The Morality Of Spiritualism:

The Ethics of Spiritualism Hudson Tuttle, 1878 The Ethics of Spiritualism Hudson Tuttle, 2018-07-27 Excerpt from The Ethics of Spiritualism A System of Moral Philosophy Founded on Evolution and the Continuity of Man's Existence Beyond the Grave Along this causeway have been waged the mighty battles of the ages fought over again in the life of every individual It is the war between the animal side of man's nature and the spiritual As the race has unfolded gathering higher and clearer perceptions of right truth and justice age after age the gain has been on the side of the spiritual As in the individual the brute forces of the desires have been coordinated With the moral and spiritual perceptions Because of this evolution is there conflict between the two sides of man's nature Because he is an animal physically is there war between his physical and his spiritual tendencies To harmonize this apparent anomaly by which the aspirations of an angel are linked with the passions of a devil has been the primary object of all systems of theology The existence of these spiritual aspirations indicated the innate purity of the spirit and its primal perfection That it was in fact so prone to yield to the ungoverned selfishness and lust of brutes indicated a fallen and depraved state The dogmas growing out of this erroneous view were also dependent on equally false ideas of God A perfect infinite and good God would not create an imperfect man His creation would be in his own image Man was far from perfect His imperfection was the result of sin and wickedness As his Creator does not wish him to sin he sins from choice His free agency shifts the burden of responsibility from God to himself Created perfect he has sinned by choice and became depraved through and by means of his own wickedness He has corrupted himself To escape the infinite consequences he must have faith in a verbal revelation and a certain scheme of redemption Immortality is not the result of immutable laws and has no relation to the constitution of things Men reared in this belief when they cast it aside are often unbalanced About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The Moral Life and Religion James Ten Broeke, 1922 The Morality of Religion, 1737 Morality and Spirituality in the Contemporary World Chandana Chakrabarti, 2012-12-07 The contemporary world faces a number of problems that are both deep seated and interrelated since they arise from the very nature of technological society The environment upon which all life depends is seriously threatened by climate change rising sea levels pollution overpopulation resource depletion and increased risks of droughts forest fires floods and other extreme weather events Environmental degradation is intimately connected to the consumer lifestyle of developed countries This lifestyle promotes materialism entertainment and hedonistic superficiality that ultimately lead to moral corruption Our insensitive and destructive attitude towards nature is not isolated or unrelated to other problems of social justice The environmental crisis reflects human structures of domination that include political and economic exploitation racism sexism and ageism These challenges are immense and solutions to them will require a renewed dedication to moral reflection and a commitment to social justice This book discusses the challenges in connection with topics such as human rights economic exploitation and inequality environmental protection globalization global food justice technology gender equality and ageism It provides a plurality of moral and spiritual perspectives including Hinduism Buddhism Daoism and Christianity that offer guidance in finding responses that are both possible and reasonable The
