Stories From El Barrio:

Stories from El Barrio Piri Thomas, 2017-11-03 In these eight stories Piri Thomas takes us with him into El Barrio Puerto Rico in New York City and recreates the scenes he knows so well from his own childhood He leads us through streets teaming with life up crumbling front stoops down dark hallways into crowded rooms and into the hearts and minds of his people He takes us into the ring for a hard fought boxing match and out of the city on a Boy Scout outing He sits us in the barber's chair and right under the burning scalp of a kid getting his hair straightened He puts us into a boy's mind for a wild fantasy trip and into the heart of a sixteen year old trying to impress a pretty girl He draws vivid stories from his part experiences and makes us feel what it means to be poor and proud and generous to be streetwise and full of bravado but frightened too to struggle to go straight to be ashamed of being ashamed to dream Piri Thomas who reached thousands of readers with his bestselling autobiography Down These Mean Streets now gives young readers a vivid slice of the life in El Barrio a place where people face their problems with energy ingenuity and love Speaking in the voice of the streets and from his heart he captures their spirit their laughter and their hope schools In the second year of our project we created short stories with children from Ireland Portugal Spain Croatia Poland Romania and Türkiye Our students wrote many short stories and 65 of them were selected to be published in this book We created an audiobook library with that stories All the stories were narrated in their mother tongues and we add English audio for selected stories Also stories are illustrated by the students from different countries We also have a collaborative story this year each part of the story was written by eTwinners studying in different schools It consists of 13 parts Nihal the main character needs to find an extinct plant but it's harder for her to find someone to rely on We travelled with her in different countries and times to learn more about her adventure It took seven months to complete that collaborative story We used English as a common language during the meetings but we created opportunities for our students to use their mother tongues too We experienced multilingualism with our students and parents they become familiar with different languages and cultures Through our language friendly project we want to encourage students to develop an interest in different languages and cultures by welcoming and valuing all languages spoken By creating a story a child can channel their emotions and decide on how to behave in challenging situations they might encounter While creating a story the author shows empathy with the characters expresses different emotions experienced by characters or overcomes a difficult situation that a character encountered This may help a child to express how they feel and understand how others feel Storytelling is a way of self discovery and self expression their feelings can be demonstrated throughout the child's words Creating a story can also develop language skills The mother tongue education is a raison d'être for the schools Because when learners develop their mother tongue they are simultaneously fostering a whole host of other essential skills such as critical thinking and literacy skills Children with a strong mother tongue can easily pick up a second language and can transfer these skills to a second language These children often display a deeper understanding of themselves and their environment That affects every aspect of their lives including their academic achievement It has become a requirement to have language skills in addition to being a specialist within a particular field I'd like to thank the teachers of Ali Tekinsoy Secondary School and my distinguished colleagues from partner schools for encouraging and inspiring their students to contribute to our second multilingual book named Stories of Lights in the Sky 2 More than a hundred students built this book with their words lines and voices They were brave enough to represent their schools by sending their stories to a book that has been read in more than fifty countries We wish the best for them and hear their names again even years after Ahmet ARSLAN Editor's z Dilsizler haberini kulaksız dinleyesi Dilsiz kulaksız sızın can gerek anlayas Yetmi iki dil sat araya sınırdı Bu dizeler 13 yzylda yaayan bir Türk dıne aittir UNESCO 2021 yılında 700 yldın mısna Yunus Emre Yılı olarak ilan etti Bu kitapta Yunus Emre ye adanmış bir kşaykımız devarıirdeki gibi ortak hayalimiz iin birlikte al t m z retmen ve rencilerle aradaki sınırlar kaldıracak g l bir dil iin a ettik Yedi farklı l keden gen yazarlarla payla t m z bir hayalimiz vardı ok dilli bir kitap olu turmak İlk kitabımız ge en yıl 23 Nisan da yayımlandı k ve farklı l kelerdeki gen yazarlar mızda bas l kitaplar n ula t rd k Projemizin ikinci

Spanish short stories Elijah Clarence Hills,Louise Reinhardt,1910 Puerto Rican Women from the Jazz Age: Stories of Success Basilio Serrano,2019-08-29 The topic of this book may seem unusual to some since there may be those who believe that Puerto Rican women may not have entered the jazz milieu during its early history Nevertheless an aim of the book is to dispel this and other false generalizations The contents of this volume will document how Puerto Rican women were not only present in early jazz but how they played trailblazing and innovative roles and contributed to the emergence of the genre in the States and abroad This work will present information that is confirmable through a variety of sources The book may not be the definitive work on the subject but will serve as a starting point to document the success and achievement of several Puerto Rican women from the jazz age consider the different strategies used for success in jazz and film by women illustrate the evolution of various careers consider the different personal circumstances under which success was achieved consider how women in contemporary jazz and film can learn from their predecessors provide women older young and youthful examples of success with documentary evidence on how to achieve Book Organization The book is organized into sections that cover a brief history of significant Puerto Rican women in music and the performing arts followed by biographical descriptions of pioneering women in jazz and film The book also contains a brief discussion on Puerto Rican women in jazz today followed by a discussion surrounding issues affecting women in the arts today Throughout the text there is commentary on the situations facing women especially male chauvinism colonialism racism and anti women prejudice in jazz Every effort was made to include only facts that are easily confirmable Unsupported tales or questionable events are avoided to ensure that the material contained in the volume can be used for teaching purposes and for curriculum development when credit is given to this work In the process of developing the central theme of this volume special effort was made to document those experiences where Puerto Rican women collaborate with members of the African American community to confirm how the cross cultural collaboration resulted beneficial to both ethnic peoples The book will detail the many instances where members of the African American community assisted the fledgling Puerto Rican artists achieve success and stardom Figures such as Helen Elise Smith David J Martin Will Marion Cook Ada Bricktop Smith Dr Laurence Clifton Jones and other distinguished African Americans are described My hope is that this information will be added to historic works in African American Studies

A Story of Stories Cristina Devereaux Ramírez, 2024-08-20 One afternoon in fall 2015 Cristina Devereaux Ram rez s mother called and with a tone of urgency in her voice asked her to come to the house and take a look at something she had discovered when she was sorting through boxes in the attic When Ram rez arrived she found her family sifting through papers in an old vegetable box reading some of the more than 750 pages of Spanish language poems short stories fables and dichos Ram rez s maternal grandmother Ramona Gonz lez had written Some pieces were works in progress complete with word and phrase strikethroughs and handwritten notes in the margins while others were neatly typed prose or what might have been final drafts None of Gonz lez s writings had seen the outside of that box for decades at least since 1995 when the family matriarch passed away Gonz lez or Do a Ramona as she was often called was born in 1906 in the El Paso border barrio of Chihuahueta sometimes referred to as the Ellis Island of the Southwest Her writing celebrates the rich Mexican American culture of Chihuahueta a neighborhood the National Trust for Historic Preservation identified in 2016 as one of America s most endangered historic places A mother corner grocery store owner published writer and community activist Gonz lez was one of the few Tejanas profiled in Worthy Mothers of Texas 1776 1976

A Story of Stories from a Texas Border Barrio Ramirez chronicles the life of her abuela with the care of a granddaughter and with the eye of a scholar analyzes selections from Gonzalez's work and its significance to El Paso history Chicano literature border barrio folklore and cross border civic movements in the mid twentieth century U.S. Latino Literature Margarite Fernández Olmos, Harold Augenbraum, 2000-09-30 In the past ten years literature by U S Latinos has gained an extraordinary public currency and has engendered a great deal of interest among educators Because of the increase in numbers of Latinos in their classrooms teachers have recognized the benefits of including works by such important writers as Sandra Cisneros Julia Alvarez and Rudolfo Anaya in the curriculum Without a guide introducing courses on U S Latino literature or integrating individual works into the general courses on American Literature can be difficult for the uninitiated While some critical sources for students and teachers are available none are dedicated exclusively to this important body of writing To fill the gap the editors of this volume commissioned prominent scholars in the field to write 18 essays that focus on using U S Latino literature in the classroom The selection of the subject texts was developed in conjunction with secondary school teachers who took part in the editors course This resultant volume focuses on major works that are appropriate for high school and undergraduate study including Judith Ortiz Cofer's The Latin Deli Piri Thomas Down These Mean Streets and Cisneros The House on Mango Street Each chapter in this Critical Guide provides pertinent biographical background on the author as well as contextual information that aids in understanding the literary and cultural significance of the work The most valuable component of the critical essays the Analysis of Themes and Forms helps the reader understand the thematic concerns raised by the work particularly the recurring issues of language expression and cultural identity assimilation and intergenerational conflicts Each essay is followed by specific suggestions for teaching the work with topics for classroom discussion Further enhancing the value of this work as a teaching tool are the selected bibliographies of criticism further reading and other related sources that complete each chapter Teachers will also find a Sample Course Outline of U S Latino Literature which serves as guide for developing a course on this important subject Spanish-American Short Stories / Cuentos hispanoamericanos Stanley Appelbaum, 2012-06-07 These 17 stories from the Caribbean and Central and South America encompass the works of Rubén Darío José Martí Amado Nervo Rómulo Gallegos and Ricardo Palma Spanish Stories of the Romantic Era /Cuentos españoles del Romanticismo Stanley Appelbaum, 2012-07-18 These twelve classic short stories reflect the idealistic and exotic appeal of a golden age in Spanish literature Published from the 1830s to the 1860s the heyday of the Romantic era they remain popular with readers of every generation Featured authors include Fernán Caballero Ramón de Mesonero Romanos Juan Eugenio Hartzenbusch Mariano José de Larra Enrique Gil y Carrasco and Gustavo Adolfo Bécquer This dual language edition features an informative introduction and ample footnotes making it not only a pleasure to read but also a valuable learning and teaching aid for students and teachers of Spanish literature Together with Dover's Spanish Stories of the Late Nineteenth Century it offers a wide ranging survey of an important literary age
