

THE MOUSE AND HIS CHILD

"A splendid book! It operates on several levels; it can be read as a simple adventure story, packed with incident. But there is also a wry, dry wit for those who are ready for it. And beneath the book's bright busy surface lie philosophical and psychological depths. It's an extremely rich...deeply human story. This is a book that can be returned to many times at many ages, and there will always be something new to be found in it."

— JOHN ROWE TOWNSEND, critic, The Horn Book

"I'm thrilled to hear this news! This is one of Russell Hoban's most accessible stories, loved by children and adults, who each get something a little different from it. Can't wait to see this classic available again!"

— MARTHA JACKSON, bookseller, A Clean Well-Lighted Place for Books

"I'm delighted to find out that you've arranged to publish a new edition of The Mouse and His Child. The children of today will discover this amazing novel and even tell each other about it."

— GINNY MOORE KRUSE, librarian, The Cooperative Children's Book Center

"As a feminist, I find it one of the few books about males, about father/son relationships, about both addressing and transcending life's gifts and exigencies, that speaks to gentleness and toughness at once, all embedded in a fantasy of powerful emotional reality."

— DONNA BARKMAN, teacher, Bank Street College of Education

"This is a magical book; it's funny, touching, and often profound."

— NORTON JUSTER, author of The Phantom Tollbooth
