The Writers Directory, 2013      The Publishers Weekly, 2006      The Wild Inside Christine Carbo, 2015-06-16 A haunting crime novel set in Glacier National Park about a man who finds himself at odds with the dark heart of the wild and the even darker heart of human nature It was a clear night in Glacier National Park Fourteen year old Ted Systead and his father were camping beneath the rugged peaks and starlit skies when something unimaginable happened a grizzly bear attacked Ted's father and dragged him to his death Now twenty years later as Special Agent for the Department of the Interior Ted gets called back to investigate a crime that mirrors the horror of that night Except this time the victim was tied to a tree before the mauling Ted teams up with one of the park officers a man named Monty whose pleasant exterior masks an all too vivid knowledge of the hazardous terrain surrounding them Residents of the area turn out to be suspicious of outsiders and less than forthcoming Their intimate connection to the wild forces them to confront nature and their fellow man with equal measures of reverence and ruthlessness As the case progresses with no clear answers more than human life is at stake including that of the majestic creature responsible for the attack Ted's search for the truth ends up leading him deeper into the wilderness than he ever imagined on the trail of a killer until he reaches a shocking and unexpected personal conclusion As intriguing and alluring as bestselling crime novels by C J Box Louise Penny and William Kent Krueger as atmospheric and evocative as the nature writing of John Krakauer and Cheryl Strayed The Wild Inside is a gripping debut novel about the perilous unforgiving intersection between man and nature      Mystery and Suspense Writers Robin W. Winks, 1998 This volume contains bio critical information on popular writers of the genre      Aftermath Terri Blackstock, 2021-05-11 New York Times bestselling suspense author Terri Blackstock explores complicated what if questions in this thriller What if you attended a concert with your best friends where a bomb exploded What if all the evidence made it appear that you were a terrorist but you knew you were innocent Three best friends attend a concert Only one makes it out alive When police stop Dustin Webb with a warrant to search his trunk he knows there's been a mistake He's former military and owns a security firm But he's horrified when the officers find explosives and he can't fathom how they got there Criminal attorney Jamie Powell was Dustin's best friend growing up They haven't spoken since he left for basic training but she's the first person he thinks of when he's arrested Jamie knows she's putting her career on the line by defending an accused terrorist but she'd never abandon him Someone is framing Dustin to take the fall for shocking acts of violence but why Aftermath takes off on the very first page and keeps you glued to the edge of your seat all the way until the end with a plot that keeps you guessing complex layers of friendship a relentless quest for justice the sting of betrayal and a second chance romance A solid mystery with a romantic undercurrent Subtle reminders of God's love are sprinkled throughout the story

WORLD Magazine Blackstock keeps the suspense high throughout Readers will have a tough time putting this nail biter down Publishers Weekly

The Mediated Mind Susan Zieger, 2018-06-05 How did we arrive at our contemporary consumer media economy Why are we now fixated on screens imbibing information that constantly expires and longing for more direct or authentic kinds of experience The Mediated Mind answers these questions by revisiting a previous media revolution the nineteenth century explosion of mass print Like our own smartphone screens printed paper and imprinted objects touched the most intimate regions of nineteenth century life The rise of this printed ephemera and its new information economy generated modern consumer experiences such as voracious collecting and curating fantasies of disembodied mental travel and information addiction Susan Zieger demonstrates how the nineteenth century established affective psychological social and cultural habits of media consumption that we still experience even as pixels supersede paper Revealing the history of our own moment The Mediated Mind challenges the commonplace assumption that our own new media lack a past or that our own experiences are unprecedented
