Stone Thrower And Other Poems:

The Stone Thrower & Other Poems Antun Šoljan, 1990 The Stone Thrower & Other Poems Antun Šoljan, 1990

Ontological Necessities Priscila Uppal, 2006 Written with the verve of the uninhibited artist but with a clarity of thought and expression more akin to the scientist or scholar these poems investigate the emotional and philosophical struggles of contemporary life Often sparked by the horrors depicted in today's news the poems combine surrealist images with spare and lyrical language to grapple with an increasingly absurd world The most ambitious piece in the collection is a radical post 9/11 translation of the Anglo Saxon elegy The Wanderer and other poems include Don Quixote You Sure Can Take One Helluva Beating Film Version of My Hatred Never Held a Gun and The Romantic Impulse Hits the Schoolyard 100 Love Sonnets Pablo Neruda, 2007 Celebrating the works of a great Chilean poet this collection offers a vibrant translation of Neruda's sensual and erotic poetry Famous for his politically engaged lyrics the Nobel Laureate also wrote bold and sexual sonnets and this compilation captures the spirit and verbal dexterity of the lesser known genre These sonnets from one of the most influential and beloved 20th century poets accompany questions for discussion and lists of recommended readings and related websites Far from Nothing Zoltán Böszörményi, 2006 Ripe with love money and power the story of 35 year old Rudolf set in a fast paced urban environment begs the question Do we only think we exist Rudolf and his wife work day and night hoping for a better life he is a philosophy graduate student and the manager of a car dealership He also keeps up a heart wrenching relationship with the chic Wanda Then there is Nina who studies logic but is secretly a prostitute and Alfred owner of a car leasing company seemingly upright but actually an embezzler Each character conceals something Be it in Hungary or North America the craving for existential clarity remains strong Lanzmann and Other Stories Damian Tarnopolsky, 2007-05 Ranging widely in subject matter from a musician's destructive narcissism to the strange effects a persistent Norwegian has on a bachelor's love life the stories in this collection also vary in style Both elegantly insightful and highly adventurous these tales are inventive deeply comic sometimes very unsettling and completely engaging Midnight Stroll Janice Kulyk Keefer, Natalka Husar, Claire Weissman Wilks, Goran Petkovsky, 2006 A unique collaboration that explores themes of love and family this collection features poems that are based on works of art placed alongside the very works that inspired them It includes paintings by Natalka Husar drawings monotypes and lithographs by Claire Weissman Wilks and photographs by Goran Petkovsky Human Aude, 2006 Using delicate prose and intense imagery this translation explores the relationship and struggle of the human body and its inner being Completely paralyzed by Lou Gehrig's disease Magali is imprisoned in her own body able to communicate only by blinking her eyes Feeling mentally free but physically trapped she reflects on her past and regards her present physical existence as a prison A relationship formed between Magali and her doctor gives one of them the hope to live and the other the grace to die That Summer in Paris Morley Callaghan, 2006 It was the fabulous summer of 1929 when the literary capital of North America moved to La Rive Gauche the Left Bank of the

Seine River in Paris Ernest Hemingway was reading proofs of A Farewell to Arms and a few blocks away F Scott Fitzgerald was struggling with Tender Is the Night As his first published book rose to fame in New York Morley Callaghan arrived in Paris to share the felicitous of literary life not just with his two friends Hemingway and Fitzgerald but also with fellow writers James Joyce Ford Madox Ford and Robert McAlmon Amidst these tangled relations some friendships flourished while others failed This tragic and unforgettable story comes to vivid life in Callaghan's lucid compassionate prose The German

Prisoner James Hanley, 2006 Brilliant in its stark depiction of trench warfare in World War I this lost classic was privately printed in a limited edition in 1930 British censors initially suppressed the short novel because of its tough antiwar views and sympathetic portrayals of German soldiers and even today's readers may be unprepared for its scenes of horrific battlefield carnage and men driven to madness by relentless psychological stress Providing a new view of an underappreciated Canadian author the book also stands as a fascinating addition to the comparatively small shelf of literature by writers who fought in the Great War Begging Questions Seán Virgo, 2006 Focusing on the universe of beauty and dreams with an intensity that delves into self recognition these stories written over the last 15 years engage the reader with questions about our public and private lives The stories touch on questions of identity and belief the phantoms of memory and the oppositions of beauty to experiences Told in a language of brilliant power these tales enable the reader with their enigmatic and dreamlike quality Green Marilyn Bowering, 2007 Echos of Federico Garc a Lorca Yiannis Ritsos and Rumi add exoticism to this poet's deceptively simple style Combining confession with analytical rigor most of these poems are variations on classic themes but they are driven by the particulars of politics love and family life As the poems progress repeated symbols such as cars coats cups rooms bees and roses begin to hint that the poet has a secret recipe for contentment home and hearth travel warm weather and a belief in human growth Asterisks David Wevill, 2007 Poems written with clarity and craftsmanship this collection contemplates what is real and observable versus what is not The verses are like asterisks that refer to somewhere else and they strike with meditative depth and spiritual strength Drawn from experiences in Burma England Spain and the United States these words depict moments in time and step back into silence

Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index, 1975 A Two-Colored Brocade Annemarie Schimmel, 2014-02-01 Annemarie Schimmel one of the world's foremost authorities on Persian literature provides a comprehensive introduction to the complicated and highly sophisticated system of rhetoric and imagery used by the poets of Iran Ottoman Turkey and Muslim India She shows that these images have been used and refined over the centuries and reflect the changing conditions in the Muslim world According to Schimmel Persian poetry does not aim to be spontaneous in spirit or highly personal in form Instead it is rooted in conventions and rules of prosody rhymes and verbal instrumentation Ideally every verse should be like a precious stone perfectly formed and multifaceted and convey the dynamic relationship between everyday reality and the transcendental Persian poetry Schimmel explains is more similar to medieval European verse than Western poetry as it has been written since the Romantic period The characteristic verse form is the ghazal a set of rhyming couplets which serves as a vehicle for shrouding in conventional tropes the poet's real intentions Because Persian poetry is neither narrative nor dramatic in its overall form its strength lies in an architectonic design each precisely expressed image is carefully fitted into a pattern of linked figures of speech Schimmel shows that at its heart Persian poetry transforms the world into a web of symbols embedded in Islamic culture

The Hesiodic Catalogue of Women Richard Hunter, 2005-07-14 The Catalogue of Women ascribed to Hesiod one of the greatest figures of early hexameter poetry maps the Greek world its evolution and its heroic myths through the mortal women who bore children to the gods In this collection a team of international scholars offers an attempt to explore the poem's meaning significance and reception Individual chapters examine the organization and structure of the poem its social and political context its relation to other early epic and Hesiodic poetry its place in the development of a pan Hellenic consciousness and attitudes to women The wider influence of the Catalogue is considered in chapters on Pindar and the lyric tradition on Hellenistic poetry and on the poem's reception at Rome This collection provides a significant approach to the study of the Catalogue

Technicolor Jason Guriel, 2006 Cinematic and literary this collection of poems reflects on the film icons of the 20th century offering a fresh look at legends such as Alfred Hitchcock Orson Welles Rita Hayworth and Bela Lugosi This work exhibits meticulous tone and language while delving into the opulent world of classic films Of interest to fans of both contemporary poetry and classic Hollywood this collection further explores the intersection between film and literature

The Oxford History of Poetry in English Helen Cooper, Robert R. Edwards, 2023-05-09 The Oxford History of Poetry in English is designed to offer a fresh multi voiced and comprehensive analysis of poetry from Anglo Saxon culture through contemporary British Irish American and Global culture including English Scottish and Welsh poetry Anglo American colonial and post colonial poetry and poetry in Canada Australia New Zealand the Caribbean India Africa Asia and other international locales The series both synthesizes existing scholarship and presents cutting edge research employing a global team of expert contributors for each of the fourteen volumes This volume occupies both a foundational and a revolutionary place Its opening date 1100 marks the re emergence of a vernacular poetic record in English after the political and cultural disruption of the Norman Conquest By its end date 1400 English poetry had become an established if still evolving literary tradition The period between these dates sees major innovations and developments in language topics poetic forms and means of expression Middle English poetry reflects the influence of multiple contexts history social institutions manuscript production old and new models of versification medieval poetic theory and the other literary languages of England It thus emphasizes the aesthetic imaginative treatment of new and received materials by medieval writers and the formal craft required for their verse Individual chapters treat the representation of national history and mythology contemporary issues and the shared doctrine and learning provided by sacred and secular sources including the Bible Throughout the period lyric and romance figure prominently as genres and poetic modes while some works hover enticingly on the boundary of genre and discursive forms The volume ends with chapters on the major writers of the late fourteenth century Langland the Gawain poet Chaucer and Gower and with a look forward to the reception of something like a national literary tradition in fifteenth century literary culture Stonethrower J. Edward Black

PhD,2021-06-02 This is a book about personal peace Stonethrower is divided into two main sections The first section is called THE PROBLEM This part of the book focuses on the concept of fear and defenses and the way they operate especially unconsciously in our day to day lives The second part of the book entitles THE SOLUTION deals with some ideas about change and how to change your mind in a deep and lasting way Some might call this healing or forgiveness others might just call it a relief Whatever you call it I hope you find it comforting This book about my journey is designed to be a part of my learning and is offered with the hope that you might also learn about your true worth There is a generic process that we all share but the choices we make with our free will direct our lessons Historical Dictionary of Croatia Robert

Stallaerts,2009-12-22 Croatia a former republic of Yugoslavia has been a self declared independent state since July 25 1991 To its own people however it is a much older country that is finally getting another chance to forge a nation The Croats trace their roots back many centuries and the depth of this resurgent nationalism helps explain why Yugoslavia split as it did and where it did As Croatia and its people try to make a success of their new state they can take hope in the notable progress that has already been made in regards to its economic restructuring democratization and a rapprochement with their neighbors and Europe more broadly The third edition of the Historical Dictionary of Croatia relates the history of this country through a detailed chronology an introduction a bibliography and cross referenced dictionary entries on significant persons places and events institutions and organizations and political economic social cultural and religious facets
