Memoirs autobiographies and diaries represent the most personal and most intimate of genres as well as one of the most abundant and popular. Gain new understanding and better serve your readers with this detailed genre guide to nearly 700 titles that also includes notes on more than 2 800 read alike and other related titles. The popularity of this body of literature has grown in recent years and it has also diversified in terms of the types of stories being told and persons telling them. In the past readers advisors have depended on access by names or Dewey classifications and subjects to help readers find autobiographies they will enjoy. This guide offers an alternative organizing the literature according to popular genres subgenres and themes that reflect common reading interests. Describing titles that range from travel and adventure classics and celebrity autobiographies to foodie memoirs and environmental reads.

Life Stories: A Guide to Reading Interests in Memoirs, Autobiographies and Diaries presents a unique overview of the genre that specifically addresses the needs of readers advisors and others who work with readers in finding books. An Island Like You Judith Cofer Ortiz, 2009-07-01. A popular collection of some of the best short fiction and short stories ever written. Stories of Peoplehood Rogers M. Smith, 2003-06-19. How can we build thriving political communities? In this provocative account of how societies are bound together, Rogers Smith examines the importance of stories of peoplehood narratives that promise economic or political power and define political allegiances in religious, cultural, racial, ethnic and related terms. Smith argues that no nations are purely civic; all are bound in part by stories that seek to define elements intrinsic to their members' identities and worth. These types of stories can support valuable forms of political life but they also pose dangers that must be understood if they are to be confronted. In contrast to much contemporary writing, Stories of Peoplehood argues for community building via robust contestation among sharply differing views. This original argument combines accessible theory with colourful examples of myths and stories from around the world and over 2 500 years of human history.

True Stories of Space Exploration

Conspiracies Nick Redfern, 2014-07-15. Established in 1958, NASA, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, has been at the forefront of efforts to explore outer space, resulting in the Apollo missions to the moon, the Skylab space station and the space shuttle. But beyond these very public explorations, author Nick Redfern seeks to display what goes on behind the scenes at NASA, ascertaining whether there is any truth to rumors and speculation about everything from a possible UFO crash at Roswell, New Mexico in 1947 to whether or not the moon landings themselves were faked. Joliet Prison Blues: A Century of Stories Amy Steidinger, 2021. Named warden of the Illinois State Penitentiary in 1913, Edmund Allen arrived with a glamorous new wife and ambitious plans of reform that did away with years of striped uniforms and humiliating practices. Two years later, his wife was found murdered in her bed, shocking the country and throwing the prison into chaos. Over the past century, life behind bars at Joliet has often been a national spectacle. Infamous inmates like Leopold and Loeb, John Wayne Gacy, Baby Face Nelson and James Earl Ray drew headlines and iconic scenes in movies like The Blues Brothers ensured that the prison walls themselves were instantly recognizable. From overlooked prisoner profiles to the kind of dramatic incidents that incited riots or inspired Hollywood Amy Steidinger's stories cover the modern era of Old Joliet Prison

Inhabited by Stories Nancy A. Barta-Smith, Danette DiMarco, 2012-11-30 Intertextuality has signaled change appropriation adaptation and derivation It has focused readers on irresolvable questions of influence and origination progressive or regressive movement across continents periods and media Inhabited by Stories Critical Essays on Tales Retold takes a different approach What would a model of literary study look like that steps out of time's river and embraces not only the presence and proximity of the world to the senses but also of the past and the future to the present here and now When stories inhabit us imagination and memory extend our ability to see and feel Phenomenological experience is lived not just thought Such a perspective suggests that the past and future inhabit the present increase the depth of sensory perception itself and enrich the range of our affective and ethical responses Grounded in the lived experience of reading this perspective offers an alternative to an idea of intertextuality as simply following lines of influence and appropriation It focuses on the expansion of experience created by telling and retelling stories Ironically for literary theorists and critics perhaps the highest form of both praise and critique is a tale retold since such retellings attest to literature's instructive power and its perennial regeneration

Latina Legacies Vicki Ruíz, Virginia Sánchez Korrol, 2005 An extraordinary exploration of Latinas in the United States from the 1800s to the present this collection of narrative biographies documents the lives of fifteen remarkable individuals who witnessed defied and wrote about the forces that shaped their lives Since the earliest periods of Spanish American colonization women have claimed public space and built communities both as physical places and as cultural realms As entrepreneurs community activists mystics educators feminists labor organizers artists and entertainers many Latinas used the power of the pen to traverse and transgress the social boundaries and cultural conventions of their time Their diverse histories span two centuries and encompass a past of multiple conquests and migrations taking into account race region gender culture and social location Blending insights from history literary criticism and cultural studies this interdisciplinary anthology re envisions Latina history taking into consideration gendered genealogies of power as charted through grassroots activism literature education and economic enterprise Their legacies rest on the production and dissemination of knowledge which in turn reveals much about their own worldviews and historical agency This anthology profiles Victoria Reid Mar a Amparo Ruiz de Burton Mar a Gertrudis Barcel Loreta Janeta Vel zquez Luisa Capetillo Lola Rodr guez de Ti Teresa Urrea Adelina Otero Warren Jovita Gonz lez Mireles Pura Belpr Luisa Moreno Carmen Miranda Antonia Pantoja Ana Mendieta and Dolores Huerta
