Substance Abuse Treatment and Domestic Violence Patricia Anne Fazzone, John Kingsley Holton, Beth Glover Reed, 2001
Provides useful info on the role of substance abuse in domestic violence Useful techniques for detecting and eliciting such info are supplied along with ways to modify treatment to ensure victims safety and to stop the cycle of violence Legal issues including duty to warn and confidentiality are discussed A blueprint is provided for a more integrated system of care that would enhance treatment for both problems including suggestions for establishing linkages both between substance abuse treatment providers and domestic violence support workers and with legal health care criminal justice and other agencies

Substance Abuse Among Older Adults... Treatment Improvement Protocol (TIP) Series... 26... U.S. Department Of Health & Human Services ,1998

Substance Use Disorder Treatment for People With Co-Occurring Disorders (Treatment Improvement Protocol) TIP 42 (Updated March 2020) U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, 2020-04-04 This Treatment Improvement Protocol TIP update is intended to provide addiction counselors and other providers supervisors and administrators with the latest science in the screening assessment diagnosis and management of co occurring disorders CODs For purposes of this TIP CODs refer to co occurring substance use disorders SUDs and mental disorders Clients with CODs have one or more disorders relating to the use of alcohol or other substances with misuse potential as well as one or more mental disorders A diagnosis of CODs occurs when at least one disorder of each type can be established independent of the other and is not simply a cluster of symptoms resulting from the one disorder Many may think of the typical person with CODs as having a serious mental illness SMI combined with a severe SUD such as schizophrenia combined with alcohol use disorder AUD Integrating Substance Abuse Treatment and Vocational Services Nancy K. Young, 2006

TIP 52: Clinical Supervision and Professional Development of the Substance Abuse Counselor U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, 2019-11-23 This Treatment Improvement Protocol TIP is a companion to TIP 51 Substance Abuse Treatment Addressing the Specific Needs of Women These two volumes look at how gender specific treatment strategies can improve outcomes for men and women respectively The physical psychological social and spiritual effects of substance use and abuse on men can be quite different from the effects on women and those differences have implications for treatment in behavioral health settings Men are also affected by social and cultural forces in different ways than women and physical differences between the genders influence substance use and recovery as well This TIP Addressing the Specific Behavioral Health Needs of Men addresses these distinctions It provides practical information based on available evidence and clinical experience that can help counselors more effectively treatment with substance use disorders

Psychological Aspects of Women's Health Care Nada L. Stotland, Donna E. Stewart, 2008-11-01 In the decade since the first edition of this work was published an incredible array of reproductive technologies and associated issues has emerged Obstetricians and gynecologists are hard pressed to deal with the startling breadth and depth of these issues which require mastery over a daunting combination of ever increasing scientific knowledge technical skills long hours legal liability and exposure to clinical situations of overwhelming emotional intensity Psychiatrists have a vital role to play in helping obstetricians and gynecologists cope with a host of problems whose resolutions require not just technical skill but also knowledge of biology psychology sociology anthropology ethics and law For example to design and implement strategies to reduce the transmission of HIV psychiatrists could work with public health workers to incorporate the psychology sociology and anthropology of female reproductive behavior Psychiatrists could likewise improve the diagnosis and treatment of breast and pelvic malignancies by elucidating the factors that deter women from self examination and regular medical screening and enhance treatment compliance Divided into three sections this clinical and theoretical sourcebook addresses every major area of contemporary concern Pregnancy covers topics from the psychology of normal gestation to physical and psychiatric complications during and after pregnancy including new prenatal diagnostic techniques and the dynamic issues that emerge when abnormalities are detected and the use of psychotropic drugs and electroconvulsive therapy in pregnant and lactating patients Gynecology discusses not only common gynecologic problems but also more controversial issues such as induced abortion and the new reproductive technologies including the role of the menstrual cycle in exacerbating and precipitating psychological symptoms the psychiatric aspects of menopause the assessment and management of chronic pelvic pain the psychosocial concomitants of gynecologic malignancies and the emotional demands on the oncology team and the special implications of HIV AIDS General Issues offers a broad balanced view of topics rarely found in the literature such as men s reactions to women s reproductive events substance abuse and eating disorders sexual and physical abuse often part of the histories of patients with personality disorders and posttraumatic stress disorders ethical and legal issues and health care for lesbian patients Of special significance is Dr Stotland s chapter on how consultation liaison services are provided to obstetrics and gynecology services This practical and scholarly volume is exceptionally useful as a teaching reference for medical and other health care students and residents in psychiatry and obstetrics and gynecology It also provides a valuable resource for the clinician working to improve the psychological well being of women patients

Abuse Treatment for Women Offenders Patricia Kassebaum, 1999 Substance Abuse: Administrative Issues in Outpatient Treatment (TIP 46) U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, 2019-11-23

The primary audience for this TIP is administrators of outpatient substance abuse treatment programs. A few words about this audience are in order. Whereas TIP 8 addressed intensive outpatient treatment, the current TIP drops the word intensive from its title because the consensus panel hopes that this TIP will find an audience beyond administrators of IOT programs. Most of the concepts and guidelines included in this TIP apply to the administration of all substance abuse outpatient treatment OT programs. On those rare occasions when information applies only to IOT programs, the authors have been sure to make this clear. Although the term administrator is used most often to describe the audience for this book, the terms executive and director appear as well and are used interchangeably with administrator. These overlapping terms emphasize the varied roles and responsibilities that administrators assume.
