Stories From The Ice Storm:

Stories from the Ice Storm Mark Abley, 1999 Even in the dark and bitter cold of a freezing January life in all its variety had to go on At a time when the simplest of domestic chores became a test of ingenuity and endurance people got married babies were delivered journeys were undertaken Here are stories of all that and more There s the inspiring story of the elderly goldfish the train ride from hell the fifteen problem chimps the exploding stove and the burning tree There s a story from an eighty five year old poet a child of ten and even one from a dog The gallant people who helped run the shelters and the hospitals share their funniest and most poignant memories Soldiers in the army one of those famous Hydro linesmen and a volunteer firefighter tell us just what it was like And authors Steven Houghton Karen Molson and Jane Urquhart amongst others add their own perspective on living through the storm The destruction and the human cost reminded people of a war Though the enemy this time was Nature and in many ways looked beautiful the ice storm brought real hardship and death But like a war it also brought people together as never before and gave Canadians something to remember whether happy inspiring or sad for the rest of their lives Stories from the Ice Storm captures all that for the people who were there and for the millions of Canadians who looked on

Tales of the Weather Muska Ayir, 101-01-01 Tales of the Weather is a tribute to the fascinating unpredictable force that shapes every corner of our world This book explores the beauty mystery and power of weather blending scientific understanding with rich storytelling From gentle breezes to devastating storms it highlights how weather affects our moods cultures and environments Each chapter brings to life a unique weather phenomenon like the aurora borealis or hurricanes exploring not just their physical nature but also their cultural and historical importance Drawing from science history folklore and personal accounts the book paints a vivid portrait of weather as a living force that connects all humanity It aims to spark curiosity and appreciation for nature s atmospheric dance while showcasing the local and global impact of weather on daily life Above all it invites readers to see weather with fresh eyes and to embrace its power to shape both our planet and our perception of it

The Hermit's Story Rick Bass, 2003-09-18 A Los Angeles Times Best Book of the Year Uniformly excellent stories about our relationships with each other and with the treacherous natural world Publishers Weekly In the title story a man and woman travel across an eerily frozen lake under the ice The Distance casts a skeptical eye on Thomas Jefferson through the lens of a Montana man s visit to Monticello Eating begins with an owl being sucked into a canoe and ends with a man eating a town out of house and home and The Cave is a stunning story of a man and woman lost in an abandoned mine Other stories include The Fireman Swans The Prisoners Presidents Day Real Town and Two Deer Each is remarkable in its own way sure to please both new readers and avid fans of Rick Bass s passionate unmistakable voice Bass focuses a naturalist s eye not only on the frozen lakes and interplay of predator and prey often found in his work but also on the ebb and flow of human emotions and relationships Thought provoking and entertaining these stories move along quickly but continue to resonate long after the reader is done several have been anthologized in award collections Library Journal Beautiful in their magical imagery dramatic in their situations and exquisitely poignant in their insights these stories of awe and loss are quite astonishing in their mythic use of place and the elements of earth air fire and water Booklist Bass puts his talent as a nature writer to terrific use The New York Times Book Review Bass s language glistens with the beauty of the landscapes he evokes San Francisco Chronicle Book Review

Leadership in Disaster Raymond Murphy,2009-04-01 Murphy explores whether technological development inadvertently constructed new vulnerabilities thereby manufacturing a natural disaster As the extreme weather in the ice storm may foreshadow what will occur with global warming Leadership in Disaster also explores the politics economics ethics and cultural predispositions involved in climate change investigating how modern societies create both the risks they assume are acceptable and the burden of managing them An innovative comparison with Amish communities where the same extreme weather had trivial consequences is instructive for avoiding future socio economic catastrophes The Complete historical writing local author Mike Dickerman captures the spirit tenacity and resourcefulness of those who have lived worked and played in these Great White Hills His stories also bring to life dramatic events that scarred the landscape long ago such as tragic plane crashes and the devastating Hurricane of 1938 The book spans the ages from the logging railroads of yesteryear to the forest fire lookout towers of the mid 20th century and covers the expanse of these rolling hills from the snow laden heights of Mount Washington to the stately grounds of the Mountain View House in Whitefield Better Broadcast Writing, Better Broadcast News Greg Dobbs,2015-10-14 Better Broadcast Writing Better Broadcast News teaches students how to write with the conversational simplicity required for radio and TV This text draws on the Emmy Award winning author s decades of professional experience in broadcast journalism In addition to writing the text also discusses the other elements that make up a good story producing reporting shooting editing and ethics The author s real world perspective conveys the excitement of a career in journalism Nature's Serial Story Edward Payson Roe,2025-08-18

Reproduction of the original The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage New York Magazine ,1997-11-17 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea The Strategic Use of Stories in Organizational Communication and Learning Terrence L. Gargiulo,2014-12-18 Designed for students and practitioners in the fields of organizational behavior and human resource training and development this groundbreaking book presents a cutting edge approach to improving organizational communication Drawing on his extensive experience as an organizational development consultant and group process facilitator Terrence Gargiulo shows how the use of storytelling is the key to effective communication and learning Tragic Novels, René Girard and the American Dream Carly Osborn,2020-05-14 This book draws on the philosopher Ren Girard to argue that three twentieth century American novels Jeffrey Eugenides s The Virgin Suicides Rick Moody s The Ice Storm and Richard Yates s Revolutionary Road are tragedies Until now Girardian literary analysis has generally focused on representations of human desire in texts and neglected both other emotions and the place of tragedy Carly Osborn addresses these omissions by using Girardian theory to present evidence that novels can indeed be tragedies The book advances the scholarship of tragedy that has run from Aristotle to Nietzsche to Terry Eagleton proposing a new way to read modern novels through ancient traditions In addition this is the first work to examine the place of women as victims or in Girardian terms scapegoats in twentieth century fiction specifically by considering the representation of women s bodies and ambivalence about their identities In deploying a rich and vivid array of tragic tropes The Virgin Suicides The Ice Storm and Revolutionary

Road participate in a deep rooted American tragic tradition Tragic Novels the American Dream and Ren Girard will be of interest to those working at the intersection of philosophy and literature as well as Girard specialists One Story a Day Leonard Judge, Scott Paterson, Yang Liu, Walter Young, 2024-07-19T13:49:00Z One Story a Day for is a series of 365 stories in 12 books that touch on a wide variety of topics intended for slightly older children than the Early Readers set The stories written by Canadian authors are inspired by life lessons fables from around the world nature science and history The series is designed to foster children's total development linguistic intellectual social and cultural through the joy of reading The Story of the Weather Eugene Van Cleef, 1929 Something Happened (a True Story of) Deglovement Sterling Fields, 2011-08 This is a true story of DEGLOVEMENT amputation of the back of the head deeper than a scalping and the man who survived to testify to others SOMETHING HAPPENED will make you think even change some of your everyday habits To much to wrap your mind around A MUST READ Speaking in Images Michael Berry, 2005 Interviews with Ang Lee Crouching Tiger Hidden Dragon and other Chinese directors about their work the ways it has impacted both on the film industry in China as well as on the world scene Killer Story Claire St. Amant, 2025-02-18 Follow a journalist and TV producer from 48 Hours and 60 Minutes as she carves out a career in the ruthless knives out world of true crime television one killer story at a time Serial killers Homicidal spouses Sociopathic criminals Claire St Amant has met them all She spent nearly a decade in network television chasing the biggest true crime stories in the country including the murder of Chris Kyle plastic surgeon turned murder for hire suspect Thomas Michael Dixon the Parkland high school mass shooting the disappearance of Christina Morris and serial killer Samuel Little Bringing a true crime story to network television requires quick thinking and tenacious stamina and in her debut memoir Claire offers true crime fans a rare in depth look from the other side of the yellow tape In Killer Story readers will learn what it really takes to get these gripping cases on the air with insights such as How it feels to share space with a dead eyed murderer Which TV show has a reputation for eating their young How reporters win over skeptical cops and reluctant lawyers Why TV journalists are always racing against the clock and competitor sabotage What happens when a district attorney decides journalists have committed a felony The unresolved crimes that still haunt Claire to this day This eye opening look behind the scenes of true crime television offers an unforgettable read and a window into the daily reality of investigative journalism Primary Education , 1903 Popular Educator , 1903 Tell Me a Story, Tell Me the Truth Gina Roitman, 2008-01-01 In Tell Me a Story Tell Me the Truth author Gina Roitman has captured her own experience as the daughter of Holocaust survivors in the character of Leah Smilovitz An outsider she belongs neither to her parents painful generation nor to her own The Story of My Life - By Shayna Greta Marsh, 2003-04-15 The story of my life is about dog racing and a good deal more It is about cruelty the human capacity for cruelty towards human animals and animals of other species Dog racing commonly known as Greyhound racing is not a sport because no legitimate sport uses enslaved involuntary participants and murders many of them once they start losing and no longer are competitive and profitable Dog racing is in fact a deadly form of entertainment as are horse racing dog fighting cock fighting hunting and circuses that use enslaved other specied animals Incidentally I remember Greta talking about a form of entertainment that was popular in Ancient Rome and which took place in public arenas There enslaved humans known as gladiators were forced to engage in deadly combat against each other to the delight of cheering crowds Often the losing gladiator was killed outright and sometimes he lived depending upon the mood of the spectators Unlike some spectator sports whose fans identify with and form emotional attachments to the athletes dog racing fans care little or nothing about the Greyhounds This detachment can be attributed to the racers short racing careers some race for just one season or part of a season at a specific track and then are shipped elsewhere But let s return to my story Please know that I am real as are other characters On the other hand some characters are not real They are fictional And although some of the events discussed in Part One are based on real happenings some are not and Part One is a work of fiction In conclusion I hope with all my heart that this book touches the hearts and minds of its readers Shayna Lanesboro MA 1998
