Stolen Lives:

Death in Custody Roger A. Mitchell Jr., Jay D. Aronson, 2023-09-05 The United States significantly undercounts the number of people who die in law enforcement custody each year How can we fix this Deaths resulting from interactions with the US criminal legal system are a public health emergency but the scope of this issue is intentionally ignored by the very systems that are supposed to be tracking these fatalities We don't know how many people die in custody each year whether in an encounter with police on the street during transport or while in jails prisons or detention centers In order to make a real difference and address this human rights problem researchers and policy makers need reliable data In Death in Custody Roger A Mitchell Jr MD and Jay D Aronson PhD share the stories of individuals who died in custody and chronicle the efforts of activists and journalists to uncover the true scope of deaths in custody From Ida B Wells's enumeration of extrajudicial lynchings more than a century ago to the Washington Post's current effort to count police shootings the work of journalists and independent groups has always been more reliable than the state's official reports Through historical analysis Mitchell and Aronson demonstrate how government at all levels has intentionally avoided reporting death in custody data Mitchell and Aronson outline a practical achievable system for accurately recording and investigating these deaths They argue for a straightforward public health solution adding a simple checkbox to the US Standard Death Certificate that would create an objective way of recording whether a death occurred in custody They also propose the development of national standards for investigating deaths in custody and the creation of independent regional and federal custodial death review panels These tangible solutions would allow us to see the full scope of the problem and give us the chance to truly address it

Revisionary Narratives Naïma Hachad, 2019 Revisionary Narratives examines the historical and formal evolutions of Moroccan women's auto biography in the last four decades particularly its conflation with testimony and its expansion beyond literary texts It analyzes auto biographical and testimonial acts in Arabic colloquial Moroccan Darija French and English in the fields of prison narratives visual arts theater performance and digital media situating them within specific sociopolitical and cultural contexts of production and consumption Part One begins by tracing the rise of a feminist consciousness in prison narratives produced and/or published in the late 1970s through the 2000s Part Two moves to analyzing the ubiquity of auto biography and testimony in the arts as well as contemporary sociopolitical activism The focus throughout the various case studies is women's engagement with patriarchal and neo imperial norms and practices as they relate to their experiences of political violence activism migration and displacement To understand why and how women collapse the boundaries between autobiography biography testimony and sociopolitical commentary the book employs a broad transdisciplinary montage approach that combines theories on gender and autobiography and takes into account postcolonial postmodern transnational transglobal and translocal perspectives Doing so the book marks auto biography and testimony as a specific field of inquiry within the study of women's postcolonial cultural productions in the Moroccan and more broadly the Maghrebi and the Middle Eastern contexts Stolen Lives Malika Oufkir,2002-05-01 A gripping memoir that reads like a political thriller the story of Malika Oufkir s turbulent and remarkable life Born in 1953 Malika Oufkir was the eldest daughter of General Oufkir the King of Morocco s closest aide Adopted by the king at the age of five Malika spent most of her childhood and adolescence in the seclusion of the court harem one of the most eligible heiresses in the kingdom surrounded by luxury and extraordinary privilege Then on August 16 1972 her father was arrested and executed after an attempt to assassinate the king Malika her five younger brothers and sisters and her mother were immediately imprisoned in a desert penal colony After fifteen years the last ten of which they spent locked up in solitary cells the Oufkir children managed to dig a tunnel with their bare hands and make an audacious escape Recaptured after five days Malika was finally able to leave Morocco and begin a new life in exile in 1996 A heartrending account in the face of extreme deprivation and the courage with which one family faced its fate Stolen Lives is an unforgettable story of one woman s journey to freedom

Justice Required Robert J. Durán,Oralia Loza,2025-10-07 Police have remarkably broad discretion to use deadly force Evidence shows that more than 1 000 shooting deaths occur each year at the hands of the police in the United States disproportionately in minority communities and often under questionable circumstances Despite public outrage there continue to be obstacles to assessing the extent of bias and addressing the harms of police violence including a lack of transparency and limitations on access to data Justice Required is a groundbreaking quantitative and qualitative investigation of police violence Robert J Dur n and Oralia Loza provide a comprehensive data analysis of all police shootings in Denver Colorado over nearly forty years highlighting persistent patterns of racial and ethnic inequality They examine the institutional and political dynamics that thwart efforts to hold police officers accountable after controversial incidents Dur n and Loza contextualize the data with regional comparisons and enliven the analysis with vivid storytelling Justice Required argues that while police shootings are typically treated as a criminal justice issue they should be understood as a public health problem Rigorous and urgent this book provides evidence based data driven solutions to prevent further loss of life and promote accountability

Art for Coexistence Christine Ross,2022-11-22 An exploration of how contemporary art reframes and humanizes migration calling for coexistence the recognition of the interdependence of beings In Art for Coexistence art historian Christine Ross examines contemporary art s response to migration showing that art invites us to abandon our preconceptions about the current crisis to unlearn them and to see migration more critically more disobediently We viewers in Europe and North America must come to see migration in terms of coexistence the interdependence of beings The artworks explored by Ross reveal contest rethink delink and relink more reciprocally the interdependencies shaping migration today connecting citizens on the move from some of the poorest countries and acknowledged citizens of some of the wealthiest countries and democracies worldwide These installations videos virtual reality works webcasts sculptures graffiti paintings photographs and a rescue boat by artists including Banksy Ai Weiwei Alejandro Gonz lez I rritu Laura

Waddington Tania Bruguera and others demonstrate art's power to mediate experiences of migration Ross argues that art invents a set of interconnected calls for more mutual forms of coexistence to historicize to become responsible to empathize and to story tell Art history Ross tells us must discard the legacy of imperialist museology which dissocializes dehistoricizes and depoliticizes art It must reinvent itself engaging with political philosophy postcolonial decolonial Black and Indigenous studies and critical refugee and migrant studies

African Pasts, Presents, and Futures Touria Khannous,2013-10-17
African Pasts Presents and Futures Generational Shifts in African Women's Literature Film and Internet Discourse by Touria Khannous provides a history of African women's cultural production as well as an alternative approach to the arguments that have traditionally dominated post colonial studies in general and African and gender studies in particular It examines some of the more overarching questions that are prevalent in the works of African women authors who position themselves within the contexts of Islam feminism nationalism modernity and global and postcolonial politics thus engaging in the construction of socio political platforms for reform in their home countries The book explores different aspects of women's agency at the political cultural social religious and aesthetic level and highlights their civil society activism and push for legal reform It also traces their opinions on a range of social and political questions and underscores fundamental shifts in their positions and concerns through the different generations

All Things Censored Mumia Abu-Jamal,2001-06-05 More than 75 essays many freshly composed by Mumia with the cartridge of a ball point pen the only implement he is allowed in his death row cell embody the calm and powerful words of humanity spoken by a man on Death Row Abu Jamal writes on many different topics including the ironies that abound within the U S prison system and the consequences of those ironies and his own case Mumia's composure humor and connection to the living world around him represents an irrefutable victory over the corrections system that has for two decades sought to isolate and silence him The title All Things Censored refers to Mumia's hiring as an on air columnist by National Public Radio's All Things Considered and subsequent banning from that venue under pressure from law and order groups

Sometimes Blue Knights Wear Black Hats is a collection of poetry about law enforcement excesses Most of the poems were inspired by actual cases from around the country The author did not set out to compile a collection of these poems but more and more nearly every day another case of law enforcement's excessive use of force was reported in the Media The author also did not set out to demonize law enforcement but focused on those cases where things went terribly wrong for a number of reasons As a poet as someone deeply committed to realizing a just society the poet chose to report these cases in poetic forms The poet acknowledges how tough the job is for those entrusted with public safety An earlier version of this book was among the finalists in the 2000 National Poetry Series competition

The Laterite Road Tony Marinho, 2012 The Laterite Road is a poetic appreciation of Africa's historical journey its triumphs and troubles set against its borderless geographical highpoints It glorifies the tenacity of Africa's peoples ignoring political parasites The Laterite Road the ubiquitous red dusty or muddy road leading from and to almost every African home is a metaphor for community and unity suffering and survival The Laterite Road is the highway linking the thread binding Africa and Africans in play and poverty hunger and hope On The Laterite Road criss cross Africa from the Pyramids to Kilimanjaro to Tabletop Mountain to Gore Isle to Djibouti Drink from the Limpopo shower in the Victoria Falls and navigate the Nile The Laterite Road is timeless ancient and modern stretching from ancestral Turkana Boy to Apartheid to today's Arab Spring The Laterite Road clocks up 20 000Km marked by 100Km kilometre stones doubling as headstones with a name or event honouring living and dead great and unknown Africans and Africanophiles In The Laterite Road learn of football's power and Chelsea and Arsenal football fans dying on the same losing side to the applause of coup bullets The kilometre stones also help readers recognise return to and recommend a favourite kilometre stone stanza Face to Face, Volume Three Marty Folsom, 2016-08-31

Like falling in love this book argues that a relationship with God begins with surprise proceeds with discovery and shapes a life that comes to share a story of love This book does not describe God but pursues the nature of personally relating with the triune God Consequently it also engages how we relate with humans made in God's image We finish the Face to Face series with this most mysterious and fulfilling encounter a personal engagement with the Relational God known as a community of persons who invite us to share in their life The Purpose Gap Patrick B. Reyes, 2021-03-16

In The Purpose Gap Patrick Reyes reflects on a family member's death after a long struggle with incarceration and homelessness As he asks himself why his cousin's life had turned out so differently from his own he realizes that it was a matter of conditions While they both grew up in the same marginalized Chicano community in central California Patrick found himself surrounded by a host of family friends and supporters They created a different narrative for him than the one the rest of the world had succeeded in imposing on his cousin In short they created the conditions in which Patrick could not only survive but thrive Far too much of the literature on leadership tells the story of heroic individuals creating their success by their own efforts Such stories fail to recognize the structural obstacles to thriving faced by those in marginalized communities If young people in these communities are to grow up to lives of purpose others must help create the conditions to make that happen Pastors organizational leaders educators family and friends must all perceive their calling to create new stories and new conditions of thriving for those most marginalized This book offers both inspiration and practical guidance for how to do that It offers advice on creating safe space for failure nurturing networks that support young people of color and professional guidance for how to implement these strategies in one's congregation school or community organization Free Me Francesca Riley, 2021-05-22

He belongs to the ocean she belongs to the land They've escaped his ocean prison but you don't just walk away from a curse and the sea is coming for them Can they stop the vengeful tide The thrilling third instalment of this addictive mythical love story will leave you reeling Come on in the water's fine When Skye and Hunter's worlds collide they discover a love beyond what they could ever have imagined but there is always a price to pay Memories are lost and souls are dissolving and Hunter must win Skye s love again or their inexplicable connection could destroy them both along with everyone they care about But will their love be enough The answer will take Skye and Hunter so close to darkness it could be worse than fatal Once you re in too deep there s no going back Fans of Becca Fitzpatrick Laini Taylor and Kami Garcia will love the Immersed series This is the final instalment in Skye and Hunter s story but more Immersed stories are out there in the dark waters of Bascath Bay Follow this author to hear about them

Global Law, Human Rights, and Intersections With Honor Killing Dhamija, Somesh,Yadav, Tarun Pratap, Lee, Jae-Seung, Singh, Harshita, Roh, Myunghoon, 2024-12-02 Global law and human rights play a crucial role in addressing the complex issue of honor killings which violate fundamental principles of dignity and equality As a presentation of entrenched patriarchal norms honor killings challenge human rights frameworks established by global laws and practices The intersection of global law and local customs presents significant challenges as cultural practices are often utilized to justify these acts Recognition of the need for legal reform and advocacy is necessary to better understand the systemic issues at play and work toward effective solutions that protect vulnerable individuals and promote social change Global Law Human Rights and Intersections With Honor Killing explores the effects of global law and human rights advocacy on the issue of honor killing Various laws and social movements against the practice of honor killing are examined as well as the impact of new policies on honor killing mitigation and violence prevention This book covers topics such as immigration multiculturalism and patriarchy and is a useful resource for policymakers government officials civil rights organizations psychologists media professionals gender scientists academicians and researchers
