Sir John Betjeman A Bibliography Of Writings By And About Him:

Sir John Betjeman Margaret L. Stapleton, 1974 Sir John Betjeman Margaret L. Stapleton, 1974 John Betjeman William S. Peterson, 2006 Sir John Betjeman 1906-1984 Poet Laureate was probably the most widely read English poet of the twentieth century. Because of his frequent appearances on radio and television and his fervent devotion to the preservation of England's architectural heritage, his face and voice became familiar to millions. Few other poets of any century have had such a powerful influence on their contemporaries. This bibliography lists and describes all of his known writings, including his own books, ephemera, contributions to periodicals, and to books by others, lectures, and radio and television programmes. Other categories such as editorships, music settings, and dramatic adaptations of his poems, recordings, and interviews are also included, as well as a section devoted to writings about him. Manuscripts and drafts of all his works are described in detail. This enormous body of material is thoroughly indexed, cross-referenced, and in most cases annotated. Now at last the activities of this remarkable man, both a poet and a cultural phenomenon, can be seen in their full breadth and complexity. A Bibliography of British History, 1914-1989 Keith Robbins, American Historical Association, Royal Historical Society (Great Britain), 1996. Containing over 25,000 entries, this unique volume will be absolutely indispensable for all those with an interest in Britain in the twentieth century. Accessibly arranged by theme, with helpful introductions to each chapter, a huge range of topics is covered. There is a comprehensive index. Sir John Betjeman : a Bibliography Of writings by and about Him M. L. Stapleton, 1974 John Betjeman, His Life and Work Patrick Taylor-Martin, 1983 Biografie van de Engelse dichter geb. 1906, gevolgd door een bespreking van zijn werk Collected Books ALLEN OSB; AHEARN AHEARN (PATRICIA.), Patricia Ahearn, 2013-02. An introduction to and advice on book collecting, with a glossary of terms and tips on how to identify first editions and estimated values for over 20,000 collectible books published in English, including translations over the last three centuries; about half are literary titles in the broadest sense: novels, poetry, plays, mysteries, science fiction, and children's books, and the other half are non-fiction: Americana, travel, and exploration, finance, cookbooks, color plate, medicine, science, photography, Mormonism, sports, et al. Anti-Sport Sentiments in Literature John Bale, 2007-11-05. This book draws on literature, specifically on the writings of selected novelists and poets, to widen an existing anti-sport discourse to include hitherto excluded voices from the world of literature. The book commences with a review of existing pro and anti-sport discourses and then proceeds to examine in turn the written works of five eminent authors, excavating from their writings their anti-sports rhetorics. These writers are Lewis Carroll, Charles Dodgson, Charles Hamilton Sorley, Jerome K. Jerome, John Betjeman, and Alan Sillitoe. In its conclusion, the book draws together the broad themes discussed in the preceding chapters. Innovative in its approach to sport and literature and remarkable for its not having been previously explored in any depth, this book will be of interest to readers from both social sciences and humanities backgrounds. New Makers of Modern Culture Justin Wintle, 2016-04-22. New Makers of Modern Culture is the successor to the classic reference works Makers of Modern Culture and Makers of Nineteenth Century Culture published by Routledge in the early 1980s. The set was extremely successful and continues to be used to this day due to the high quality of the writing, the distinguished contributors, and the cultural sensitivity shown in the selection of those individuals included. New Makers of Modern Culture takes into full account the rise and fall of reputation and influence over the last twenty five years and the epochal changes that have occurred: the demise of Marxism and the collapse of the Soviet Union, the rise and fall of postmodernism, the eruption of Islamic fundamentalism, the triumph of the Internet. Containing over eight hundred essay style entries and covering the period from 1850 to the present, New Makers of Modern Culture includes artists, writers, dramatists, architects, philosophers, anthropologists, scientists, sociologists, major political figures, composers, film makers, and many other culturally significant individuals and is thoroughly international in its purview. Next to Karl Marx is Bob Marley; next to John Ruskin is Salman Rushdie; alongside Darwin is Luigi Dallapiccola; Deng Xiaoping runs shoulders with Jacques Derrida, as do Julia Kristeva and Kropotkin. Once again Wintle has enlisted the services of many distinguished writers and leading academics such as Sam Beer, Bernard Crick, Edward Seidensticker, and Paul Preston. In a few cases, for example Michael Holroyd and Philip Larkin, contributors are themselves the subject of entries. With its global reach, New Makers of Modern Culture provides a multi-voiced witness of the contemporary thinking world. The entries carry short bibliographies and there is thorough cross referencing. There is an index of names and key terms.

American Reference Books Annual Bohdan S. Wynar, 1976-1970 issued in 2 vols. v 1 General reference: social sciences, history, economics, business; v 2 Fine arts, humanities, science, and engineering.
