The Late Poems of Meng Chiao Meng Chiao, 2020-09-01 Late in life Meng Chiao A.D. 751-814 developed an experimental poetry of virtuosic beauty a poetry that anticipated landmark developments in the modern Western tradition by a millennium With the Tang Dynasty crumbling Meng's later work employed surrealist and symbolist techniques as it turned to a deep introspection This is truly major work work that may be the most radical in the Chinese tradition And though written more than a thousand years ago it is remarkably fresh and contemporary But in spite of Meng's significance this is the first volume of his poetry to appear in English. Until the age of forty Meng Chiao lived as a poet recluse associated with Chan Zen poet monks in south China. He then embarked on a rather unsuccessful career as a government official. Throughout this time his poetry was decidedly mediocre conventional verse inevitably undone by his penchant for the strange and surprising. After his retirement Meng developed the innovative poetry translated in this book. His late work is singular not only for its bleak introspection and avant garde methods but also for its dimensions in a tradition typified by the short lyric poem. This work is made up entirely of large poetic sequences. Current Policy United States. Department of State. Bureau of Public Affairs, 1984. The Home Love Built Christine Flynn, 2011-07-15. ONE MAN Sheriff Gabe Gallagher could keep order in a community of thousands yet his child was another matter entirely. And so was his heart where Laura was concerned. He'd been burned once by love but something about the virginal beauty made him want to be a better man and a better dad. And to hold fast to the home that once love had built and might fill again.
