The Murder Of The Jews In Latvia 1941 1945:

The Murder of the Jews in Latvia Bernhard Press,2000 A challenging account of the systematic and brutal slaughter of Jews in Latvia during the Second World War Extermination of the Jews in Latvia, 1941-1945 ,2008 The History of the Baltic States Kevin C. O'Connor,2015-06-04 Updating the popular 2003 first edition this book is a narrative history of the Baltic States with particular focus on the events of the 20th and 21st centuries The Baltic States Estonia Latvia and Lithuania were granted independence from the Soviet Union in 1991 Since then the three countries have struggled with sluggish economies tensions with Russia and government corruption This extensively updated second edition of a well regarded reference illuminates the events of the last decade including the acceptance of all three nations into the European Union in 2004 Although it concentrates on the 20th and 21st centuries the wide ranging work covers major historical currents that have swept through Europe from the age of the Crusades through two world wars and into modern times Updates include events that have occurred since 2003 such as the area s declining birth rates and inflation problems that led to the European Union denying the adoption of the Euro in Lithuania A new chapter entitled The Totalitarian Experience 1940 1953 focuses specifically on the major tragedies of the 20th century the Baltic States loss of independence their conquest by Nazi Germany the Holocaust and the horrors of the first years of Soviet rule Historical controversies concerning World War II and the Soviet era are also addressed Additionally the Notable Figures section has been updated the bibliography now includes many electronic resources and photographs have been added My Mother's Wars Lillian Faderman,2015-07-14 An acclaimed writer on her mother s tumultuous life as a Jewish immigrant in 1930s New York and her life long guilt when the Holocaust claims the family she left behind in Latvia A story of love war and life as a Jewish immigrant in the squalid factories and lively dance halls of New York s Garment District in the 1930s My Mother's Wars is the memoir Lillian Faderman s mother was never able to write The daughter delves into her mother s past to tell the story of a Latvian girl who left her village for America with dreams of a life on the stage and encountered the realities of her new world the battles she was forced to fight as a woman an immigrant worker and a Jew with family left behind in Hitler s deadly path The story begins in 1914 Mary the girl who will become Lillian Faderman s mother just seventeen and swept up with vague ambitions to be a dancer travels alone to America where her half sister in Brooklyn takes her in She finds a job in the garment industry and a shop friend who teaches her the thrills of dance halls and the cheap amusements open to working class girls This dazzling life leaves Mary distracted and her half sister and brother in law scandalized that she has become a good time gal They kick her out of their home an event with consequences Mary will regret for the rest of her life Eighteen years later still barely scraping by as a garment worker and unmarried at thirty five Mary falls madly in love and has a torrid romance with a man who will never marry her but who will father Lillian Faderman before he disappears from their lives America is in the midst of the Depression Hitler is coming to power in Europe and New York s garment workers are just beginning to unionize Mary makes tentative steps to join despite her lover's angry opposition As National Socialism engulfs Europe Mary realizes she must find a way to get her family out of Latvia and she spends frenetic months chasing vague promises and false rumors of hope Pregnant again after having submitted to two wrenching back room abortions and still unmarried Mary faces both single motherhood and the devastating possibility of losing her entire Eastern European family Drawing on family stories and documents as well as her own tireless research Lillian Faderman has reconstructed an engrossing and essential chapter in the history of women of workers of Jews and of the Holocaust as immigrants experienced it from American shores

Empire of Destruction Alex J. Kay, 2021-09-28 The first comparative comprehensive history of Nazi mass killing showing how genocidal policies were crucial to the regime's strategy to win the war Nazi Germany killed approximately 13 million civilians and other non combatants in deliberate policies of mass murder mostly during the war years Almost half the victims were Jewish systematically destroyed in the Holocaust the core of the Nazis pan European racial purification programme Alex Kay argues that the genocide of European Jewry can be examined in the wider context of Nazi mass killing For the first time Empire of Destruction considers Europe's Jews alongside all the other major victim groups captive Red Army soldiers the Soviet urban population unarmed civilian victims of preventive terror and reprisals the mentally and physically disabled the European Roma and the Polish intelligentsia Kay shows how each of these groups was regarded by the Nazi regime as a potential threat to Germany's ability to successfully wage a war for hegemony in Europe Combining the full quantitative scale of the killings with the individual horror this is a vital and groundbreaking work Final Solution

David Cesarani, 2016-11-08 This groundbreaking history of the Holocaust presents a brilliant synthesis and interpretation of the greatest crime of the modern era harrowing and extraordinary The Times UK David Cesarani's Final Solution is a magisterial work of history that chronicles the fate of Europe's Jews during and directly after World War II Based on decades of scholarship documentation newly available from the opening of Soviet archives declassification of Western intelligence service records as well as diaries and reports written in the camps Cesarani provides a sweeping reappraisal that challenges accepted explanations for the anti Jewish politics of Nazi Germany and the inevitability of the final solution The persecution of the Jews as Cesarani demonstrates was not always the Nazis central preoccupation nor was it inevitable Instead it unfolded erratically in German occupied countries often due to local initiatives Military failures created a crisis of resources that led to the starvation of the ghettos and intensified anti Jewish measures Cesarani also disputes the iconic role of railways and deportation trains and exposes the extent of sexual violence and abuse of Jewish women In bracingly vivid prose Final Solution captures the experience of a heroic people caught in the hell that was Hitler's Germany Mass Violence in

Nazi-Occupied Europe Alex J. Kay, David Stahel, 2021-12-22 This scholarly anthology explores the violence perpetrated by Nazi Germany shedding new light on its staggering scale and scope Mass Violence in Nazi Occupied Europe argues for a more comprehensive understanding of what constitutes Nazi violence and who was affected by this violence The works gathered consider sexual violence food depravation and forced labor as aspects of Nazi aggression Contributors focus in particular on the Holocaust the persecution of the Sinti and Roma the eradication of useless eaters psychiatric patients and Soviet prisoners of war and the crimes of the Wehrmacht The collection concludes with a consideration of memorialization and a comparison of Soviet and Nazi mass crimes After Memory Matthias Schwartz,Nina Weller,Heike Winkel,2021-06-08 Even seventy five years after the end of World War II the commemorative cultures surrounding the War and the Holocaust in Central Eastern and South Eastern Europe are anything but fixed The fierce debates on how to deal with the past among the newly constituted nation states in these regions have already received much attention by scholars in cultural and memory studies The present volume posits that literature as a medium can help us understand the shifting attitudes towards World War II and the Holocaust in post Communist Europe in recent years These shifts point to new commemorative cultures shaping up after memory Contemporary literary representations of World War II and the Holocaust in Eastern Europe do not merely extend or replace older practices of remembrance and testimony but reflect on these now defunct or superseded narratives New narratives of remembrance are conditioned by a fundamentally new social and political context one that emerged from the devaluation of socialist commemorative rituals and as a response to the loss of private and family memory narratives The volume offers insights into the diverse literatures of Eastern Europe and their ways of depicting the area s contested heritage Child of a Turbulent Century Victor Erlich,2006-08-22 Victor Erlich was born in 1914 at the threshold of what the great Russian poet Anna Akhmatova called the real twentieth century in Petrograd a place indelibly marked by that century s violent dislocations and upheavals His story begun on the eve of the First World War and taking him through Russia Poland Lithuania Germany and the U S Army is in many ways a memoir of that real twentieth century reflecting its lethal nature and shaped by the fearful symmetry of the age of totalitarianism To read about Erlich s life growing up at the intersection of the century s darkest currents is to experience history firsthand from the Russian Revolution to the end of the Second World War and to know what it truly is to be a child of the century Throughout despite the darkness even the horror of much of what he describes the author maintains the beguiling tone and the warm manner of one who has reached the new millennium with rare and hard won insight into the human comedy of his time And Yet I Still Have Dreams Joanna Wiszniewicz,2004-12-31 A brutally honest memoir of adolescence in the Warsaw ghetto and coming to terms with the memories years later
