Narrating the Everyday: Windows on Life in Central South Africa Asta Rau, Magdalena Wojciechowska, Jan K. Coetzee, 2019-01-01 The chapters in this book reflect on the practice of using narratives to understand individual and social reality They all reveal dimensions of the same concrete reality contemporary society of Central South Africa Except for two all the chapters originated from research in the program The Narrative Study of Lives situated in the Department of Sociology at the University of the Free State in Bloemfontein South Africa Each chapter opens a window on an aspect of everyday life in Central South Africa Each window displays the capacity of the narrative as a methodological tool in qualitative research to open up better understandings of everyday experience The chapters also reflect on the epistemological journey towards unwrapping and breaking open of meaning Narratives are one of many tools available to sociologists in their quest to understand and interpret meaning But when it comes to deep understanding narratives are particularly effective in opening up more intricate levels of meaning associated with emotions feelings and subjective experiences

Popular Politics in the History of South Africa, 1400-1948 Paul S. Landau, 2010-09-20 Popular Politics in the History of South Africa 1400 1948 offers an inclusive vision of South Africa s past Drawing largely from original sources Paul Landau presents a history of the politics of the country s people from the time of their early settlements in the elevated heartlands through the colonial era to the dawn of Apartheid A practical tradition of mobilization alliance and amalgamation persisted mutated and occasionally vanished from view it survived against the odds in several forms in tribalisms Christian assemblies and other seemingly hybrid movements and it continues today Landau treats southern Africa broadly concentrating increasingly on the southern Highveld and ultimately focusing on a transnational movement called the Samuelites He shows how people s politics in South Africa were suppressed and transformed but never entirely eliminated archives and museum and heritage education in South Africa and argues for meaningful transformation of the sector through a decolonisation from its Eurocentric mooring
