concentration of permanent presidential government Though post Soviet Central Asia has also known monarchical presidencies Owen argues that a significant reason is the Arab demonstration effect whereby close ties across the Arab world have enabled ruling families to share management strategies and assistance But this effect also explains why these presidencies all came under the same pressure to reform or go Owen discusses the huge popular opposition the presidential systems engendered during the Arab Spring and the political change that ensued while also delineating the challenges the Arab revolutions face across the Middle East and North Africa
