Steinberg,Joe L.,Joe L. Kincheloe,2018-04-17 For more than two thousand years Christian expansion and proselytizing was couched in terms of defending the faith Until recently in the United States much of that defense came in the form of reactions against the liberal influences channeled through big corporate media such as popular music Hollywood movies and network and cable television

But the election of Ronald Reagan as a Hollywood President introduced Christian America to the tools of advertising and multimedia appeals to children and youth to win new believers to God's armies. Christotainment examines how Christian fundamentalism has realigned its armies to combat threats against it by employing the forces it once considered its chief enemies: the entertainment media including movies, television, music, cartoons, theme parks, video games, and books. Invited contributors discuss the critical theoretical frameworks of top-selling devices within Christian pop culture and the appeal to masses of American souls through the blessed marriage of corporatism and the quest for pleasure.

Declarations of Stock Car Independents Perry Allen Wood, 2014-01-10 Independent stock car racers rarely won; often crashed and flirted with death constantly all for less money and fame than the money-backed star drivers of their day. This book includes interviews with 12 independent racers including Curtis Crawford, Crider Jackhandle, Joe Frasson, and Gene The Racing Marine. Hobby among others. Laying the foundation for stock car racing as we know it: most of these racers plied their trade during the sport's early years when racing required little more than a helmet and a great deal of courage. Readers will discover how each of these men managed to survive and stand out in their sport despite running on second hand or inferior equipment, receiving little to no outside support, and in many cases holding down another job off track. The book is supplemented with 126 photographs, many from the personal collections of the author and the racers.

Real NASCAR Daniel S. Pierce, 2010 Pierce offers a revealing new look at NASCAR racing from its postwar beginnings on Daytona Beach and Piedmont dirt tracks through the early 1970s when the sport spread beyond its Southern roots and gained national recognition.

Stardust International Raceway Randall Cannon, Michael Gerry, 2018-10-08 Professional motorsports came to Las Vegas in the mid 1950s at a bankrupt horse track swarmed by gamblers and soon became enmeshed with the government and organized crime. By 1965 the Vegas racing game moved from makeshift facilities to Stardust International Raceway, constructed with real grandstands, sanitary facilities, and air conditioned timing towers. Stardust would host the biggest racing names of the era: Mario Andretti, Parnelli Jones, John Surtees, Mark Donohue, Bobby Unser, Dan Gurney, and Don Garlits among them. Established by a notorious racketeer, the track stood at the confluence of shadowy elements: wiretaps, casino skimming, Howard Hughes, and the beginnings of Watergate. The author traces the Stardust's colorful history through the auto racing monthlies, national newspapers, extensive interviews, and the files of the FBI.

Giardina,2011-10-10 Sport Spectacle and NASCAR Nation critically interrogates stockcar racing's ascendance into the upper echelon of the North American sporting popular. While most contributions to the public discourse gloss over NASCAR's exclusively white racial identity politics, its underlying patriarchal gender politics, its overtly conservative political commitment, its hyper-Christian orthodoxy, and its omnipresent commercialism, this book connects the dots and critically analyzes the problematic nature of this non-natural, strategically orchestrated sporting spectacle. Automotive Industries

Automobile ,1920 Drag Racing's Warren "The Professor" Johnson Kelly Wade,2021-04-15 Go behind the scenes for a look at Warren Johnson's path to becoming The Professor of Pro Stock. This new book illuminates the life and career of one of the most prolific engine builders and racers ever to compete in the ultra-competitive Pro Stock category: drag racing's most technologically advanced class. Warren Johnson navigated the world of factory hot rods for more than 45 years, devoting himself to full-time racing in 1975 and relentlessly pursuing horsepower and victory from the driver's seat and the engine room. Johnson's devotion to research and development opened the door to a long-standing relationship with Oldsmobile and GM Performance, beginning with the birth of the Drag Racing Competition Engine (DRCE) that is still used by every competitive team in the class. He excelled when it came to outthinking the competition and was outspoken on matters that he deemed vital. Johnson embraced thinking outside the box and pushed boundaries to affect change in terms of both safety and the advancement of the class, but he also knew when it was appropriate and necessary to put on a good show for the fans. Through his tireless efforts and with the support of a small crew that included his wife Arlene and son Kurt, Johnson claimed two IHRA championships and six NHRA world titles along with an astounding 97 national event wins that placed him in the position of being the most winning driver of all time in the Pro Stock category. This book, complete with photos from the family archive and striking professional images of Johnson's many race cars, dives into it all, beginning with his childhood and early days of match racing when he developed the stern frugality and fierce resourcefulness that was the foundation of a tremendously successful, though sometimes controversial, career.
