight and just as famous for his tireless charity work Beefy gives us the definitive story of his never dull life and times in his own no nonsense words John Virgo: Say Goodnight, JV - My Autobiography John Virgo,2017-11-02 Famous for his hilarious impersonations of snooker s biggest stars JV is a household name thanks to his razor sharp BBC Snooker commentary and the much loved quiz show Big Break A fascinating insight into British sporting life taking readers from John s childhood in Salford through smoky snooker dens to tournaments and championships all over the world as he relives travelling on Concorde rubbing shoulders with royalty and much more Admiringly nicknamed Mr Perfection John tells how he overcame adversity to become UK champion yet also reveals how gambling wrecked his dreams of becoming World Champion and almost bankrupted him An affectionate reminder of a time when Britain and sport took themselves a little less seriously Motor Racing - Reflections of a Lost Era Anthony Carter,2005 A defining era in motorsport documented in words and intimate photographs both black and white and colour from the mid 1950s through the 1960s when motor racing was still accessible to all and the 1970s when overt sponsorship and television changed the sport for ever Lotus 18 Ian Wagstaff,2017-11-07 This is the full biography of Stirling Moss Lotus 18 chassis number 912 It is the car that drove him to two famous Grand Prix victories first in Monaco and later at the Nurburgring You'll get the full story on both of these incredible victories The accounts include Moss own recollections of the win and what it was like racing against the likes of Rob Walker Moss also retells his experience in the German Grand Prix at the Nurburgring a victory that would mark his last World Championship Formula 1 victory 912's entire 1961 season including seven other World Championship F1 races is covered in immaculate detail and is presented with over 300 period photographs many of which have never been published and a full portfolio of studio photography of this amazing Lotus 18

My Autobiography Murray Walker, 2002 The voice of motor racing and the man responsible for introducing millions of viewers to the previously inaccessible world of Formula 1 tells the story of his incident-packed life Murray Walker is an institution When the man who made famous the catchphrase Unless I'm very much mistaken I AM very much mistaken announced that he was retiring as ITV's Grand Prix commentator at the end of the 2001 season the media reacted as if the sport itself was losing one of its biggest stars His reputation for mistakes was the making of Walker He was the fan who happened to be given the keys to the commentary box and never wanted to give them back His high-octane delivery kept viewers on the edge of their seats while his passion for talking about the sport he loved was matched by an all-encompassing knowledge gained through hours of painstaking research before every race In fact he's a throwback to another age who managed to survive and indeed prosper from the revolutions in motor racing In his book he writes about his childhood and the influence that his father British motorcycle champion Graham Walker had on his career Failing to match his father's achievements on the track he made a successful career for himself in advertising which catapulted him to the top of his profession An offer from the BBC to take over the commentary seat for their F1 broadcasts was manna from heaven for Walker and it wasn't long before the infamous Murrayisms enlivened a sport which until then had been shrouded in a cloak of unfathomable technical jargon and mind-numbing statistics He also talks about the biggest changes in the sport over the last 50 years in particular the safety issues which came to the fore after the tragic death of Ayrton Senna His partnership with James Hunt behind the microphone is the subject of some hilarious anecdotes while his views on drivers such as Damon Hill Jacques Villeneuve Eddie Irvine and David Coulthard make for fascinating reading
