With the development of industrialization for more than 100 years, China, which has been a major industrial heritage country, is often ignored in the field of industrial heritage research. This is the first book in the world to systematically explore the cultural and tourism industry's involvement in the transformation and renewal of Chinese industrial heritage. Stories told to a child, by the author of 'Studies for stories'. Jean Ingelow, 1865 Oral Traditions in Contemporary China Juwen Zhang, 2021-11-08 In Oral Traditions in Contemporary China: Healing a Nation, Juwen Zhang provides a systematic survey of such oral traditions as folk and fairy tales, proverbs, ballads, and folksongs that are vibrantly practiced today. Zhang establishes a theoretical framework for understanding how Chinese culture has continued for thousands of years with vitality and validity, core and arbitrary identity markers, and folkloric identity. This framework, which describes a cultural self-healing mechanism, is equally applicable to the exploration of other traditions and cultures in the world. Through topics from Chinese Cinderella to the Grimms of China, from proverbs like "older ginger is spicier" to the life views held by the Chinese, and from mountain songs and ballads to the musical instruments like the clay vessel flute the author weaves these oral traditions across time and space into a mesmerizing intellectual journey Focusing on contemporary practice this book serves as a bridge between Chinese and international folklore scholarship and other related disciplines as well Those interested in Chinese culture in general and Chinese folklore literature and oral tradition in particular will certainly delight in perusing this book The Dao of Being Jewish and Other Stories Irene Shaland,2023-01-16 This book is a collection of Jewish survival stories and fascinating tales This is not a conventional travel guide this book will shine a light on the history of 10 Jewish communities in Europe Asia and Africa Together with the author you will visit incredible places and meet the Jews of today GTA Books Two and a half millennia ago a small party of Jews explored new trading routes for King Solomon settled in the south of India and lived there peacefully until today Similarly during the ancient Roman period many Jewish merchants traveled to China over the Silk Route and some made it their permanent home Also before the Edict of Expulsion in 1492 Sicily was home to over 50 Jewish communities possibly numbering 50 000 people So how did the Diaspora bring these wandering Jews to so many places around the globe And why did Jews live happily in India and China for centuries and not experience antisemitism while the story of the Jews in Europe went from persecution and massacres to unspeakable horrors of the Holocaust Finally why do we see the rise of antisemitism and violence again in the 21st century You will find answers to these questions and much more in the current edition of Irene Shaland s artfully illustrated book The Dao of Being Jewish and Other Stories She collected these fascinating stories while visiting ten countries in Europe Asia and Africa and interviewing the locals in their homes synagogues and even cemeteries Now Irene Shaland s book replete with her husband s photos takes you on your own exciting journey of discovery from Austria and the Czech Republic to Scandinavia from India and China to Sicily and Sardinia and from East Africa to Stalinist Russia Public Opinion ,1905 British Books ,1907 Illustrated Catalogue of Books, Standard and Holiday McClurg, Firm, Booksellers, Chicago,1903
