Subsidized Muse:

The Subsidized Muse Dick Netzer, 1978 Subsidizing Culture James T. Bennett, 2017-07-05 In the American mind state subsidization of writers and artists was long associated with monarchies and in later years socialist states The support these regimes gave to intellectuals was understood to come with a cost yet beginning with the New Deal's Federal Writers Art and Theater Projects a new policy consensus asserted that by offering financial support to the arts the federal government was affirming their importance to the nation Subsidizing Culture examines the development of and controversies surrounding federal programs that directly benefit writers artists and intellectuals James T Bennett examines four cases of such support the New Deal's Federal Writers Art and Theater Projects the vigorous promotion in the post World War II and early Cold War eras of abstract expressionism and other forms of modern art by the US government the National Endowment for the Arts NEA which has fortified its position as the preeminent arts bureaucracy and the National Endowment for the Humanities the NEA's less embattled twin which funnels monies to scholars Bennett concentrates on the creation of and the debate over these government programs and he gives special attention to the critics who are usually ignored He reminds us that the chorus of anti subsidy voices over the years has included such disparate figures as writers William Faulkner and John Updike artists John Sloan and Wheeler Williams and social critics Jacques Barzun and H L Mencken The Economics of Art and Culture James Heilbrun, Charles M. Gray, 2001-04-23 The 2001 second edition of this survey of the economics of and public policy towards the fine arts and performing arts covers arts at federal state and local levels in the United States as well as the international arts sector The work will interest academic readers in the field and scholars of the sociology of the arts as well as general readers seeking a systematic analysis of the arts Theoretical concepts are developed from scratch so that readers with no background in economics can follow the argument The authors look at the arts historical growth and then examine consumption and production of the live performing arts and the fine arts the functioning of arts markets the financial problems of performing arts companies and museums and the key role of public policy A final chapter speculates about the future of art and culture in the United States Ethics and Cultural Policy in a Global Economy Sarah Owen Vandersluis, 2003-10-16 Sarah Owen Vandersluis critically examines approaches to cultural policy within the global economy This study taps into the growing debate on ethical theory and International Political Economy It challenges the normative positions of nationalists and welfare economists before developing an alternative communitarian ethics for cultural policy in a global economy The study concludes with an examination of the practical implications of this ethics in several case studies Department of the Interior and Related Agencies Appropriations for 1979 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on Department of the Interior and Related Agencies, 1978 New Writing Scholarship Graeme Harper, 2025-02-12 This book provides engaging insights into the evolution and scope of the critical study of creative writing The wide range of chapters included reveals analyzes done as the field of Creative Writing Studies

further emerged and grew across the world The book explores investigative methods and pedagogical thinking that has excitingly shaped and is shaping the critical and practice led study of creative writing particularly in higher education This volume is relevant for both students and scholars interested in creative writing particularly those who are interested in creative writing teaching and learning The chapters in the book were originally published as articles and editorials in the New Writing journal and are accompanied by a new Introduction and Conclusion and a Foreword by well known Creative Writing Studies scholar Dianne Donnelly

City Taxes, City Spending Amy Ellen Schwartz, 2004-01-01 An illustrious group of economists contribute to this volume honoring Dick Netzer the public finance economist well known for his research on state and local taxation the provision of urban public services and non profit organizations Following in his tradition the contributors apply microeconomics to real world problems facing urban areas and use statistical analysis to gain insight into practical solutions

The Passion for Music: A Sociology of Mediation Antoine Hennion, 2017-07-05 Music is an accumulation of mediators instruments languages sheets performers scenes media and so on There is no musical object in itself music must always be made again In this innovative book Hennion turns the elusiveness of music into a resource for a pragmatic analysis by which collective process do we make music appear among us Rather than offering a sociology of music The Passion for Music listens to the lesson provided by the case of music this art of infinite mediations Learning from music allows us to transform the paradigm to be offered by sociology by confronting it from Durkheim and Weber to Bourdieu with a different way of considering objects For this task Hennion draws on aesthetics Adorno and art history Haskell Baxandall as well as science and technology studies and popular music studies Latour Frith DeNora As part of that project The Passion for Music presents a wide ranging series of case studies restoring attention to the rich and varied intermediaries through which music is brought to life from the debate around the reinterpretation of baroque music to the classroom the rock scene the classical music concert Bach's social career in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries and the practices of music amateurs today This is the first English translation of one of the most important works of French scholarship on music and society
