Stopped By Time:

The Man Who Stopped Time Brian Clegg, 2007-03-26 The photographs of Eadweard Muybridge are immediately familiar to us Less familiar is the dramatic personal story of this seminal and wonderfully eccentric Victorian pioneer now brought to life for the first time in this engaging and thoroughly entertaining biography His work is iconic the first icons of the modern visual age Men women boxers wrestlers racehorses elephants and camels frozen in time captured in the act of moving fighting galloping living Scarcely a day goes by without their derivative use somewhere in today's media And if most of us have seen Muybridge's distinctive stop motion photographs all of us have seen the fruit of his extraordinary technological innovation today's cinema and television But it is his personal life that possesses all the ingredients of a classic non-fiction best-seller a passionately driven man struggling against the odds dire treachery and shocking betrayal a cast of larger-than-life characters set against a backdrop of San Francisco and the Far West in its most turbulent and dangerous era a profusion of scientific and artistic advances and discoveries one hotly following on another the nervous intensity of two spectacular courtroom dramas one pitting Muybridge against the richest man in the land and staring ruin in the face the other sees him fighting for his life And for the opening act a foul murder on a dark and stormy night Skillfully articulating the fascinating history of a now ubiquitous technology author Brian Clegg combines ingredients from science and biography to create an eminently readable fast-paced and surprising story

How to Stop Time Matt Haig, 2019-06-11 From the 1 New York Times bestselling author of The Midnight Library a quirky romcom dusted with philosophical observations A delightfully witty poignant novel The Washington Post Soon to be a TV series starring Benedict Cumberbatch How many lifetimes does it take to learn how to live Don't miss Matt Haig's new novel The Life Impossible coming September 2024 Tom Hazard has a dangerous secret He may look like an ordinary 41-year-old history teacher but he's been alive for centuries From Elizabethan England to Jazz Age Paris from New York to the South Seas Tom has seen it all As long as he keeps changing his identity he can keep one step ahead of his past and stay alive The only thing he must not do is fall in love

Stop-Time Frank Conroy, 1977-02-24 First published in 1967 Stop Time was immediately recognized as a masterpiece of modern American autobiography a brilliant portrayal of one boy's passage from childhood to adolescence and beyond Here is Frank Conroy's wry sad beautiful tale of life on the road of odd jobs and lost friendships brutal schools and first loves of a father's early death and a son's exhilarating escape into manhood

Trying Again to Stop Time Jalal Barzanji, 2015-04-15 It's a losing battle my words have no chance against time Sometimes unable to catch up with imagination I leave the battle candle in hand in complete darkness from Trying Again to Stop Time Jalal Barzanji chronicles the path of exile and estrangement from his beloved native Kurdistan to his chosen home in Canada His poems speak of the tension that exists between the place of one's birth and an adoptive land of that delicate dance that happens in the face of censorship and oppression In defiance of Saddam Hussein's call for sycophantic political verse he turns to the natural world to reference a mournful state of loss longing alienation and melancholy Barzanji's poetry is infused with the richness of the Middle East but underlying it all is a close affinity to Western Modernists In those moments where language and culture collide and co operate Barzanji carves out a strong voice of opposition to political oppression Readers will return to his work again and again just as viewers return to a favourite painting Like contemporary poets Taslima Nasrin Adonis Yehuda Amichai and Shuntaro Tanikawa Barzanji's is a voice in which the native willingly mutates into the global Sabah A Salih Translator Time Stop for Mouse Max
