Joan Mowat

The Motivated School:

The Motivated School Alan McLean, 2003 The Motivated School shows how important students motivational mindsets can be in influencing the way they learn Alan McLean brings together evidence from recent research shows how successful learning contexts can be created and provides real life suggestions for teachers working with disengaged learners

Building a Community of Self-Motivated Learners ,2015 Beyond a Growth Mindset School Chris Hildrew, 2025-11-04 Beyond a Growth Mindset School revisits Chris Hildrew's bestselling book examining the central tenets of mindset theory in light of new research and how they apply to schools today It explores the theories which underpin a growth mindset ethos and offers step by step guidance for school leaders to build an approach to teaching and learning that will encourage children to embrace challenges persist in the face of setback and see effort as the path to mastery The book isn't about quick fixes or miracle cures but an evidence based transformation of the way we think and talk about teaching leading and learning Drawing upon his own extensive experience and underpinned by the groundbreaking scholarship of Carol Dweck Angela Duckworth and others this fully updated new edition navigates the difficulties practicalities and opportunities presented by implementing a growth mindset as follows Forming a growth mindset curriculum Launching a growth mindset with staff Marking assessing and giving feedback with a growth mindset Growth mindset misconceptions and potential mistakes Family involvement with a growth mindset The impact of technology on attitudes and approaches to learning Keeping a growth mindset when the system is fixed Innovative and accessibly written this thoroughly researched guide shows how a growth mindset ethos benefits the whole school community from its students and teachers to parents and governors and is a valuable resource for all educational leaders and practitioners School Wars Melissa Benn, 2012-11-13 School Wars tells the story of the struggle for Britain's education system Established during the 1960s and based on the progressive ideal of good schools for all the comprehensive system has over the past decades come under sustained attack from successive governments Now with the growing inequalities of our current system the damaging impact of spending cuts the rise of free schools and the growth of the private sector in education the values embodied in the comprehensive ideal are under threat The situation is expertly anatomized by journalist and educational campaigner Melissa Benn who explores the dangerous example of US education reform where privatization punitive accountability and the rise of charter schools have intensified social economic and ethnic divisions The policies of successive British governments have been muddled and confused but one thing is clear that the relentless application of market principles signals a fundamental shift from the ideal of quality education as a public good to education as market controlled commodity Benn ends by outlining some key principles for restoring strong educational values within a fair non selective public education system The Death and Life of the Great American School System Diane Ravitch, 2010-03-02 Discusses how school choice misapplied standards of accountability the No Child Left Behind mandate and the use of a corporate model have all led to a decline in public education and presents arguments for a return to strong neighborhood schools and quality teaching School Wars: The Battle for Britain's Education Melissa Benn, 2011-11-21 No Marketing Blurb School Zone Pamela Wilcox, Graham C. Ousey, Marie Skubak Tillyer, 2022-05-20 This book combines offender victim and environmental perspectives to show how leading theories of crime are correctly and incorrectly applied to the school environment It also evaluates data on a range of crimes at school ranging from theft to violence to verbal and physical assault and evaluates prevention strategies The Motivated Student Robert A. Sullo, 2009 Research has shown time and again that the traditional reward punishment model does nothing to boost student achievement In The Motivated Student Unlocking the Enthusiasm for Learning veteran educator Bob Sullo suggests a different approach cultivating students inner drive to learn by addressing their essential psychological needs Drawing from in depth interviews with successful educators counselors and administrators and a careful analysis of the research on classroom motivation Sullo provides an indispensable blueprint for ensuring that students in grades 4 12 are engaged in the classroom He offers practical clear cut strategies for getting students focused and ready to learn by Eliminating external rewards for learning Building positive relationships with students Creating realistic expectations for your students Developing lesson plans that are relevant to students lives and Planning with students psychological needs in mind As every teacher knows students learn best when they actually want to learn Whether at the elementary or high school level this book will make you think about who your students really are and help you develop a culture of inquiry trust and engagement that will release each child s enthusiasm for learning Using Support Groups to Improve Behaviour Joan Mowat, 2007-12-03 Includes CD Rom Joan Mowat adapts ideas about understanding transfer of learning and theories of mind to help restless students deal better with their responsibilities toward others and themselves Professor David Perkins Graduate School of Education Harvard University Mowat provides a valuable and comprehensive guide to the setting up running and management of Support Groups as a whole school initiative This book would make an invaluable hand book for anybody in a pastoral leadership role who is interested in the organisation and setting up of support groups within a social setting TES Website Based on material that has been successfully tried and tested this book provides an example of a whole school approach to setting up and managing support groups to improve the behaviour of pupils with social emotional and behavioural difficulties Suitable for both primary and secondary schools the strategies in the book align with the aims of the new Primary National Strategy and Key Stage 3 Strategy on behaviour and attendance as well as the SEAL Social and Emotional Aspects of Learning curriculum the Scottish Curriculum for Excellence and Happy safe and achieving their potential the standard of support for children and young people in Scottish schools The book explains the aims of the support group approach and gives practical advice on planning for and setting up a support group involving parents in the process assessing pupils progress the role of the Support Group Leader evaluating the implementations of the approach how this approach supports new initiatives in behaviour attendance An accompanying CD contains everything necessary for implementing the approach outlined in the book along with resources to support staff development Teachers Staff Development Co ordinators LEA Behaviour Support Teams Teacher Educators Student Teachers Support for Learning and Pastoral Care Teachers will find this an excellent and useful resource Joan Mowat is Lecturer in Education at the University of Strathclyde She was previously a Deputy Headteacher in a secondary school working with pupils with social emotional and behavioural difficulties and a former National Development Officer for the Scottish initiative Better Behaviour Better Learning Joan offers CPD courses and consultancy to local authorities and schools and can be contacted at joan.mowat@strath.ac.uk
