The Myopic Mermaid:

The Myopic Mermaid Carter Brown, 1961 At the Mermaid Inn Wilfred Campbell, Archibald Lampman, Duncan Campbell Scott, 1979-12-15 The original At the Mermaid Inn one of the most notable literary endeavours in Canada was the result of the combined efforts of three poets Wilfred Campbell 1858 1918 Archibald Lampman 1861 99 and Duncan Campbell Scott 1862 1947 A Saturday column that ran in the Toronto Globe from 6 February 1892 until 1 July 1893 it covered a wide range of material original poetry and prose book and music reviews articles on philosophy politics poetics religion and writings on a myriad of other matters Critics have often referred to the column in general terms but until now it has been unavailable in book form for detailed study This careful transcription of the entire series offers a fresh perspective on three of the most important Canadian literary figures of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Here are three major Canadian poets as prose writers Lampman writes essays about nature and poetry Campbell provides controversial views on many subjects especially religion and poetry Scott writes book reviews and scholarly essays on music and a variety of Canadian matters At the Mermaid Inn gives a fascinating glimpse into the literary and social concerns of the day This volume brings to new light one of the most readable and vital documents in Canadian life and literature Mostly French Alistair Rolls, 2009 This book which was inspired by a conference on plural conjugations of Frenchness La France au pluriel held in 2007 at the Universities of Technology Sydney and Newcastle focuses on the concept of national belonging as it pertains to detective fiction with particular emphasis on French and Australian detective fictions and the encounter and crossing over between them The objective is not only to use the concepts of French and Australian detective fiction productively via the analysis of French and Australian detective fiction novels but also to challenge and undermine the very notion of national detective fictions which are so often assumed to be transparently meaningful The contributors to this volume focus variously on the following areas comparative analysis of the genesis of French and Australian detective fiction translation of Australian and other novels into French translation as a genre Frenchness as a stereotype its role in individual novels and its spectre in all detective fiction and readings of individual French and Australian detective novels Overall this book aims to challenge assumptions about French detective fiction its influence on other national fictions and its explicit and implicit presence in all detective fiction *Catalog of Copyright Entries.
