The Stone Boudoir Theresa Maggio, 2003-04-17 Experience the history and daily rhythms of Sicily's remote mountain towns with this stunning travel memoir revealing the hearts and minds of everyday Sicilians In this sparkling book Theresa Maggio takes us on a journey in search of Sicily's most remote and least explored mountain towns Using her grandparents' ancestral village of Santa Margherita Belice as her base camp she pores over old maps to plot her adventure selecting as her targets the smallest dots with the most appealing names Her travels take her to the small towns surrounding Mt Etna the volcanic islands of the Aeolian Sea and the charming villages nestled in the Madonie Mountains Whether she's writing about the unique pleasures of Sicilian street food the damage wrought by molten lava the ancient traditions of Sicilian bagpipers or the religious processions that consume entire villages for days on end Maggio succeeds in transporting readers to a wholly unfamiliar world where almonds grow like weeds and the water tastes of stone In the stark but evocative prose that is her hallmark Maggio enters the hearts and heads of Sicilians unlocking the secrets of a tantalizingly complex culture Although she makes frequent forays to villages near and far she always returns to Santa Margherita where she researches her family tree in the municipio goes on adventures with her cousin Nella and traces the town's past in history and literature A beautifully wrought meditation on time and place The Stone Boudoir will be treasured by all who love fine travel writing

The Heart and the Island Chiara Mazzucchelli, 2015-08-04 Makes the case for a distinctly Sicilian American literature In The Heart and the Island Chiara Mazzucchelli explores the strong bond between Sicilian American writers and the island of Sicily Self contained yet connected to the mainland geographically separated from yet politically united to the rest of Italy Sicily occupies a unique position Throughout the twentieth century the sense of a distinct sicilianit or Sicilianness has manifested itself in a corpus of texts that although subsumed under the broader context of Italian literature have distinguished themselves as examples of an exquisitely Sicilian literary experience Mazzucchelli argues that a parallel phenomenon sicilianamericanit has emerged in the United States Focusing on the island s geography history and culture she examines how many American authors of Sicilian descent derive inspiration from their ethnic milieu and lay out a recognizable set of Sicilian culture markers in their works thereby producing a literature that is distinctly Sicilian American Drawing on both Italian and Italian American scholarship The Heart and the Island is the first full length study of Sicilian American literature and it opens a space for new interdisciplinary discussions on what it means to be Italian on both sides of the ocean The Heart and the Island makes a distinctive contribution to the field of Italian American studies provocatively extending it as well as continuing the invaluable work of providing reflection on a variety of narratives distinguished by generic innovation and distinctive responses to sicilianit Chiara Mazzucchelli has beautifully advanced the field interweaving with skill and poise the voices of Sicilian and Sicilian American writers Mary Jo Bona author of By the Breath of Their Mouths Narratives of Resistance in Italian America Personal Effects Nancy Caronia,Edvige Giunta,2014-10-15 Celebrating one of the most important Italian American female authors of our time Personal Effects offers a lucid view of Louise DeSalvo as a writer who has produced a vast and provocative body of memoir writing a scholar who has enriched our understanding of Virginia Woolf and a teacher who has transformed countless lives More than an anthology Personal Effects represents an author case study and an example for modern Italian American interdisciplinary scholarship Personal Effects examines DeSalvo s memoirs as works that push the boundaries of the most controversial genre of the past few decades In these works the author fearlessly explores issues such as immigration domesticity war adultery illness mental health sexuality the environment and trauma through the lens of gender ethnic and working class identity Alongside her groundbreaking scholarship DeSalvo s memoirs attest to the power and influence of this feminist Italian American writer Mercury Pictures Presents Anthony Marra,2023-06-27 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER Includes a behind the scenes conversation with bestselling novelist Amor Towles The epic story of a brilliant woman who must reinvent herself to survive in 1940s Hollywood and fascist Europe a timeless tale of love deceit and sacrifice and a perfect book club pick from the award winning author of A Constellation of Vital Phenomena A genuinely moving and life affirming novel that s a true joy to read Celeste Ng author of Little Fires Everywhere A gorgeous book sublime The New York Times Editors Choice ONE OF THE BEST BOOKS OF THE YEAR NPR The Guardian Booklist Like many before her Maria Lagana has come to Hollywood to outrun her past Born in Rome where every Sunday her father took her to the cinema instead of church Maria immigrates with her mother to Los Angeles after a childhood transgression leads to her father s arrest Fifteen years later on the eve of America s entry into World War II Maria is an associate producer at Mercury Pictures trying to keep her personal and professional lives from falling apart Her mother won t speak to her Her boss a man of many toupees has been summoned to Washington by congressional investigators Her boyfriend a virtuoso Chinese American actor can t escape the studio s narrow typecasting And the studio itself Maria s only home in exile teeters on the verge of bankruptcy Over the coming months as the bright

The Stone Boudoir Teri Maggio, Theresa Maggio, 2003-06-02 Fascinated by her family's stories of their Sicilian homeland Theresa Maggio decided to return to her ancestral village of Santa Margherita Belice and to explore the vanishing world they had left behind She travelled to some of the most obscure and isolated villages in the shadows of Mount Etna many of which had been all but destroyed by a huge earthquake in 1968 There she found an ancient way of life where religious processions can consume villagers for days on end and where almonds grow like weeds by the roadside
