Representations of China in Latin American Literature (1987-2016) Maria Montt Strabucchi, 2023-11-15 An Open Access edition of this book is available on the Liverpool University Press website and the OAPEN library as part of the Opening the Future project with COPIM

Representations of China in Latin American Literature 1987 2016 analyses contemporary Latin American novels in which China is the main theme Using China as a multidimensional term it explores how the novels both highlight and undermine assumptions about China that have shaped Latin America s understanding of China and shows China to be a kind of literary imaginary third term which reframes Latin American discourses of alterity On one level it argues that these texts play with the way that China stands in as a wandering signifier and as a metonym for Asia a gesture that essentialises it as an unchanging other On another level it argues that the novels employment of China resists essentialist constructions of identity China is thus shown to be serving as a concept which allows for criticism of the construction of fetishized otherness and of the exclusion inherent in essentialist discourses of identity The book presents and analyses the depiction of an imaginary of China which is arguably performative but which discloses the tropes and themes which may be both established and subverted in the novels Chapter One examines the way in which China is represented and constructed in Latin American novels where this country is a setting for their stories The novels studied in Chapter Two are linked to the presence of Chinese communities in Latin America The final chapter examines novels whose main theme is travel to contemporary China Ultimately in the novels studied in this book China serves as a concept through which essentialist notions of identity are critiqued

McMahon,2023-07-31 A number of features characterize late Ming vernacular fiction as part of the general cultural expansion of that period These features centrally include the exposition of sexual transgression and the function of containment by which is meant the ideology of the control of desires The late Ming writers are studiously devoted to illustrating minute obscene or erotic details that belie the decorum of the orthodox surface However this subversiveness of detail decreases in intensity from the late Ming to the early Qing when values of containment are reinvoked Related topics are the theme of causality and its role in the story s mapping of the logic of adultery adultery as an emblem of the woman s escape from containment and the use of the narrative topos of the gap in the wall as a locus of sexual transgression The Comic Turn in Contemporary English Fiction Huw Marsh,2020-07-09 The Comic Turn in Contemporary English Fiction explores the importance of comedy in contemporary literature and culture In an era largely defined by a mood of crisis bleakness cruelty melancholia environmental catastrophe and collapse Huw Marsh argues that contemporary fiction is as likely to treat these subjects comically as it is to treat them gravely and that the recognition and proper analysis of this humour opens up new ways to think about literature Structured around readings of authors including Martin Amis Nicola Barker Julian Barnes Jonathan Coe Howard Jacobson Magnus Mills and Zadie Smith this book suggests not only that much of the most interesting contemporary writing is funny and that there is a comic tendency in contemporary fiction but also that this humour this comic licence allows writers of contemporary fiction to do peculiar and interesting things things that are funny in the sense of odd or strange and that may in turn inspire a funny turn in readers Marsh offers a series of original critical and theoretical frameworks for discussing questions of literary genre style affect and politics demonstrating that comedy is an often neglected mode that plays a generative role in much of the most interesting contemporary writing
