Imagining Futures Helen Stokes, 2012-08-01 Young people consider their future at a stage of life when the structure and relative certainty of school and further education are about to be left behind. This book provides an insight into how young people see themselves, the options they think are available to them and the strategies they use to make their imagined futures possible. Ultimately Imagining Futures is about identity. It draws on the real life stories and voices of a range of young people, many of whom are in their final years of secondary school or TAFE, to present an eye-opening portrait of who they are, who they aim to become and how.

Children's Perceptions of Learning with Trainee Teachers Hilary Cooper, Rob Hyland, 2002-01-31 This book is unique as it focuses on pupils' perceptions of their learning with trainee teachers in primary schools. It aims to raise trainee teachers' awareness of the importance of considering pupils' perceptions in evaluating their teaching and provides frameworks for doing so. It enables teachers to make links between theory, research and practice as part of their ongoing development. The text includes interviews with primary pupils, examples of new teaching approaches, case studies offering pupil insights into curriculum subjects, chapter summaries giving suggestions for teaching strategies, discussions with mentors and tutors and further reading.
