Hugh Gerard Evelyn-White

The Monastery:

The Balkans and the Byzantine World before and after the Captures of Constantinople, 1204 and 1453 Vlada Stankovic, 2016-06-15 This book represents the first attempt to analyze historical and cultural developments in late medieval and early modern southeastern Europe as a set of mutually intertwined regional histories burdened by the strong dichotomy between the almighty center Constantinople and the periphery that is rarely visible in both contemporary sources and modern scholarship This mosaic of original studies is devoted to various regions of the Byzantine Balkans and their historical artistic and ideological idiosyncrasies mirroring the complex character and composite and fragmented structure of this vast region The focal points of the book are the two captures of Constantinople in 1204 and 1453 and the contributors analyze the significance of these catastrophic events on the political destiny of medieval Balkan societies the mechanisms of adapting to the new political order and the ever present interconnectedness of a lower regional elite across southeastern Europe that had remained strong even after the Ottoman conquest

The Chronicle of Pseudo-Zachariah Rhetor Pseudo-Zachariah Rhetor, Zacharias (Bishop of Mytilene.), Geoffrey Greatrex, 2011-01-01 Among the most important sources for the history of the church from the Council of Chalcedon in 451 to the early years of the reign of Justinian is the chronicle attributed to Zachariah of Mytilene Though Zachariah s Ecclesiastical History was just one of a range of sources cited by this later compiler so great was its influence that the resultant text bears his name The chronicle covers both church and secular affairs and includes a wealth of important information about the fifth and sixth centuries including a history of theological controversies a catalog of the world s regions based on Ptolemy s Geography and many
