Program Evaluation Kenneth J. Linfield, Emil J. Posavac, 2018-09-03 This text provides a solid foundation in program evaluation covering the main components of evaluating agencies and their programs how best to address those components and the procedures to follow when conducting evaluations Different models and approaches are paired with practical techniques such as how to plan an interview to collect qualitative data and how to use statistical analyses to report results In every chapter case studies provide real world examples of evaluations broken down into the main elements of program evaluation the needs that led to the program the implementation of program plans the people connected to the program unexpected side effects the role of evaluators in improving programs the results and the factors behind the results In addition the story of one of the evaluators involved in each case study is presented to show the human side of evaluation This new edition also offers enhanced and expanded case studies making them a central organizing theme and adds more international examples New online resources for this edition include a table of evaluation models examples of program evaluation reports sample handouts for presentations to stakeholders links to YouTube videos and additional annotated resources All resources are available for download under the tab eResources at www.routledge.com 9781138103962

Practical Evaluation for Collaborative Services James R. Veale, Raymond E. Morley, Cynthia L. Erickson, 2002 Foreword by Joy Dryfoos The title says it well This practical work offers a guiding framework for evaluating a school linked services initiative delineates specific steps and includes a host of useful tools that have been field tested Anyone planning such an evaluation will find this a major resource aid Howard Adelman School Mental Health Project Center for Mental Health in the Schools UCLA Los Angeles CA A very good resource for those in collaborative services who are new to evaluation The authors break down the sometimes complex and intimidating process of evaluation into manageable action steps and show how evaluation can be used to both improve accountability and foster organizational learning Karen Horsch Research Associate Harvard Family Research Project Cambridge MA Specific evaluation instruments you can start using now Do collaborative services between schools and community service agencies really work What are realistic goals and how can they be achieved The pressure to build and use reliable tools to assess collaborative services is growing but there s no reason to start from scratch when creating the processes and procedures you need Here are time tested instruments you need to evaluate the success of collaborative services already developed and in use in large and small communities and presented in a format that your school and district can immediately adapt and put into practice Subjects include Monitoring and gathering outcome data Assessing student risk Assessing program implementation and customer satisfaction Assessing program results using qualitative and quantitative data as well as specific surveys for elementary middle and high schools surveys for parents at different levels examples of data collection formats and much more It is the comprehensive resource you need ready for you to use right now Building Healthy Individuals, Families, and Communities Ted N. Strader, David A. Collins, Tim D. Noe, 2012-12-06 Youth have nearly always exhibited behaviors that frustrate adults It can be difficult to understand why young people engage in risky or destructive behavior and it is challenging to develop strategies to encourage more healthy and responsible behavior among our youth However it is helpful to realize that despite the fact that large numbers of youth engage in frightful and destructive behaviors for periods of time during adolescence and early adulthood a large proportion of youth find a way not only to survive but also to bounce back and contribute significantly to the furtherance of human development We are not the first generation of adults to experience the pain fear and frustration of dealing with our youth More important we recognize that we are not helpless when faced with the problems youth experience While it is true that adolescents have always exhibited problem behaviors a number of effective tools and approaches have always been at our disposal to assist with appropriate youth development Of course the most effective approaches require a tremendous amount of focused time and energy

Family Life Education Stephen F. Duncan, H. Wallace Goddard, 2016-04-20 A practical how to guide to developing implementing evaluating and sustaining effective family life education programs Drawing on the best scholarship and their own years of professional experience the authors of this thoroughly updated Third Edition begin by discussing the foundations of family life education and encourage readers to develop their own outreach philosophies The book then helps readers learn principles and methods for reaching out to the public and how to form and use community collaborations and use principles of social marketing to promote programs

Qualitative Research & Evaluation Methods Michael Quinn Patton, 2002 In Unstable and Brittle Diabetes Geoff Gill brings together research on the management of brittle diabetes or erratic glucose control which is a controversial area in terms of definition and management and one that creates much debate among diabetologists This monograph aims to help the diabetologist understand this troublesome condition
