Stonehenge Prehistoric Man And The Cosmos:

Stonehenge John David North,1996 Argues that Stonehenge s scientific purpose was to observe the setting midwinter sun and that astronomical observations made by the ancient Britons were as rational and methodical as they are today

Stonehenge John North,1999-02-01 North has spent 15 years studying Stonehenge the great ancient stone monument on Salisbury Plain in southern England He brings a fresh interpretation which conclusively solves the riddle of Stonehenge He reveals the religious purpose enshrined in the ancient earthworks He irrefutably shows that they were directed at the heavens in a scientific way in the earliest cases to the risings and settings of the stars later to those of the Sun and Moon His extensive research counters received wisdom including that Stonehenge was dedicated to observation not of the rising midsummer sun but of the setting midwinter sun Photos Teaching World History as Mystery Jack Zevin,David

Archaeoastronomy Liz Henty,2022-03-24 Archaeoastronomy and archaeology are two distinct fields of study which examine the cultural aspect of societies but from different perspectives Archaeoastronomy seeks to discover how the impact of the skyscape is materialized in culture by alignments to celestial events or sky based symbolism yet by contrast archaeology s approach examines all aspects of culture but rarely considers the sky Despite this omission archaeology is the dominant discipline while archaeoastronomy is relegated to the sidelines The reasons for archaeoastronomy s marginalized status may be found by assessing its history For such an exploration to be useful archaeoastronomy cannot just be investigated in a vacuum but must be contextualized by exploring other contemporaneous developments particularly in archaeology On the periphery of both there are various strands of esoteric thought and pseudoscientific theories which paint an alternative view of monumental remains and these also play a part in the background The discipline of archaeology has had an unbroken lineage from the late 19th century to the present On the other hand archaeoastronomy has not been consistently titled having adopted various different names such as alignment studies orientation theory astro archaeology megalithic science archaeotopography archaeoastronomy and cultural astronomy names which depict variants of its methods and theory sometimes in tandem with those of archaeology and sometimes in opposition Similarly its academic status has always been unclear so to bring it closer to archaeology there was a proposal in 2015 to integrate archaeoastronomy research with that of archaeology and call it skyscape archaeology This volume will examine how all these different variants came about and consider archaeoastronomy s often troubled relationship with archaeology and its appropriation by esotericism to shed light on its position today Professor Challenger and his Lost Neolithic World: The Compelling Story of Alexander Thom and British Archaeoastronomy Euan W. MacKie, 2021-02-04 This book combines the two great passions of the author's life reconstructing the Neolithic mind and constructively challenging consensus in his professional domain. Semi autobiographical it charts his investigation of Alexander Thom's theories regarding the alignment of prehistoric monuments in the landscape across several key Neolithic sites.

The A to Z of Architecture Allison Lee Palmer, 2009-10-12 Architecture which can be understood in its most basic sense as a form of enclosure created with an aesthetic intent first made its appearance in the Prehistoric Age. From its earliest developments architecture changed over time and in different cultures in response to changing cultural needs, aesthetic interests, materials and techniques. The A to Z of Architecture provides information on architects like Frank Lloyd Wright, Tadao Ando, Leon Battista Alberti, Filippo Brunelleschi, Michelangelo and Konstantin Stepanovich Melnikov as well as on famous structures like the Acropolis, the Colosseum, the Forbidden City, Machu Pichu, Notre Dame, the Pyramids of Giza, Stonehenge and the World Trade Center. The dictionary examines the development of architecture over the centuries through a chronology, an introductory essay, a bibliography and hundreds of cross-referenced dictionary entries on the major architects, well-known buildings, time periods, styles, building types and materials in world architecture.

Day, 2012 Nibiru, a planet known to ancients, had disappeared from astronomy. Its rediscovery was heralded by finding its description in old Mesoamerican ruins. These ruins tell where Nibiru is at present and where it was when the ruins were built.

Light as Experience and Imagination from Paleolithic to Roman Times David S. Herrstrom, 2017-09-26 This book is an interdisciplinary synthesis and interpretation about the experience of light as revealed in a wide range of art and literature from Paleolithic to Roman times. Humanistic in spirit and in its handling of facts, it marshals a substantial body of scholarship to develop an explication of light as a central, even dramatic, reality of human existence and experience in diverse cultural settings. David S. Herrstrom underscores our intimacy with light, not only its constant presence in our life but its insinuating character. Focusing on our encounters with light and ways of making sense of these, this book is concerned with the personal and cultural impact of light, exploring our resistance to and acceptance of light. Its approach is unique. The book's true subject is the individual's relationship with light, rather than the investigation of light's essential nature. It tells the story of light seducing individuals down through the ages. Consequently, it is not concerned with the progress of scientific inquiries into the physical properties and behavior of light, optical science, but rather with subjective reactions to it as reflected in art. Paleolithic through Roman architecture, Egyptian, Grecian, Roman mythology and religion, Paleolithic Egyptian and literature, e.g. Akhenaten, Plato, Aeschylus, Lucretius, John the Evangelist, Plotinus and Augustine. This book celebrates the complexity of our relation to light's character. No individual experience of light is truer than any other, none improves on any previous experience of light's tidal pull on us. And the wondrous variety of these encounters has yielded a richly layered tapestry of human experience. By its broad scope and interdisciplinary approach, this pioneering book is without precedent.

Restoring the Soul of the World David Fideler, 2014-11-20 Humanity's creative role within the living pattern of nature. Explores important scientific discoveries that reveal the self-organizing intelligence at the heart of nature. Examines the idea of a living cosmos from its roots in the earliest cultures to its eclipse during the Scientific Revolution to its return today. Reveals ways to reengage our creative partnership with nature and collaborate with nature's intelligence. For millennia the world was seen as a creative interconnected web of life constantly growing, developing, and restoring itself. But with the arrival of the Scientific Revolution in the 16th and 17th centuries, the world was viewed as a lifeless clock-like mechanism bound by the laws of classical physics. Intelligence was a trait ascribed solely to human beings, and thus humanity was viewed as superior to and separate from nature. Today, new scientific discoveries are reviving the ancient philosophy of a living interconnected cosmos, and humanity is learning from and collaborating with nature's intelligence in new life-enhancing ways, from ecological design to biomimicry. Drawing upon the most important scientific discoveries of recent times, David Fideler explores the self-organizing intelligence at the heart of nature and humanity's place in the cosmic pattern. He examines the ancient vision of the living cosmos from its roots in the world soul of the Greeks and the alchemical tradition to its eclipse during the Scientific Revolution to its return today. He explains how the mechanistic worldview led to humanity's profound sense of alienation, for if the universe only functioned as a machine, there was no longer any room for genuine creativity or spontaneity. He shows how this isn't the case and how even at the molecular level, natural systems engage in self-organization, self-preservation, and creative problem-solving, mirroring the ancient idea of a creative intelligence that exists deep within the heart of nature. Revealing new connections between science, religion, and culture, Fideler explores how to reengage our creative partnership with nature and new ways to collaborate with nature's intelligence.

The Secret of the Temple John Michael Greer, 2016-12-08 Over thousands of years, the priests and sages of the ancient world discovered that the design and location of certain structures had beneficial effects on the crops that sustained life. A body of traditional lore evolved using architecture and ceremonies that made use of these wholly natural but mysterious effects. In The Secret of the Temple, John Michael Greer painstakingly rebuilds a body of lost knowledge that has been used to accumulate and direct energy throughout history and can be used again today. The Temple of Solomon was only one of many ancient structures that drew on the temple tradition. The insights of this tradition have been passed down through those in society tasked with protecting ancient wisdom. Secret societies like the Knights Templar and the Freemasons. But over time, as cultures and technologies changed, the meaning of these cryptic symbols and rituals became obscured until now. This book explores the esoteric body of knowledge that shaped the world of our forebears, gave rise to the world's most awe-inspiring temples and cathedrals, and continues to fuel speculation about powerful forces at work in our world.

begun in The Pleiadian Agenda which has sold more than 60 000 copies Explains why contrary to many prophets of doom we are actually on the cusp of an era of incredible creative growth The recent discovery of the remains of ancient villages buried beneath the Black Sea is the latest instance of mounting evidence that many of the mythic catastrophes of history the fall of Atlantis the Biblical Flood were actual events In Catastrophobia Barbara Hand Clow shows that a series of cataclysmic disasters caused by a massive disturbance in the Earth s crust 11 500 years ago rocked the world and left humanity s collective psyche permanently scarred We are a wounded species and this unprocessed fear passed from generation to generation is responsible for our constant expectations of apocalypse from Y2K to the famed end of the Mayan calendar in 2012 Catastrophobia reveals the insidious global forces that have used these collective fears to control humanity for thousands of years But we are in the midst of a tremendous shift in the Earth s 26 000 year precessional cycle and there is every indication that the changes in consciousness over the last 30 years are the beginnings of a collective healing from these deep fears heralding a new age where we will see that the era of cataclysms is ending and a time of extraordinary creative activity is at hand
