to present them in a condensed and readable form English man Calcutta Modern India And The Indians Being A Series Of Impressions Notes And Essays This edition will be found a great improvement on those that preceded it The author has taken care to avail himself of all such criticisms on particular passages in the previous editions as appeared to him to be just and he has enlarged the work by more than a hundred pages of additional matter In this volume we have the thoughtful impressions of a thoughtful man on some of the most important questions connected with our Indian Empire An enlightened observant man travelling among an enlightened observant people Professor Monier Williams has brought before the public in a pleasant form more of the manners and customs of the Queen s Indian subjects than we ever remember to have seen in any one work He not only deserves the thanks of every Englishman for this able contribution to the study of Modern India a subject with which we should be specially familiar but he deserves the thanks of every Indian Parsee or Hindu Buddhist and Moslem for his clear exposition of their manners their creeds and their necessities Times About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
