Mapes Dodge,1919 Animal Friendships Anne Innis Dagg,2011-09-01 Research into social behaviour in animals has often focused on aggression yet members of social species are far more likely to interact with each other in a positive way Animal Friendships explores non sexual bonding behaviours in a range of mammalian and avian species Through analysis of factors which trigger and deepen friendships Dagg uncovers a world of intricate and complex social interactions These factors include sources of food formation of coalitions playdates for infants mutual grooming and the apparent pleasure of simple companionship Chapters cover different types of friendship from those between two individuals such as male female or parent offspring friendships to those within family groups and even inter species friendships Not only does the book explore how and why friendships form it also showcases the ingenious field techniques used by researchers enabling the reader to understand the scientific methodology An invaluable read for both researchers and students studying animal social bonding

Front Porch Sketches Brenda Bond,2012-08-02 Back when Brenda Bond was growing up in the 1950s life was as simple as Kool Aid In Front Porch Sketches she reminisces about what life was like in Cyrus Creek a small rural community near Barboursville West Virginia In this memoir Bond shares stories from her idyllic childhood about the close knit community her loving family the joy of country living the value of church and the experiences of attending a small school She tells of the magical summer evenings on her grandparents front porch where the family gathered to laugh and visit and of the grandfather who knew a real witch who put curses on things she couldnt have Front Porch Sketches paints a portrait of a simple life in simpler times It shows that the most important things in life honesty hard work and common sense cannot be purchased but can be passed through families along with their traditions and their values
