St. Clair, Alan B. Govenar, 1981-01-01 The Subcultures Reader Ken Gelder, 2005 Revised and update completely to include new research and theories this second edition of a hugely successful book brings together a range of articles from big names in the field classic texts and new thinking on subcultures and their definitions Jewish Bodylore Amy K. Milligan, 2018-12-27 Jewish Bodylore Feminist and Queer Ethnographies of Folk Practices explores the Jewish body and its symbology as a space for identity communication applying the tools of bodylore the folkloric study of the body to the Jewish body in ways that are in line both with feminist and queer theory The text centers a feminist folkloric approach to embodiment while simultaneously recognizing its overlaps with the study of Jewish bodies and symbols It investigates Jewish embodiment with a keen eye to that which breaks from tradition Consideration is given to the ways in which bodies intersect with time and space in the synagogue within religious movements in secular culture and in childhood ritual Representing a unique approach to contemporary Jewish Studies this book argues that Jewish bodies and the intersections they represent are at the core of understanding the contemporary Jewish experience Rather than abandoning or dismissing Judaism many contemporary Jews use their bodies as a canvas claiming space for themselves demonstrating a deliberate and calculated navigation of Jewish law and engaging a traditionally patriarchal symbol set which in its feminist use amplifies their voices in a context which might otherwise silence them Through these actions and choices contemporary Jews demonstrate a nuanced understanding of their public identities as gendered and sexed bodies and a commitment to working towards increased inclusivity within the larger Jewish and secular communities In the end this book is a foray into the world of Jewish bodies how they can be conceptualized using folkloristics and how feminist methodologies of the body can be applied fairly to Jewish bodies celebrating the multitude of ways in which the body can be conceptualized and experienced Inked: Tattoos and Body Art around the World luxurious yet bizarre setting for members of the chat room who leave their homes in different cities around the United States Over the course of their stay they bond together in unexpected ways as they tell each other stories ranging from the personal to the ludicrous at times riffing on the absurdity of Boccaccio's tales A terrible storm fractures the group and forces the characters to come to terms with their own lives as they pursue love faith and the truth that medieval history ultimately reveals backgrounds and occupations explore and reflect on the meaning of frontier both literally and metaphorically This collection chronicles the search for freedom and opportunity and the achievement of success in a wide variety of fields The contributors all pushed beyond self imposed or culturally enforced boundaries to pursue their dreams and ambitions They include Mark Dean an IBM vice president and member of the Inventors Hall of Fame who holds three of the original patents upon which the personal computer is based the civil rights attorney Oliver W Hill one of the architects of the Brown v Board of Education Supreme Court case the classical pianist and museum founder Josephine Love and L Douglas Wilder the grandson of slaves who became the first African American governor of Virginia Illustrated with black and white photographs and featuring an incisive introduction by Alan Govenar Untold Glory is both an important addition to the field of African American history and an engaging eye opening look at some of the nation's most daring innovative and influential pioneers Journal of American Culture, 1982

Despite the social sciences growing fascination with tattooing and the immense popularity of tattoos themselves the practice has not left much of a historical record And until very recently there was no good context for writing a serious history of tattooing in the West This collection exposes for the first time the richness of the tattoo's European and American history from antiquity to the present day In the process it rescues tattoos from their stereotypical and sensationalized association with criminality The tattoo has long hovered in a space between the cosmetic and the punitive Throughout its history the status of the tattoo has been complicated by its dual association with slavery and penal practices on the one hand and exotic or forbidden sexuality on the other The tattoo appears often as an involuntary stigma sometimes as a self imposed marker of identity and occasionally as a beautiful corporal decoration This volume analyzes the tattoo s fluctuating often uncomfortable position from multiple angles Individual chapters explore fascinating segments of its history from the metaphorical meanings of tattooing in Celtic society to the class related commodification of the body in Victorian Britain from tattooed entertainers in Germany to tattooing and piercing as self expression in the contemporary United States But they also accumulate to form an expansive textured view of permanent bodily modification in the West By combining empirical history powerful cultural analysis and a highly readable style this volume both draws on and propels the ongoing effort to write a meaningful cultural history of the body The contributors representing several disciplines have all conducted extensive original research into the Western tattoo Together they have produced an unrivalled account of its history They are in addition to the editor Clare Anderson Susan Benson James Bradley Ian Duffield Juliet Fleming Alan Govenar Harriet Guest Mark Gustafson C P Jones Charles MacQuarrie Hamish Maxwell Stewart Stephan Oettermann Jennipher A Rosecrans and Abby Schrader

H.C. Westermann at War David McCarthy,2004 This book examines the antiwar work of one American artist in relation to the cultural history of the Cold War The study provides new and detailed information on this important artist while also contributing to the study of masculinity dissent art violence and war in the last half of the twentieth century The study clearly reveals that artists protests against American foreign policy began well before the official U S entry in the Vietnam War and that not all combat veterans looked back fondly on their experience of the Good War Finally in drawing attention to the challenges of being a man in a hostile world Westermann s art enters into a much broader consideration of gender long before this issue became topical in contemporary art director of the American Studies Program at Rhodes College in Tennessee
