Music and the Play of Power in the Middle East, North Africa and Central Asia Laudan Nooshin, 2016-04-29 What is it about the history geographical position and cultures of the Middle East North Africa and Central Asia that has made music such a potent and powerful agent This volume presents the first direct look at the complex relationship between music and power across a range of musical genres and countries Discourses of power in the region centre on some of the most contested social issues most notably in relation to nationhood gender and religion Individual chapters examine the ways in which music serves as a forum for playing out issues of power ideology resistance and subversion How does music become a space for promoting or conversely resisting or subverting particular ideologies or positions of authority How does it accrue symbolic power in ways that are very particular perhaps unique And how does music become a site of social control or alternatively a vehicle for agency and empowerment at times overt and at others highly subtle What is it about music that facilitates and sometimes disrupts the exercise and flows of power Who controls such flows how and for what purposes In asking such questions in the context of countries such as Afghanistan Egypt Iran Tunisia and Tajikistan the book draws on a wide range of relevant theoretical and critical ideas and many disciplines including ethnomusicology anthropology sociology politics Middle Eastern studies globalization studies gender studies and cultural and media studies The countries and areas explored share a great deal in historical and cultural terms including a legacy of colonial and neo colonial encounters and predominantly Judeo Muslim religious traditions It is hoped that the volume will contribute ultimately to a richer understanding of the role that music plays in these societies The Magazine of Poetry and Literary Review ,1895 The Making of European Music in the Long Eighteenth Century D R M Irving,2024 In this book author D R M Irving traces the emergence of such large scale categories as European music and Western music showing how they originate from self fashioning in contexts of intercultural comparison outside the European continent rather than the resolution of national aesthetic differences within it Taken as a whole this study demonstrates how reductive labels for the musics of a continent or a hemisphere often imply homogeneity and essentialism and how a renewed critique of primary sources can help dismantle historiographical constructs that arose within narratives of musical pasts involving Europe Musical Opinion and Music Trade Review ,1910
