Successful Arbitration Experience In The Preparation And Presentation Of Arbitration Cases:

Case Preparation and Presentation: A Guide for Arbitration Advocates and Arbitrators Jay E. Grenig, Rocco M. Scanza, 2013-06-01 A Publication of the American Arbitration Association and the Scheinman Institute on Conflict Resolution Cornell University Arbitration advocates uniformly place great emphasis on case preparation Case Preparation and Presentation A Guide for Arbitration Advocates and Arbitrators can be used to help prepare parties and their advocates in a wide range of arbitration cases including labor employment and commercial arbitrations and will provide lawyers and non lawyers alike with the focus and direction to maximize their chances of obtaining a good result in arbitration In this book readers will find coverage on the following topics Developing a case theory and case theme Commencing the arbitration process Selecting an arbitrator and scheduling the hearing Evaluating and presenting evidence Preparing for the arbitration hearing Conducting the arbitration hearing Making and responding to objections Examination and cross examination of witnesses

Maritime Skills on Vessels & Shore - The STCW Convention's Relevance & Recommendations Dr. (Capt.) Vivek Jain, 2023-07-11 This Book is of the seafarers by the seafarers for the seafarers Seafarers are the core of all maritime trade and their expectations perspectives alone should be at the centre of all solutions for maritime skills Taking this standpoint the editor has explored the issues of maritime skills with critical gaps following a framework of research methodology The issue of critical gaps in maritime skills is further exacerbated due to the impact on seafarers caused by changes in the ecosystem status relationship with stakeholders technology focus on renewable energy anxiety levels and so forth Furthermore stakeholders can no longer ignore the fact that seafarers are leaving a seagoing career after working for only a few years Therefore the editor has also explored the need to prepare seafarers for transition into maritime shore jobs to preserve their maritime skills within the maritime industry This exhaustive book can be used as a guide for further revisions or a revamp of the current STCW Convention The editor thereafter divided the researched critical gaps in maritime skills into four groups Jain's Model for Maritime Skills Panoptic Social Intelligence Upskilling Reskilling for onboard vessels skills and Portable Skills for future shore jobs Panoptic and Social Skills are core skills required for both on board vessels as well for maritime shore jobs Thereafter the editor embarked on a voyage to discover persuade collaborate with a number of exceptionally experienced subject matter experts over many months to collaboratively pursue many mini research projects across all selected maritime skills adopting specific methodology to plug these critical gaps These experts were drawn 1 from countries such as India the Philippines Romania South Korea Malaysia UAE the UK and Singapore 2 from both genders 3 from deck engine professionals settled ashore 4 with current experience in the industry and or at sea at a fundamental level and 5 from seafaring supplying nations recognising experiencing the relevant socio economic circumstances of seafarers From this book seafarers will not only find ideas on how to plug gaps in their maritime skills but also how they can transition with their existing skills to other maritime jobs such as marine superintendents marine managers designated persons ashore

managers supervising new build second hand vessels IT managers in the maritime domain marine surveyors marine experts investigators marine pilots in ports maritime arbitrators managers in shipyards and so forth The solutions in this book will also resolve the issue of the shortage and retention of seafarers Guide to Advocacy Stephen Jagusch,2017-11-03 Global Arbitration Review s Guide to Advocacy is a practical book for specialists and would be specialists on how to be persuasive during international arbitration featuring unique insight from well known arbitrators on advocacy The fully revised Second Edition is a useful tool for junior lawyers who wish to develop their advocacy skills as well as a manual for civil trained lawyers who would like to feel more at ease with cross examination as it breaks the arbitral process into key steps and explains the advocacy opportunity that each represents focusing on the principles at work rather than specifics Woven throughout are gems from big name arbitrators tips complaints musings and reminiscences providing a new 360 degree view of written and oral submissions The Second Edition contains several new chapters and a fresh tranche of arbitrator contributions While the first edition covers the basics through chapters on inter alia written submissions cross examination opening submissions and closing arguments this second edition delves deeper by exploring Cultural Considerations in Advocacy These are aimed at advocates raised within a particular national or regional style who wish to know what adjustments to make when in the international milieu and vice versa These chapters contain observations of help when some of the players in the arbitration be they arbitrators opponents or others hale from Asia Latin America United States or the UK
