The Mountain Douglas Hey,1994-01-01 'An Entirely Different World': Russian Visitors to the Cape 1797-1870

Boris Gorelik,2015-11-01 The Russian view of the Cape as represented in this volume may be unique During the period in question Russia had no cultural political or economic ties with South Africa Russians saw the Cape only as a convenient stopover en route to the Far East to their country's distant domains that could not be reached by sea otherwise The Cape was one of the exotic lands they would visit on such journeys their first and only introduction to the African continent Although amazed and perplexed by the entirely different world they found here Russian travellers would often draw unexpected parallels between life in their motherland and the realities of the Cape Colony The selections include memoirs of such important Russian personalities as Yuri Lisiansky Vasily Golovnin Ivan Goncharov and Konstantin Posyet Most of the texts appear in English for the first time Wildlife of the Cape Peninsula Duncan Butchart,2001 A compact guide to the mammals birds reptiles frogs fishes insects trees and grasses of the Cape peninsula at the South Western tip of South Africa Each of more 300 species entries is accompanied by a full colour photograph Wild about Cape Town Duncan Butchart,1996 This text is part of a series of all in one field guides to the common plants and animals of specific regions Over 300 species descriptions and information on the geology climate and habitats specific to each area are contained in each guide Tips on watching and identifying wildlife aim to make it easier for readers to identify the birds animals snakes and other reptiles frogs fishes insects and plants on their doorstep whether in the wild or in the city or suburb Each species account is illustrated with colour photographs and habitat symbols link each species to its preferred habitat Sixth
