Stories Of Righteousness:

The Story of Romans A. Katherine Grieb, 2002-09-30 A Katherine Grieb insightfully traces the argument of Paul's letter to the Romans and shows how it is grounded in the story of God's faithfulness to Israel. She draws together a number of crucial insights: the narrative character of Paul's thought, the apocalyptic message of his gospel, the depth of his engagement with Israel's Scripture, and the practical and political impact of his theology. She demonstrates the letter's relevance today and invites contemporary readers to locate their own stories within Paul's account of God's righteousness. Informed by recent Pauline scholarship, this book will be useful to scholars, students, and pastors.

Trial Stories in Jewish Antiquity Chaya T. Halberstam, 2025-05-15 What can early Jewish courtroom narratives tell us about the capacity and limits of human justice? By exploring how judges and the act of judging are depicted in these narratives, Trial Stories in Jewish Antiquity Counternarratives of Justice challenges the prevailing notion both then and now of the ideal impartial judge. As a work of intellectual history, the book also contributes to contemporary debates about the role of legal decision making in shaping a just society. Chaya T. Halberstam shows that instead of modelling a system in which lofty, inaccessible judges follow objective and rational rules, ancient Jewish trial narratives depict a legal practice dependent upon the individual judge's personal relationships, reactive emotions, and impulse to care. Drawing from affect theory and feminist legal thought, Halberstam offers original readings of some of the most famous trials in ancient Jewish writings alongside minor case stories in Josephus and rabbinic literature. She shows both the consistency of a counter tradition that sees legal practice as contingent upon relationship and emotion and the specific ways in which that perspective was manifest in changing times and contexts.

Running after Righteousness ANDREA GAYLE FLOHR,2025-07-30 Running after Righteousness A 25 Day Advent Journey toward Jesus was born of the author s incessant need to find an Advent devotional to minister to her weary heart at Christmas time Andrea Flohr longs to point readers to the One who is Righteousness and the true meaning of the season Through twenty five days of devotionals readers may embrace wholeheartedly their actual Christmas full of joy unspeakable regardless of their circumstances This book pounds the truth of Christmas to a weary world which so easily falls prey to the superficial joy stealers of the season Using nontraditional Advent characters Andrea Flohr integrates Bible stories of old along with the nativity loved by all telling the beautiful story from creation to the cross with a midway stop at the manger Individuals will journey each day to seek the Savior in a new way with practical advice biblical exhortation and a daily activity to point hearts back to the whole point of it all Jesus Ninety Biblical Story Lessons for Adults Jim Roch  ,2024-03-13 How would new untrained Christians kindly and humbly introduce God to their non Christian friends What if neither the Christian nor the non Christian could learn from printed materials such as pamphlets books or the Bible itself What if the new Christian was usually alone and untrained in a community hostile to Christian beliefs How could these new Christians continue the process of reproducing spiritual generations without first being fully taught themselves The strategy offered here is to tell biblical stories that can be easily retold Stories that revealed God s acts and perspectives leading to questions and discussion Stories that caused new listeners to question their own beliefs You re holding a collection of ninety stories designed to be retold by anyone thirty Old Testament stories chronologically arranged from creation to the return from Israel s exile thirty Gospel stories from the announcement of Jesus birth to his ascension to heaven and thirty stories from the New Testament from Pentecost to Jesus return from heaven to earth Each lesson is built upon the principles from Roche s first book Biblical Storytelling Design Understanding Why Oral Stories Work but modeled and explained in this book Who Are the Righteous? Denise Powell,2021-09-28 Who is righteous and how one becomes righteous is a question often debated in

Pauline studies but rarely explored in the Gospels In this book Denise Powell investigates Luke's answer to the question by tracing his righteous characters sequentially through the Gospel narrative By portraying Zechariah and Elizabeth Mary Simeon and Anna as righteous at the beginning of the narrative Luke establishes the characteristics of the righteous As a result of the primacy effect these birth narrative characters become the standard against which the righteous nature of subsequent characters is measured This leads to uncertainty over who belongs in the category of the righteous when later stories contrast an ostensibly righteous character with a sinner The increasing uncertainty over who belongs in which category functions as the backdrop for the centurion's declaration that Jesus is righteous By way of the sword discourse of 22:35-38 and the subsequent arrest scene Jesus intentionally places himself in the sinner category in fulfilment of Scripture Since Jesus has placed himself in solidarity with sinners and they with him the centurion's declaration that Jesus is righteous has implications for all the sinners in the Lukan story Tales of the Righteous ,2011 Throughout the generations Jews have been inspired and guided by the tales of gedolim our great masters of piety and wisdom Simcha Raz's Tales of the Righteous newly translated by Rabbi Dov Peretz Elkins brings the lives of these masters to life Raz's pithy vignettes and awe inspiring tales show that together with their brilliance in Torah study these rabbis were also paragons of sensitive ethical behaviour
