The Management of Correctional Institutions Marilyn D. McShane, Franklin P. Williams, 1993 Section 1 pages 1 to 68 presents an overview of the literature on prison management and the results of a national survey of wardens which enquired into actual management styles problem solving techniques and decision making approaches The national survey aimed to determine how much the literature reflected the wardens management practices Findings showed that corrections management largely reflects the literature in that it has inconsistencies an emphasis on personnel experience and an inward focus These results were used to develop a perspective focusing on a humane and caring relationship between manager and staff Section 2 pages 72 to 301 contains abstracts of the 100 most important works both essay and research on correctional institution management The Directory for Performance Improvement Dennis J. Kravetz, 1989 Every manager knows the value of having a competent work force versus one that is just average but few know how to encourage the employees to build these valuable competencies on an ongoing basis This book will help It provides day to day activities that build competencies and have been proven to work These practical skill building activities will benefit any level of employee The focus of the book is on bottom line performance improvement and change There are no abstract discussions just practical suggestions that can be put into practice immediately Managers will also find that this book is an invaluable self development tool for improving their own managerial competence IRS Printed Product Catalog United States.
