thrills they recover sense and sensation for all not some or even most depictions of bloodshed As figures the devices also remediate vision and violence for film theory which exhibits distrust for each in spite of the complexities phenomenology and psychoanalysis have brought to cinematic perception and pleasure

Transfigurations Asbjørn Grønstad, 2008 In many senses viewers have cut their teeth on the violence in American cinema from Anthony Perkins slashing Janet Leigh in the most infamous of shower scenes to the 1970s masterpieces of Martin Scorsese Sam Peckinpah and Francis Ford Coppola to our present day undertakings in imagining global annihilations through terrorism war and alien grudges Transfigurations brings our cultural obsession with film violence into a renewed dialogue with contemporary theory Gr nstad argues that the use of violence in Hollywood films should be understood semiotically rather than viewed realistically Tranfigurations thus alters both our methodology of reading violence in films and the meanings we assign to them depicting violence not as a self contained incident but as a convoluted network of our own cultural ideologies and beliefs
